COME TO THE WATER:
...for repentance and reconciliation

“...you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.” Isaiah 58:11

We come to Annual Conference 2003 with many remembrances of pain and suffering. Pain inflicted by racism and cultural differences. Sin committed by omission and by commission that has crippled relationships and broken the body of Christ. We come to offer our confessions, our repentance, and our acknowledgement of the stones that we have thrown, the wrongs we have perpetrated.

We come to the baptismal waters remembering that God claims us in love. We come to the table accepting the forgiving grace that restores us to right relationship. We come professing that the barriers that we have erected can be destroyed and new relationships are a promised hope.

We come to elect our delegation to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. In our gatherings we celebrate congregational development and missional outreach. We hear powerful preaching and inspiring singing. We celebrate the laity of the church and our call to be the priesthood of believers. We come to celebrate our joys and blessings of ministry together.

We come this year bringing with us a rock that symbolizes the suffering we have caused, the conflicts we have ignited. We bring these rocks contributing to a community confession of sins committed. We bring them to the cleansing streams. We bring them to the source that offers healing strength. We take new rocks home proclaiming the good news of a living stone. A new life that is built in Christ Jesus. A new community that is restored to new faith and hope.

We come to proclaim a God who desires peace. A God who reminds us that we “shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.”

God is always faithful.

Zan Holmes

Zan Holmes offers exceptional leadership across The United Methodist Church as preeminent preacher, teacher, writer, civic leader and social activist. He was born in San Angelo, Texas, and educated at Huston-Tillotson College in Austin and Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University. He has served as pastor and district superintendent in Dallas and as adjunct professor of preaching at Perkins. He will be familiar to Disciple alumni as narrator of the Disciple Bible Study video series. Serving on the Advisory Committee for Songs of Zion and Come Sunday, he has given significant leadership to our shared worship life. His civic awards include recognitions for human relations, civil rights, humanitarian work, and peacemaking. He served as Sate Representative in the Texas legislature from 1968-74, representing a portion of Dallas County. At the end of 28 years as pastor of St. Luke Community United Methodist Church in Dallas, he retired. He is married to Carrie Collins. He continues to teach and preach and serve across the global connection of The United Methodist Church.

Cynthia Wilson-Hollins

The Rev. Cynthia A. Wilson-Hollins, the Pastor of Music, Worship, and Communications at Ben Hill United Methodist Church in Atlanta, Georgia, is also a popular lecturer, preacher, teacher, conductor and concert artist. Prior to serving at Ben Hill, she was the Minister of Music for six years at Hamilton Park United Methodist Church in Dallas, Texas, where she was also an adjunct professor at Southern Methodist University. She is a native of New Orleans and a graduate of Dillard University. Rev. Wilson-Hollins is also a graduate of the Southern Methodist University Perkins School of Theology. In February of 2000.

Rev. Wilson-Hollins' recording credits include collaborations with Lionel Hampton, Melba Moore, Shirley Caesar, Edwin and Tramaine Hawkins, and the late Rev. James Cleveland.

She has traveled in Europe (including a memorable Copenhagen tour), Africa, Asia and the United States, singing everything from Handel to Mahalia Jackson. In 1998, she sang at a benefit concert for Africa University at Carnegie Hall in New York, an event sponsored by the church's New York Annual Conference.

Rev. Wilson-Hollins was the Music Director for the 2000 General Conference, the United Methodist Church's top legislative body. The conference was held in Cleveland, Ohio, May 2-12, 2000. She was co-director of music for the General Conference held in Denver in 1996.

She is married to the Rev. McCallister Hollins and they are the proud parents of five children and two grandchildren.

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

SECTION I: RULES OF ORDER

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these rules.
2. A member may speak only once on any motion until all who desire to speak have done so; and then he/she may speak only one additional time.
3. The chairperson of an agency (or someone designated by him/her) shall be allowed to speak last on his/her report even though the previous questions have been ordered.
4. Speeches shall be limited to five (5) minutes except by consent of the Conference.
5. If any part of these rules conflict with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the Discipline shall prevail.
6. The Rules of Order and Procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall apply to the Annual Conference as regularly scheduled and to all called sessions of the Conference.

SECTION II: VOTING

1. Voting shall be by "yes or no" or by a "show of hands" or by "standing" at the discretion of the chair.
2. A count vote may be ordered or called by any member of the Conference supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present and voting. The chair may call for a count vote if he/she is in doubt as to the outcome of the vote.
3. All votes shall be cast in the bar of the Conference. The bar of the Conference shall be determined by the Conference at the beginning of the first session.

SECTION III: ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

1. The election of clerical delegates shall be by secret ballot. (Each person eligible to vote shall indicate his/her choice of names for the places ordered by the chair on the secret ballot without prior nomination, with balloting to continue until a majority is received by sufficient persons to fulfill the needed number of delegates.)
2. a. Any lay person who is a member of The United Methodist Church of the North Carolina Conference who wishes to be a nominee may submit a resume, not to exceed 200 words. Resumes may also be submitted on behalf of a prospective nominee.
b. Consent of the nominee should be obtained after the nominee has been informed of the duties of a delegate.
c. Any lay member of a Church in the NC Conference may be voted for whether a resume is submitted or not.
d. Resumes should be mailed to the Conference lay leader by April 1 of the year prior to the upcoming General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
e. The list of nominees and their resumes will be prepared and distributed by the Conference Commission on Laity at the District Briefings or be mailed with the Book of Reports.
f. The election of lay delegates shall be by secret ballot as above. Electors may vote for any eligible person, whether nominated as above or not.
3. All votes shall be cast upon the official ballots authorized by the Conference.
4. Ballots shall be numbered consecutively and only ballots with the number announced by the chair shall be valid. Defaced ballots will not be valid. (If a member defaces a ballot, he/she may exchange it for a new one at the secretary's desk.)
5. Each member will place his/her own ballot in the ballot box held by a teller.
6. Different colored ballots will be provided for lay and clerical members.
7. The names of persons receiving less than ten (10) votes shall not be reported to

- the Conference.
8. Five alternates to Jurisdictional Conference shall be elected.
 9. A ballot will be considered invalid in the following cases:
 - a. Any electronic ballot which is not marked clearly and darkly with a number 2 lead pencil. (Any the scanner will not read.)
 - b. More or less than the number of votes permitted on that particular ballot.
 - c. Voting for a person already elected.
 - d. Voting for someone not eligible.
 - e. Voting twice for the same person.

SECTION IV: CONFERENCE STRUCTURE

1. The Bishop, Cabinet and Nominating Committee shall determine the size of, and nominate the members of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, Committees, and Ministry Groups authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Conference, except in those cases where the Discipline or the Annual Conference directs otherwise.
2. Near the end of each quadrennium, the representatives of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, Committees, and Ministry Groups shall submit a list of qualified, suggested nominees to the Nominations Committee for their consideration in the formation of new Boards, Agencies, Commissions, Committees, and Ministry Groups.
3. Recommendations and Nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.
 - A. At the beginning of each quadrennium all boards, agencies, commissions, committees, and ministry groups shall elect their officers only after all their members have been notified of the organizational meeting. A member of the Cabinet or the Conference Staff (designated by the Cabinet) shall serve as the convening officer for the organizational meeting.
 - B. All elections in the boards and agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be by written, secret ballot of those present and eligible to vote. Nominations from the floor may be made.
 - C. Tenure for membership for all persons on boards, agencies, commissions, committees, and ministry groups shall be four years with possibility of re-election for a second four year term.
5. The membership of the Annual Conference is to be as outlined in the complete Lay/Clergy Equalization Plan found in the 1991 Journal pages 400 - 401.
6. The Conference structure is diagramed on page 185 in the 2000 Journal.

A. Structure Monitoring Group

A group will be established for the purpose of evaluating the conference structure for effectiveness. It will also ensure that the Conference Rules are accurate in the description of the structure of the Annual Conference, making proposals for change as structure evolves. This group will be elected by the Annual Conference and made up of seven people, four of whom are not serving within the Conference Structure.

B. North Carolina Conference Connectional Table

1. The Connectional Table will be the link among the circles of ministry. Its purpose is to provide a place for joint planning and problem-solving, to discern the vision for mission and ministry for the North Carolina Conference, and to strengthen the connection between the Annual Conference and the local church. The Connectional Table is linked to the Annual Conference Session. The Annual Conference Session will have the responsibility of hearing the Connectional Table's vision, and either affirming that vision or setting forward an alternate proposal.

2. Membership: Meeting on a quarterly basis, the Connectional Table will be made up of 31 people - 3 representatives from each circle of ministry, 12 at-large members selected by the Conference Committee on Nominations, and elected by vote of the Annual Conference, the Bishop, 2 District Superintendents, and the Executive Director of Connectional Ministries. At-large members will ensure connecting links between districts and local churches and the Connectional Table. Membership in the Connectional Table will be for four-year terms, with one quarter of the table changing each year. The Conference Committee on Nominations will meet once each year to nominate representatives to the Conference Connectional Table and to the five circles of ministry. Openings occurring during the year due to moves, resignations and other reasons will be filled by the Bishop and Cabinet. The Committee on Nominations will be made up of one representative of the monitoring and accountability group, the 12 District Superintendents, 12 others to be nominated by the bishop (at least 75% of whom should be laity), and the Bishop will also serve as convener.

C. Five Circles of Ministry

The agencies, boards and commissions defined by the Book of Discipline will organize themselves according to the requirements outlined in the current Book of Discipline and will connect through the circles of ministry. Ministry areas not prescribed by the Book of Discipline will be organized by the circles of ministry, using task forces or standing groups to plan and implement ministry and mission. Circles of ministry will organize, plan, lead, and evaluate, as they live out the vision embraced by the Conference. Circles of ministry are accountable to the Connectional Table for holding up and living out the vision affirmed by the Annual Conference, and for faithfully presenting ministry needs to the Connectional Table. Each circle of ministry will organize itself and will determine its schedule of meetings, meeting at least once a year during the conference year.

Membership in the five circles of ministry will be for one four-year term with the option to extend for an additional four-year term, using staggered classes to provide continuity within the ministry area.

1. Spiritual Formation and Leadership Development Circle

This circle of ministry will encompass the work of all Christians (lay and ordained), taking care to carry forward the work of Christian nurture and spiritual formation, including the work of the United Methodist Youth.

2. Mission Development Circle

This circle of ministry will carry forward the work of witness, outreach/missions, and social justice, including the work of the United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men.

3. Episcopal Circle

This circle of ministry will encompass the work of the bishop and cabinet, annual conference program, ecumenism, Christian unity, congregational development, monitoring and accountability, and nominations.

4. Resource Ministries Circle

This circle of ministry will encompass the work of the treasurer's office, insurance, disability, trustees, pensions, equitable compensation, finance and administration.

5. Communications Circle

This circle of ministry will carry forward the work of archives and history, information systems, publications, electronic reporting, and the linking of the local church, the annual conference, and the world.

7. There shall be a director of ministerial relations/assistant to the bishop with such duties and responsibilities as determined by the Annual Conference or assigned by the presiding bishop.

8. The Conference Secretary:

A. The position of Conference Secretary shall be continued on a part-time basis with those duties stipulated by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the North Carolina Annual Conference, with adequate funding provided.

B. The Conference Secretary shall be elected at the beginning of each Quadrennium, at the first session of the Annual Conference following The General Conference of The United Methodist Church.

C. The responsibilities of the Conference Secretary shall be defined as specified by the Annual Conference of 1973 (Conference Journal 1973, pages 289-290).

9. The Conference Statistician:

A. The position of Conference Statistician shall be continued on a part-time basis with those duties stipulated by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, with adequate funding provided.

B. The Conference Statistician shall be elected at the beginning of each Quadrennium, at the first session of the Annual Conference following The General Conference of The United Methodist Church.

10. Compensation: The Council on Finance and Administration shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also, the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The Conference treasurer shall pay these amounts.

11. The Conference Lay Leader: The Conference Lay Leader shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Annual Conference following General Conference on nomination by the Bishop and Cabinet and the Executive Committee of the Board of Laity. Should a vacancy occur at any other time it would be filled by the same procedure, with the nominee serving as lay leader until a leader is elected at the next Annual Conference. The Conference Lay Leader shall serve as the chairperson of the Commission on Laity.

12. Committees and Boards:

A. The Conference Board of Trustees shall meet periodically at times and places designated by the Board at least twice a year. The annual meeting shall be held either at Annual Conference or within 30 days prior thereto.

B. There shall be a Program Committee of the Annual Conference consisting of the resident Bishop, Assistant to the Bishop, the Conference Secretary, Conference Treasurer, the host district superintendent, the Conference lay leader, the Conference president of the UMM, UMW the UMY, the Executive Director of Connectional Ministries, and others as selected by the resident Bishop as deemed appropriate. The Committee shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers and this shall be paid from the Annual Conference expense fund. The Committee may also make a recommendation for a site for holding the Annual Conference.

C. The Cabinet will designate a district each year on a rotating basis as the host district which will be responsible for ushers, flowers, and other related items of hospitality.

D. There shall be a Committee on Memoirs composed of the Conference Secretary, and the district superintendents. They are charged with the responsibility of providing for all details of the memorial service. The Conference Secretary shall serve as its chairperson.

E. There shall be a Committee on Daily Minutes elected each year to examine and edit the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference.

F. There shall be a Committee on Appeals appointed quadrennially, composed of five members whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Building, or any other questions that may properly come before it.

G. There shall be a Committee on Rules which shall provide to the Conference a document of Rules of Order and Procedure and the policies and standing rules and structure that the Conference from time to time shall adopt for its functioning. This document shall be presented to each Annual Conference.

H. There shall be a Committee on Resolutions and Reference which shall schedule all resolutions for consideration by the Annual Conference, including resolutions from boards and agencies printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports. This scheduling will not constitute a recommendation for approval, disapproval or referral of such a resolution. Any resolution not in Conference publications will be reviewed by this committee, which shall recommend to the Annual Conference approval, disapproval, or referral to another board or agency. With each report the committee shall state the rationale for the recommendation.

I. There shall be a North Carolina Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. which shall have the responsibility, upon consultation with the Conference Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry, the Conference Commission on Health and Human Services, or the North Carolina United Methodist Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc., as appropriate, for nominating and electing forty (40) percent of all voting members of each of the boards of trustees of the affiliated institutions with the exception of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. The North Carolina Annual Conference shall elect the trustees of the North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. in staggered four-year terms. (See 1992 Journal, page 320.)

13. No person may serve on more than one board of trustees of an institution to which trustees are elected by the Conference.

SECTION V: FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION

1. The Conference Treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from our Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, and to print the same in the Journal.
2. The Council on Finance and Administration shall present the budget for adoption by the Annual Conference only after all other committees, commissions, boards, and agencies having claims on the budget have presented their report.
3. Each district superintendent shall furnish the Conference Treasurer as early as possible following the completion of the Charge Conferences an official copy of the amounts budgeted by each local church for Conference apportionments; and a schedule of salaries of clergy as budgeted shall be sent to the presiding bishop.

SECTION VI: REPORTS, RESOLUTIONS, MOTIONS, AND AMENDMENTS TO REPORTS

1. All reports, recommendations, and resolutions to be included in the The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports shall be sent to the Conference Secretary, typewritten or in some other form acceptable to the Conference Secretary, and published in the Conference calendar.
2. Resolutions presented to the Annual Conference, other than those printed in conference publications, shall be submitted in writing to the Conference Secretary and the chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference 30 days prior to the opening of Annual Conference, to allow review by the secretary and Resolutions and Reference Committee, and by all members of the Conference. A resolution is considered "presented" to the Annual Conference when it is distributed in Conference publications or distributed to members on the floor of the Annual Conference after authorization by the Conference Secretary and chairperson of the Resolutions and Reference Committee or the Assistant Conference Secretary. The expense for distributed copies shall be borne by the agency or person originating the resolution, and all copies distributed shall indicate the source of the resolution. No resolution shall be voted on unless it has been presented at least 24 hours in advance, and no resolution or revised resolution shall be distributed later than the second night of the Annual Conference session. All resolutions shall be referred to the Resolutions and Reference Committee, and this Committee shall report to the Annual Conference daily.

3. Motions presented to the Annual Conference and amendments to motions shall be in writing and placed in the hands of the Conference Secretary prior to or immediately following presentation.
4. Any report, recommendation, resolution, or motion requiring funding beyond the Conference budget as presented by the Council on Finance and Administration shall be submitted in writing to the Conference Secretary with copies for all the lay and clergy members of the Conference. Such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be presented to the Annual Conference on one day and considered the next day. No such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be distributed later than the second night of the Conference. All such reports, recommendations, resolutions, or motions shall be referred to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

SECTION VII: PASTOR'S REPORT TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE - STATISTICS

1. Final remittances for the current calendar year shall be made to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.
2. Each table of the report shall be completed for individual churches.
3. Table II shall be completed in even dollars only.
4. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the Conference statistician from the pastor's reports.

SECTION VIII: THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

1. The Conference Secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.
2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal, published on a CD shall be sent to each of the following: the Conference claimants, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Conference, and lay members of the Annual Conference. The Conference Secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church as he/she may deem advisable. CD Copies shall be sent to each pastor without charge. Hardbound copies may be ordered in advance for a purchase price of $20.00 each. Monies accruing from the sale of the Journal shall be deposited with the Conference treasurer and credited to the Journal Account.
3. The Conference shall publish a one volume Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference each year.

SECTION IX: DISTRICTS

1. The number of districts shall be twelve.
2. Any motion to change the number of districts must be presented in writing, and must be considered no sooner than the day following its introduction. Any change in the number of districts shall be approved at one annual conference to take effect at the next annual conference.
3. A district conference may be held annually in each district.
4. The district president, sub-district presidents, and the local church presidents of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship shall be delegates to the District Conference, in addition to those named by the 1972 Discipline.
5. The district lay leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the district superintendent and the Conference lay leader.

SECTION X: DISPLAYS AT THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Display tables and similar matters shall be allocated by the Conference Secretary only to those agencies, boards, commissions, groups or circles of ministry that are officially sanctioned by the North Carolina Annual Conference or by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church. "Officially sanctioned" is defined as having direct official endorsement from the General Conference of the United Methodist Church or the North Carolina Annual Conference.

No board, agency or similar official group granted display space or similar privileges shall offer its display space to a group or agency that is not officially sanctioned by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church or the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Space may be provided in a separate "Ministry and Advocacy" area adjacent to the meeting place of Annual Conference for groups not officially sanctioned by the North Carolina Annual Conference or by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church but that are of interest to the members of the Annual Conference. Display tables and similar matters related to the Ministry and Advocacy tent shall be allocated by the Conference Secretary.

SECTION XI: AMENDMENTS

These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day after a proposed amendment has been presented in writing.

SECTION XII: WHEN THE RULES BECOME EFFECTIVE

These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon adoption by the Annual Conference.

James L. Bryan, Conference Secretary

EXECUTIVE SESSION OF THE 2002 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

MONDAY, JUNE 2, 2003, 3:00 P.M.

Caswell Shaw led the clergy in singing several traditional hymns. Bishop Marion M. Edwards called the 178th session of the North Carolina Annual Conference Executive Session to order at 3:00 p.m. This was the 35th meeting since 1968 of The United Methodist Church. He opened the session with prayer and welcomed the clergy and guests to the Executive Session. Charles Michael Smith led the singing of "My Hope Is Built". The Bishop invited Hope Morgan Ward to lead the Wellspring Prayer Break for the Executive Session. Bishop Edwards directed the Executive Session's attention to The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2003, pages 138-142.

Bishop Edwards gave a brief history of The United Methodist Church and challenged the pastors to be faithful to their ordination vows. The Bishop then read from ¶365.5 designating the purpose of the Executive Session as set forth in The Book of Discipline. He also quoted from ¶605.6 that states decisions made by the Executive Session will apply to the Annual Conference as a whole. Bishop Edwards asked the members to be a covenant community. He stated that there are 350 organized covenant communities within the North Carolina Conference, which focus on prayer and accountability. He encouraged all to become a part of the Wellspring Covenant community.

The Bishop said that more than 50 clergy persons requested transfer into the North Carolina Conference. He noted that all positions were filled with the current members of the North Carolina Conference; therefore none of the requests for transfer could be honored.

Motion: The Bishop explained the voting rights of members in full connection. He stated that the Executive Session must grant special permission for visitors to be present. The Bishop then requested that a motion be made to allow guests to be present. A motion was made, seconded, and approved.

Passing of the Character of the Clergy: The Bishop explained the purpose and meaning of passing the character of the clergy as set forth in ¶605.6. The district superintendents stood as Bishop Edwards declared them blameless in their character. The Bishop then passed the character of the district superintendents. The Bishop then called for the vote to approve the conduct of the district superintendents, and they were approved.

Bishop Edwards acknowledged that not all the district superintendents would be able to affirm the character of all the clergy in their districts, for there are complaints against some clergy. The district superintendents were called upon to pass the character of the clergy in their respective districts. The Elizabeth City District and Goldsboro District each have a complaint filed against one clergy person. The Raleigh District Superintendent reported complaints filed against two clergy. The remaining nine district superintendents reported nothing against the clergy of their districts. Paul Stallworth, NB: St. Peter's/Broad Creek asked what the natures of the charges were. The Bishop responded that there were no doctrinal or teaching matters but issues dealing with harassment and supervision of staff. Several complaints were resolved by the surrender of credentials. With the exception of the four clergy with unresolved complaints, the Bishop asked the Executive Session to pass the character of the clergy of the North Carolina Annual Conference. They were passed.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Bishop Edwards expressed appreciation to the Board of Ordained Ministry for their work. He then called Roger Elliott, chairperson of the Board, to present the report.

Elliott directed the attention of the Executive Session to the ERRATA sheet and to the Annual Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. He thanked Paul Leeland and his staff for their work. Elliott gave a brief description of the tasks of each committee on the Board of Ordained Ministry. Dr. Burt Lucas was introduced as the person who administers the psychological tests.

The Executive Session was directed to page 3 for the election of the members of the Board of Managers, Pastors' School & Convocation. No other nominations were made. The Bishop called for the vote and those listed were elected.

The Administrative Review Committee and its duties were explained. Elliott referred to Question 33a, "Who are elected as members (Deacons) in full connection?" One candidate is eligible for Deacon in full connection. He then referred to Question 34, noting that Mary Lowrey Peacock is eligible for ordination as Deacon in Full Connection. He then referred to Question 27, "Who are elected as associate members?" Five candidates are eligible for associate membership. These candidates were presented to the Bishop, who asked the candidates the historic Wesleyan questions. Each responded appropriately. Mary Lowrey Peacock was voted on separately and she was elected. The members of the session stood and sang, "I am Thine, O Lord."

The Executive Session was directed to Question 19, "Who have received the certificate of candidacy for ordained ministry?" Bishop Edwards outlined the privileges. Then the new candidates eligible for a license for pastoral ministry were presented to the members and greeted with applause.

After a note of encouragement from Belton Joyner, the Bishop then called for the election of those for associate membership and they were elected. The Bishop called for the election of members in full connection and they were elected.

Elliott then addressed Question 46, "Who are discontinued as Probationary Members?" Danielle A. Kirkland was added to the list of discontinued probationary members. Bishop Edwards called for the vote on the discontinuance and it was approved.

Elliott referred to Question 20, "Who have completed the studies for licenses as a local pastor, but are not now appointed?" Elliot then referred to Question 21: those approved and appointed as local pastors and probationary members licensed for pastoral ministry. The Bishop called for a vote on those listed under Questions 21. They were approved.

Elliott then referred to Question 22 and Question 23, which required no action. The Executive Session was referred to Question 24, which required no action. Bishop Edwards invited those persons from other Annual Conferences and Methodist denominations serving in the NC Annual Conference to stand. He then welcomed them to the Executive Session and to the Annual Conference.

Those listed under Question 25 were presented for approval. The Bishop called for the vote, and they were approved. Elliott referred to those listed in Question 26, which required a 2/3 vote. The Bishop called for their election and they were approved.

Elliott addressed Question 28 and presented the candidates for probationary membership to Bishop Edwards. It was noted that Terry Hunt attends Asbury, not Duke. The Bishop asked for any questions directed to the candidates and called for their approval. They were approved.

Elliott referred to Question 30 concerning those who are continued as probationary members elected under the 1996 Book of Discipline. Bishop Edwards recognized those listed. No vote was required.

Elliott then turned to Question 31 concerning those who are continued as probationary members elected under the 1992 Book of Discipline. Those listed were asked to stand. No vote was required.

The members were directed to Question 34(b), "Who are elected for ordination as Deacons in full connection?" The Bishop called for the vote and Mary Lowrey Peacock was elected. The members were then directed to Question 35(b), "Who are elected as Elders?" Bishop Edwards called for the vote and they were elected.

The members were then directed to Question 36(a), "Who have been elected and ordained Deacon under the 1992 Book of Discipline as associate members?" Bishop Edwards called for the vote and they were elected.

Elliott then turned to Question 37(a), "Who have been elected and ordained elders under the 1992 Book of Discipline as theological graduates?" Those listed have been elected and approved previously under Question 33(b) and are eligible for Elder's Orders. The Bishop called for the vote to approve them for ordination as Elders and they were approved.

Elliott noted that one person was to be ordained as a courtesy to another Annual Conference under Question 44(d).

Elliott referred to Question 45, "Who have transferred out to other Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church?" Those listed under Question 47 were presented and approved. No action was required for Question 48.

Under Question 50(a), one person withdrew to join another denomination. One person was listed under Question 50(c) as withdrawing under complaint or charges. The Bishop called for the vote on Question 50 and they were approved for termination.

Under Question 53, Elliott read the names of the probationary and ordained ministers who have received appointments in other Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church. Under Question 54, Geiselle Thompson received the 2/3 vote required for leave of absence greater than five years. The Bishop called for the vote for those listed under voluntary leave of absence under Question 54(a) and they were approved. Upon vote of the members, clergy listed on leave of absence under provisions of Question 54(a) were approved. Under Question 54(c), one person has taken a voluntary leave of absence since the last Annual Conference. One person has had their leave terminated since the last session under Question 54(d). The Bishop called for approval of these persons and they were approved. Under Question 55(a) Martha Edgerton was added to the list for family leave. Suzanna Ross Helms and Joyce Lenore Parker each required a 2/3 vote for family leave granted for more than 5 years. The Bishop called for the vote and both were approved. Clergy listed on family leave under provisions of Question 55(a) were approved by vote of the members. Discontinuance was granted to Danielle Kirkland.

Charles Pollock referred to Question 57. Persons granted incapacity for the first time and those continuing incapacity leave under Question 57(a) and (c) were presented. Donna Susan Moore was listed under Question 57(b) as deceased. The Bishop asked the members for approval. They were approved. Bishop Edwards requested prayer for all those listed.

Elliott addressed Questions 58, 59, and 61: those retiring or recently retired. The Bishop called for the approval of first time retirees and they were approved. He then asked the Executive Session to approve the retirement relationship for those listed and they were approved. The Bishop recognized the retirees who were greeted with applause.

Richard Thorne Matthews was changed to full-time from one-half time under Question 82. Mary Ellen Phelan Switzer was changed to one-quarter time from one-half time. She was voted on and approved separately due to her extension beyond the limit. The Bishop called for a vote on the others listed and they were approved. Barry Page Drum was removed from Question 87 (c). The Bishop asked the members to approve those appointed to extension ministries under Question 87. They were approved.

Elliott completed the report except for the reading of the names of those who have died since the last Annual Conference. The name of Dan Meadows was added under Question 52 with the date of June 1, 2003. Bishop Edwards thanked Elliott for his presentation. The Bishop moved the approval of Question 52. It was approved. The Bishop called for the approval of the whole report of the Board of Ordained Ministry and it was approved.

Everyone stood as Roger Elliott read the names of those clergy and clergy spouses who have died since our last meeting. The Bishop led the Executive Session in a prayer for their families.

Announcements: James Bryan, Conference Secretary, gave instructions on voting procedures for the remainder of the conference.

Caswell Shaw led the Executive Session in the singing of "Only Trust Him."

Adjournment: The Bishop gave the benediction and dismissed the Executive Session at 5:00 p.m.

FIRST DAY, EVENING SESSION

MONDAY, JUNE 2, 2003

A Service of Commissioning and Ordination: The ordination service began at 7:30 p.m. The liturgist was Bishop Marion Edwards. Reverend Zan Holmes was the preacher. The Lay Representative was Mrs. Jeanne Rouse. The Reverend Johnnie L. Wright served as Marshal and the Reverend Roger Elliott presented the candidates for commissioning and ordination. Special music was provided by Cynthia Wilson-Hollins. (For synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, A Service of Commissioning and Ordination, Monday, June 2, 2003)

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION

TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 2003

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order at 8:00 a.m. This was the 35th session of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Bishop Edwards introduced Johnnie Wright, Worship Chairperson, to lead the Conference in the singing of "And Are We Yet Alive."

Organization of the Conference: James Bryan, Conference Secretary, guided the Conference through the roll call and motions of order. He moved that the bar of the Conference be the main floor and stage of the Crown Theatre but does not include the balcony. Also, he moved that guests may have the privilege of the floor. The motions of the secretary were seconded. The Bishop called for the vote on the motions and they were passed.

Report of the Committee on Conference Rules: J. Alex Maultsby III, chairperson, presented the report of the Committee on Conference Rules. Maultsby directed the Annual Conference to the Conference Rules of Order and Procedure as printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2003 page 15-21. He noted editorial changes on page 18 that were necessary to comply with ¶603.7. He then referred to Section VIII (2) which states that the Conference Journal will be published on a CD. Hardbound copies may be ordered in advance for $20 per copy. Bishop Edwards called for the vote on the adoption of the Conference Rules and they were adopted.

Welcome: Bishop Edwards recognized Marshall Old, Greenville District, as the host district superintendent for Annual Conference. Old addressed the Conference and welcomed everyone on behalf of the Greenville District. Bishop Edwards thanked Old for his address and for his work.

Balloting Procedures for Election of General and Jurisdictional Delegates: Bishop Edwards recognized the Conference Secretary to outline the balloting procedures for the election of delegates. The Bishop asked for questions regarding voting procedures. Bishop Edwards thanked the tellers and all those working with the voting process.

The First Ballot for the Lay and Clergy: The first ballot for lay delegates to General Conference was taken. The Bishop declared the lay ballot closed at 8:41 a.m. Bishop Edwards then asked for the first clergy ballots. The clergy ballot was closed at 8:48 a.m. The Bishop mentioned that he had been encouraged by the General Conference to remind the Annual Conference to take into consideration the diversity of the Conference in their voting procedures. The Bishop also encouraged members to report any irregularities or questions to him or the Conference Secretary.

A Service of Repentance and Reconciliation: The service began at 9:02 a.m. Bishop Marion Edwards presided and the guest preacher was the Reverend Dr. Zan W. Holmes,

Jr. Special music was provided by the Reverend Cynthia Wilson-Hollins. Communion was served. (For synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, Service of Repentance and Reconciliation, Tuesday, June 3, 2003.)

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 2003

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order for the afternoon's session at 1:40 p.m.

Wellspring Prayer Break: The Bishop called on David Brownlee to lead the Conference through a Wellspring Prayer Break.

Result of Clergy Ballot#1: The Bishop gave a brief explanation of procedure prior to reading the results. There were a total of 286 ballots cast. Nineteen of which were defective, leaving 267 valid ballots. One hundred thirty four votes were needed to elect. There was one election, Hope Morgan Ward. The Bishop then read the results of the clergy ballot for those receiving 10 or more votes. An election worksheet was distributed to the clergy.

James Bryan gave further instructions to the clergy.

Clergy Ballot #2: The Bishop then called for clergy Ballot #2 to be taken. Ten additional delegates needed to be elected. The clergy ballot #2 was closed at 2:15 p.m.

Report of Council on Finance and Administration: Carl Frazier, President of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration presented the Council's report. The Conference Treasurer, Sharon Strother, was introduced. Frazier reported a Conference wide total of 95.96% paid on apportionments with three districts paying 100% of their apportionments. Frazier explained the four-year cycle budgeting process for the North Carolina Conference. He stated that 60% of the monies raised in one year are spent the next year. The remaining 40% is raised and spent in the same year. Frazier referred to page 83, line 12 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003. Fifty thousand dollars was added to the budget increasing the total budget to $17,194,286 for a total increase of 4.16%. Frazier pointed out that in two years there has been a 46% increase in line 81, Conference Claimants – Retiree Insurance. He said that in a bad economy with poor returns on investments the conference cannot depend on supplemental appropriations. He also referred to line item 39 noting the 6.32% increase in proposed district superintendents' salaries for 2005. He referred to line 85 commenting that this amount was an effort to build funds to offset expenses for people attending General and Jurisdictional Conference.

Frazier directed the Conference to page 95 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003 to Section III (4) (a). The additional paragraph regarding supplemental appropriations was in response to ¶611.7 in the Book of Discipline. He then referred to the change in Item F, the investment policy. Referring to Section IV, Frazier pointed out that the solicitation of funds by other agencies is not done without affecting the Conference budget.

Frazier directed the Conference to Item V, noting that the CF&A recommends a 3.5% salary increase rather than the 5.18% increase that would have been in line with the guidelines.

Frazier explained that CF&A is looking at a new formula for apportionments, but will be testing it for another year. The formula would take into the cost of property insurance when figuring apportionments. This would assist the coastal churches. (Tape 1A:1971) Frazier presented Sections III and IV, pages 94-96 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003, for action by the Annual Conference. The Bishop asked for a second.

Motion: For the purpose of consistency, Rodney Hamm, Burlington District, moved to insert the word "vouchered" so that line 12, page 94 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003, Section III (A) (2) reads "up to $4,500 for vouchered travel paid..." The motion was referred to the Task Force on Apportionment Formula adjustment.

The Bishop called for the vote to approve the changes in the report of CF&A, Sections III and IV. They were approved.

The treasurer's staff was introduced to the Conference and they were greeted with applause.

Result of Lay Ballot #1: The Bishop read the results of ballot #1. There were a total of 582 ballots cast. Forty-five ballots were defective leaving 537 valid ballots. Two hundred sixty-nine votes were needed for an election. There were ten elections. © (Tape 1A:2359)

Lay Ballot #2: The Bishop called for lay ballot #2 to be taken.

During this time, Bishop Edwards reported on the offering that was taken during the service of Repentance and Reconciliation. He stated that in addition to the prior pledges of $114,056, the offering from the morning service was $49,044.88. The grand total of offerings received was $162,391.55. The Bishop stated that this leaves the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than $100,000 to raise toward its goal of $250,000 for the Joseph and Shirley Bethea Welcome Center.

The Bishop closed the lay ballot #2 at 2:52 p.m.

Special Presentation: Charles Michael Smith, Conference Connectional Ministries Executive Director, introduced Rev. Ray Buchanan to make a special presentation. He recognized a number of churches for their involvement in ministries to the hungry. Buchanan presented the 2002 Stop Hunger Now "Heart for the Hungry" Award to Fairmont United Methodist Church (RA). Steve Hickle, pastor, accepted the award on behalf of the church.

Conference Committee on Nominations and Comprehensive Plan Inclusiveness: Charles Michael Smith referred the Conference to the 6th page of the Book of Handouts 2003-2004 to the North Carolina Annual Conference Comprehensive Plan of Inclusiveness. He called on Kevin Baker to present the report. He then moved the adoption of the plan of inclusiveness. After receiving a second, the Bishop asked for questions and personally endorsed the plan. The Bishop called for the vote and it was approved.

Smith then referred to the first page of the Book of Handouts 2003-2004 to the list of nominations. He gave a brief report with the encouraging news that the organization of the church has already been moving toward inclusiveness. Haywood Smith, Mark Wethington and Sam Wynn were nominated for the Board of Ordained Ministry.

The following changes were then made to the report by the respective District Superintendents:

Rocky Mount District: Chris Miller, lay member of Englewood (RM), replaced Peggy Braswell for the class of 2003 for Finance and Administration. Steven W. McElroy replaced W. A. Bingham on the Committee of District Superintendency.

Elizabeth City District: David Cliff and Haywood Gillikin were added to the Board of Ordained Ministry. Richard Stone replaced Alan Gibson on the Board of Trustees. The lay observer to the Board of Ordained Ministry will be Dave Thomas.

Durham District nominations: Sandy Quinn replaced John Bittikofer as the District Lay Leader.

The report was placed before the Conference for a vote. The vote will be taken on Thursday, June 5, 2003.

Report of the Conference Statistician: The Reverend George Speake directed the Conference's attention to The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003, page 126-27. He noted the growth reflected in items 9 (membership) and 10 (average worship attendance.) He drew attention to the decrease in the average Sunday school attendance although there was an increase in Sunday school membership. He encouraged better record-keeping. Speake commented that the average worship attendance has been increasing for the past seven years. There has been a net growth of 9,924 members over the past seven years. He pointed out some statistical trends that show that our Conference is moving toward more ethnic inclusiveness in the make-up of church membership.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Roger Elliott, Chairperson of the Board, presented an ordination report to the Conference. The Bishop and Conference expressed appreciation to Elliott for his work on the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Recognition of Extension Ministries: Elliott recognized all those serving in Extension Ministries. He asked those present to stand and be recognized.

Elliott asked the Reverend Richard Williams, Chairperson of the Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministries, to address the Conference. Williams referred to pages 60-61 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003, Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministries, Board of Ordained Ministries, for revisions. Peter Van Borkula was added to the certified ministers of Christian education. Mary L. Peacock was moved to Deacons in Full Connection.

Announcements: James Bryan, Conference Secretary made announcements.

Report on Relationships among General Agencies/UMC: Hope Morgan Ward reported that the GCOM would propose to the General Conference the creation of a Connectional Table to articulate a vision for stewardship, mission and ministries for the General Church.

Report of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Administrative Council: Ward introduced Jim Hanna and invited him to speak to the Conference on behalf of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. The Council's report is found on pages 42-44 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003. Hanna spoke about the Bethea Welcome Center and the program at Lake Junaluska.)

Presentation: There was a video presentation entitled, Who was John Wesley? This was in commemoration of the 200th anniversary of the birth of Wesley.

Announcements: Jerry Bryan, Secretary, made announcements.

Board of Laity Report: Conference Lay Leader Jeanne Rouse presented the Board of Laity report. Rouse asked the board members to stand. The Conference greeted them with applause. "Partners in Ministry...All God's People..." is this year's theme. She announced that the Laity Banquet would be held this evening. "Be the church of the world" was added to this year's theme. She thanked the United Methodist Foundation and the Turnage family for their work to make the awards and scholarships given by the Board of Laity possible. The Lay Mission and Ministry workshops were promoted. Emily Innes gave the United Methodist Women's report. Mack Parker reported for the United Methodist Men. He announced the potato drop for Annual Conference. He promised more information about the Methodist Men's Ministries in the district set-up meetings. Ben Adams gave the report for the United Methodist Youth. Adams gave an overview of youth ministry, thanked a number of people, and gave a look toward the future. Tom Walden addressed the Conference regarding Lay Speaking Ministries. He encouraged the Conference pastors to use more lay speakers. Rouse introduced all the District Lay Leaders.

Outstanding Lay Ministry of the Year: Jeanne Rouse presented the nominees for Outstanding Lay Ministry of the Year. in a video presentation. Buxton United Methodist Church (EC) was awarded a $1,000 grant for the Cape Hatteras Emergency Assistance and Food Pantry. The second award went to the Transitional Aftercare Network at St. James United Methodist Church (GR).

Results of Clergy Ballot #2: There were 340 votes cast. Forty-three ballots were invalid. One hundred forty-nine votes were necessary to elect. There were two elections: Sam Wynn and Paul Leeland.

Clergy Ballot #3: The clergy were instructed to vote for 8 people on the third ballot. The clergy ballot was closed at 4:45 p.m.

Results of Lay Ballot #2: Six hundred ballots were cast with thirty votes defective. Two hundred eighty-six were necessary to elect. There was no election. Greg Wallace asked the Bishop to read the results of the vote.

Lay Ballot #3: The Bishop called for Lay Ballot #3. The lay ballot was closed at 4:49 p.m.

Wellspring Prayer Break: Glenda Johnson, Retired (DU), led the Wellspring Prayer Break.

Adjournment: The Bishop adjourned the laity for the Laity Banquet, featuring Vickie Sigmon, speaker, and Jim Hewitt, music leader. The Bishop announced Cynthia Wilson-Hollins would provide prelude music at 7:00 p.m. The Conference was dismissed at 4:56 p.m.

SECOND DAY, EVENING SESSION

TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 2003

A Service of Celebration and Worship: The Reverend Zan Holmes was the guest preacher and music was provided by Cynthia Wilson-Hollins. An offering was taken for No Hungry Neighbors.

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order for the evening session at 8:52 p.m.

Results of Clergy Ballot #3: The Bishop read the results of clergy ballot #3. There were 261 votes cast. Twenty-eight ballots were invalid. One hundred seventeen votes were needed for an election. There was one election: Belton Joyner.

Results of Lay Ballot #3: The Bishop read the results of lay ballot #3. There were 452 votes cast. Eighteen ballots were invalid leaving 434 valid ballots. Two hundred eighteen were needed for an election. There was no election.

Clergy Ballot #4: The Bishop called for clergy ballot #4. The ballot was closed at 9:06 p.m.

Lay Ballot #4: The Bishop called for lay ballot #4. The ballot was closed at 9:09 p.m.

Report of the Committee on Resolutions & Reference: In the absence of Alan Swartz, Chairperson, Steve Hickle, Vice Chairperson addressed the Conference on behalf of the committee. Hickle requested a procedural motion to limit the number of speeches for and against a resolution. The Bishop asked advice of the Parliamentarian to ensure this motion was in order. The decision was to have a 2/3 vote to suspend the rules to clear the way for the motion. The vote was called, and the rules were suspended.

Motion: Steve Hickle moved to limit debates on the motions to 3 speeches for and 3 speeches against, including the speech by the author of the resolution. The motion received a second. The Bishop called for the vote and the motion was passed.

Motion: Steve Hickle then moved that the 6 resolutions that are directed to the General Conference be sent directly to General Conference with no action by the North Carolina Annual Conference. It received a second. David Woodhouse, Chapel Hill (BU), spoke. David Banks, Jonesboro (SA), pointed out that the resolutions involved would be number 1, 2, 3, 12, and the 2001 resolution regarding harassment. Keith Miller, Tabernacle (SA), asked for a clarification. Brian Sexton, Culbreth (FA), wanted a clarification. The Bishop asked previous General Conference delegate Kermit Braswell, Retired (RA), to speak to Sexton's question. Ruth Harper Stevens, Duke Memorial (DU), commented about her experience at General Conference with regard to resolutions. The Bishop called for the vote on the motion. Paul Stallsworth, St. Peter's/Broad Creek (NB), suggested that related resolutions be combined into one. The Bishop called for the vote. A standing vote was taken. The motion was defeated by 284 to 239.

Roger Elliott, Edenton Street (RA), was recognized to speak. Elliott agreed that the Stallsworth suggestion be adhered to and it was accepted by the Committee on Resolutions and Reference. Hickle asked for clarifications on which resolutions the Conference wanted to group together. The rewrite of 161J seemed to be the main focus. The Bishop requested that Hickle select an easy resolution to begin with.

Resolution 12, A Memorial to General Conference Democratizing the Nominations Committee: The Committee recommended non-concurrence. The vote was taken and the adoption of resolution #12 was defeated.

Resolution 5, A More Accessible Annual Conference, and 13, Timing of Annual Conference: The Committee considered the resolutions to be out of order and recommended non-concurrence. Bishop Edwards commented on the two resolutions regarding the timing of Annual Conference which is left to the Bishop by disciplinary rule. The Bishop called for the vote of resolution 5 and 13. The Resolutions passed. Bishop Edwards received the resolutions as advisory in setting the dates of Annual Conference. Johnny Branch, Aldersgate (DU), was recognized to speak. Andy Collier, Duke's Chapel (DU), was recognized to speak. Chris Miller, lay member Englewood (RM), was recognized to speak.

Resolution 11, Calling the North Carolina Annual Conference to Support the Continuance and Expansion of Igniting Ministry: The committee recommended concurrence. The Bishop called for the vote and the resolution was adopted.

Resolution 10, Supporting the Mission and Ministry of the North Carolina Christian Advocate: The committee recommended the adoption of resolution 10. The Bishop called for the vote and the resolution was adopted.

Resolution 4, Pastoral Safety Net Foundation: The committee recommended referral to the Committee on Pastoral Care for research and action. Hickle asked David Brownlee to comment on the resolution. Brownlee agreed with the recommendation to refer. Bishop Edwards asked for the vote on resolution 4 and it was referred.

Point of Order: Ted Zeller, lay member Mebane (BU), raised a point of order.

Motion: Zeller moved to "suspend the rules" to present the resolution on support of chaplains in the department of corrections. The Bishop called for the vote to suspend the rules and they were suspended. The resolution was distributed to the Conference members.

Results of Clergy Ballot #4: The Bishop read the results of the ballot. There were 206 votes cast. Ten ballots were defective leaving 196 valid ballots. Ninety-nine votes were needed for an election. There was an election: Carl Frazier.

Results of Lay Ballot #4: The Bishop then read the results of lay ballot #4. There were 324 ballots cast. Seven votes were invalid leaving 317 ballots valid. One hundred fifty-nine votes were needed for an election. There was an election. Beth Norris was elected. This concluded the election of lay delegates for General Conference.

Clergy Ballot #5: The Bishop called for clergy ballot #5. The ballot was closed at 10:04 p.m.

Lay Ballot #5: The Bishop directed the lay delegates to begin voting on the delegation for Jurisdictional Conference. The ballot was closed at 10:13 p.m. (Tape 4:0012)

Benediction: The Bishop asked Steve Little to give the benediction.

THIRD DAY, MORNING SESSION

Results of Lay Ballot #5: The Bishop read the results of Lay Ballot #5. There were 284 ballots casts. Twenty-seven ballots were invalid leaving 257 valid ballots. One hundred twenty-nine votes were needed for an election. The laity elected all 11 delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference. The following people were elected: Annie Fairley, LaNella Smith, Brenda Brown, Burton King, Sam Isley, Patrick Mann, Merritt Jones, Jane Johnson, Jimmie Shuler, Rhonda Parker, Phil Isaacs.

Clergy Ballot #6: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #6. The ballot was closed at 8:32 a.m.

Lay Ballot #6: The Bishop gave directions to the laity for ballot #6 for 5 alternate delegates. The ballot was closed at 8:39 a.m.

Bishop Edwards commented on an observation made last night regarding the number of clergy versus lay ballots being cast. The Bishop explained that not all retirees attend Annual Conference, some clergy were away due to illness and funerals, and not all clergy have voting privileges.

Morning Worship: Bishop Marion M. Edwards was the presider, and the Reverend Zan Holmes was the preacher. Cynthia Wilson-Hollins led the music and invited any music leaders to join her on stage. An offering was received for Peru Covenant/AGAPE Ministries.

Recognition of College Presidents: Bishop Edwards recognized the president's of four of the Methodist related colleges in NC. Each was given an opportunity to address the Conference. Dr. Cole, Bennett College in Greensboro, was introduced. Cole is the 14th president of Bennett College for Women. Dr. Elton Hendricks, Methodist College, brought greetings from Methodist College to the Annual Conference. Hendricks encouraged United Methodist students to attend Methodist College and assured them that substantial financial aid is available to make their education possible. Dr. Ian Newbould, North Carolina Wesleyan College, addressed the Conference and encouraged the Conference to send students to North Carolina Wesleyan College. Dr. Reginald Ponder, Louisburg College, greeted the Conference and stated that the college is stronger now than it was one year ago. There are 100 more freshmen this year than last year. Dr. Ponder made a request for students and money. In conclusion, The Bishop encouraged each pastor in each church to send one United Methodist student to one of the four colleges represented at the Annual Conference.

Brief Recess: Bishop Edwards announced a brief recess to prepare for the upcoming Memorial Service.

All Saints Celebration – Memorial Service: Bishop Marion M. Edwards presided, Reverend Dr. Reginald Ponder preached, Reverend Lisa Brown Cole served as liturgist and Reverend Dr. Jimmy Weaver was lector. Special music was provided by Mr. Anthony Hearn and the Reverend William Weisser was organist. As the Bishop read the name of each one who had died, a bell tolled, and family members and friends lit a candle for each person named. (For synopsis of entire service, see worship bulletin, All Saints Celebration and Memorial Service, Wednesday, June 4, 2003.)

Results of Lay Ballot #6: Bishop Edwards read the results of lay ballot #6. There were 440 ballots cast. Fifty ballots were invalid leaving 390 valid ballots. One hundred ninety-six votes were needed for an election. All reserve lay delegates were elected. The following persons were elected: Beverly Long, Henry Brooks, Bonnie Kiffer Jones, Donald Milligan and Lois Wright. This completed the lay delegation.

Results of Clergy Ballot #6: Bishop Edwards read the results of Clergy Ballot #6. There were 193 ballots casts. Twelve ballots were invalid. Ninety-one votes were needed to elect. There was no election.

Clergy Ballot #7: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #7 and instructed the clergy to vote for four clergy. Laurie Hayes Coffman, Calvary (DU), reminded the Conference of the diverse make-up of the Conference clergy and to consider that when casting ballots. The Bishop called the Clergy Ballot closed at 11:37 a.m.

Report of Committee on Insurance: Chairperson Charles Crutchfield and Gray Southern presented the report. Crutchfield directed the Conference to the handout included in the Book of Handouts. The handout compared the rates for 2003 and 2004 and between HealthFlex and BlueCross BlueShield. He also referred to the report on pages 101-05 in The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003. The committee recommended the Blue Cross Blue Shield PPO option 500 for 2004. This would be a rate increase of 25.5%. The national average premium increase for pastors is 30%. To continue with HealthFlex would mean a 28% increase in premiums. The committee is delaying mandatory coverage until after an analysis is completed. Crutchfield indicated that there were no significant benefit changes that would significantly reduce the premiums without seriously compromising the level of benefits. A wellness incentive program with a $50 reward per household for documentation of participation in wellness activities is offered by BlueCross BlueShield. Crutchfield moved the adoption of the Blue Cross Blue Shield plan for 2004. Larry Bowden, Resurrection (DU), had a question. Jim Murphy, Apex (RA) had a question about the increase. William Allen, Fuquay-Varina: First (RA) spoke against the motion. Tom Holtsclaw, Retired (DU), asked a question regarding BCBS going to a for-profit organization as opposed to a non-profit. Stan Smith, Chestnut Street (RO), spoke in favor of the motion. Amanda Dixon, Rock Creek lay member (BU) asked a question. Stan Lewis, Halifax Charge (EC), spoke for the motion. The Bishop called for the vote to approve the BCBS recommendation and it was passed.

Benediction: The Bishop gave the benediction saying, "God go with them because they are going anyway. Amen."

THIRD DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 2003

The North Carolina Partners in Caring: Caswell Shaw, President conducted the meeting. Names of Partners in Caring who had died in the past year were read to the Conference. He referred to the report on page 105 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003. Sallie Bates and Sam Loy were nominated as Trustees. Shaw called for the vote and they were elected.

Archives and History Vignette: Denny Wise and Mildred Swain led the vignette. The vignette consisted of 6 players portraying John Wesley, Charles Wesley and others reciting monologues depicting John Wesley's life. This was in celebration of the 300th year of his birth. Bishop Edwards thanked the Archives and History Committee for their presentation. Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order for the afternoon's session at 1:51 p.m.

Point of Personal Privilege: Ken Ripley, lay member of Gibson Memorial, thanked the Bishop for his theological stance. He stated he was very glad Bishop Edwards was in North Carolina. There was a standing ovation for the Bishop.

Presentation of the Awards: Charles Michael Smith recognized Danny Allen, Chair of Evangelism, to present the Harry Denman Award for Outstanding Evangelism. This year's recipient was the Reverend Timothy Reaves, pastor of the Bladen Charge in the Wilmington District. Smith then recognized Steve Taylor. Taylor presented the Key Taylor Award for outstanding commitment to mission by a rural church to Windsor UMC, one of three churches on the Bladen Charge.

Report of State Commission on Campus Ministry: Regina Henderson presented the report on Campus Ministry. She moved the adoption of the role and composition of the State Commission on Campus Ministry. The Bishop called for a vote and it was adopted. Charles Michael Smith directed the Conference's attention to page 66-68 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003, to the trustees of the various agencies and schools institution. These will be voted on at a later date.

Result of Clergy Ballot #7: The Bishop read the results of Clergy Ballot #7. There was no election.

Clergy Ballot #8: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #8.

Igniting Ministries: While the clergy were completing ballots, Bishop Edwards read a statement concerning Igniting Ministries from the General Church. The Bishop declared the month of September as “United Methodist Open House Month” in all congregations in the North Carolina Conference. The Bishop asked members to 1) alert every member of the importance of inviting others to church and help visitors feel at home; 2) participate in an Igniting Ministry training event; 3) be in prayer for our church, that through the messages which are broadcast and the hospitality shown, people without a spiritual home will be led to find Christ and become His disciples; and 4) read and share the “Igniting Ministry” information available at www.ignitingministry.org.

Motion: Sam Brown, Retired (RA), moved that “our Conference appeal to our NC Legislature to set our minimum wage at $7 which would to set the goal for other states.” The motion received a second and there was discussion. Greg Jones, lay member of Ayden (GR), spoke against the motion.

Point of Order: Steve Hickle, Fairmont (RA), raised a point of order. John Duley, Apex (RA) asked if this was a resolution or not. Henry Harris, Angier (RA), spoke against the motion.

Motion: Ken Ripley, lay member of Gibson Memorial, moved “to refer motion on minimum wage to church and society” and a second was received. The Bishop asked for the vote to refer and it was referred.

Jimmy Cummings challenged the vote on the Ripley motion. The vote was recalled. The Bishop took a standing vote. The Bishop stated the referral did not receive the 2/3 votes required to refer. After a consultation with Jim Coile, Parliamentarian, it was determined that motion only needed a majority. Therefore, the motion was referred.

Golden Cross: Richard Vaughn, Director, presented the Golden Cross report. This ministry reaches out to the laity across the Conference to assist with major medical bills. Vaughn made an appeal for people to contribute to Golden Cross and stated it has a budget of $19,500.

Motion: Vaughn moved “that we set August 17th as a special offering for Golden Cross calling it “Golden Cross Sunday.” CF&A was consulted and they were okay with it. The Bishop asked for approval of the house and the date was approved.

Report of Igniting Ministries: Bill Norton gave a brief history of Igniting Ministries, how it works, and where it came from. Norton pointed out test market data and continued to report that awareness goals are ahead of projections.

Report of Joint Committee on Incapacity: Charles Pollock, chairperson, made revisions to the report on pages 99-101 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003. On page 101, change number 13 to 14 and insert 13 to read as follows: “Who are having their incapacity leave terminated at this Annual Conference? Robert Blair Craig – Retirement.” Milton Gilbert was asked to address the issue of persons being placed on leave for the first time. Gilbert suggested that John Crowe (GO) be added as being on incapacity leave for the first time under item #10. Pollock placed the report as corrected before the Conference for approval. The Bishop called for the vote and the report was approved.

Clergy Retiree Recognition: Bill Sherman presented the retirees for the current year. Each retiree was given an opportunity to address the Conference.

Report of the Board of Pensions: Bill Sherman, chairperson, presented the report. He called the Conference’s attention to page 106 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003. Sherman moved the approval of Report A, Section I. It was approved. He then referred to Report B Section I (C) on page 109 and noted the increase from $467 to $485 per service year. The Bishop called for the vote and it was approved. Milton Gilbert, Goldsboro District, corrected Report A, Section II to include John Crowe.

Sherman directed attention to page 111 Section V and introduced Jerry Lowry to present this section of the report. Lowry introduced Gray Southern who directed the Conference's attention to a two page document entitled "Board of Pensions Report 2004." This was a recommendation for future policies concerning life and health insurance for retirees. The first part of the plan is that current retirees will retain coverage through the Medicare companion plan and pay $10 per month per family member. The second part of the plan will be based on a sliding scale dependent upon years of service. Fewer years of service will result in higher premiums. The sliding scale is based on whatever age Medicare eligibility kicks in. Effective January 1, 2007 the Conference will fund only the cost of the premiums for the Medicare Companion Plan regardless of the age, Medicare eligibility or retirement status (early or full) for clergy and/or their spouses. The effective date of the plan is January 1, 2004 with a possible savings of $15,000,000. The 2 page report was substituted for Section V on page 111.

Report of the Conference Board of Trustees: Bill Simpson, Trustee Chairperson, presented the report of the Frederick and Closs Peace Wardlaw Bequest. Ms. Closs Wardlaw's nephew was present. Sam Peace, brother of Mrs. Wardlaw, was asked to make a presentation to the Bishop from his family. Mr. Peace was invited to address Annual Conference. He presented 5 deeds to 15 acres of land along Kerr Lake.

Point of Personal Privilege: Hugh Cameron was granted a point of personal privilege.

Report of the Board of Pensions Continued: The Conference continued its discussion of the report. Sherman moved the substitution of the handout for Section V of the pension report.

Motion: Stan Smith, Chestnut Street (RO), moved to refer the report back for further study. The issue was that 2007 was too soon. Smith withdrew his motion.

Motion: Para Drake, Rougemont (DU), stated that "on the basis of the assumption that second career clergy have access to other pension funds," she "moved to refer the report back for reconsideration." The Bishop called for the vote on the referral and the motion failed.

Ray Whitman, Washington: First (GR), spoke against the Sherman motion. The question was called and it passed. The Bishop called for the vote on the document from the pension task force for retirees' health care. It was approved. Sherman referred to Report C and D which was for informational purposes. Sherman then moved the adoption of the entire report. The Conference backed up at the direction of the Bishop to approve Report C by itself first. The vote was taken and it was approved.

Motion: Rufus Stark, Edenton Street (RA), moved "to study the transition fund to the end that the amount contributed by churches whose pastors do not participate be applied to the unfunded pension liability." This motion was accepted by the Board of Pensions. No vote was taken since the Board accepted the motion.

Sherman then moved the adoption of the entire report. The vote was taken and the report was approved.

Dr. Russell Ritchey Speaks: Dr. Russell Ritchey, Dean of the Candler School of Theology, was invited to address the Conference.

Result of Clergy Ballot #8: The Bishop read the results of Clergy Ballot #8. There were 255 valid votes. One hundred twenty-eight votes were needed for an election. There were 2 elections: Kermit Braswell and Carol Goehring.

Clergy Ballot #9: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #9. The ballot was closed at 4:31 p.m.

Report of Commission on Equitable Compensation: Steve Formo, chairperson, presented the report on Equitable Compensation on pages 77-80 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2003. He noted the editorial change on page 77. On page 78 the last paragraph delete the last 2 sentences beginning with "However, the Commission...." He pointed out the recommendation for the 2004 schedule of minimum compensation.

Motion: Gregg McGarvey, Fellowship/St. Pauls (RO), moved “minimum salary only increase $500 [for] full-time and $275 [for] student” pastors. Patrice Cheasty-Miller, St. Paul (DU), spoke against the motion. Robert Gladden spoke for the motion. Ray Wittman, Washington: First (GR), spoke against the motion. Amanda Dixon spoke for the motion. Kermit Braswell, retired (RA), spoke against the motion. The question was called. The Bishop called for the vote to vote on the question. The motion to reduce the increases was defeated.

Bishop Edwards then called for the vote for the adoption of the salary recommendations. They were adopted. The Bishop asked for the vote to approve the report as a whole and it was approved.

Report of Committee on Itinerate Clergy Moving Expenses: Chairperson Carl Belcher referred the Conference to the report printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2003, on pages 62-64. He reported on the previous year’s spending, stating it was well within the budget. He presented the report with no changes except in paragraph III. The Review Committee now includes the chair of the Moving Expense Committee. Bishop Edwards called for the vote to accept this change to paragraph III and it was accepted. The Bishop called for the vote of the report as a whole and the report was accepted.

Report of the Conference Board of Trustees: Chairperson Bill Simpson presented the report of the Conference trustees printed on page 73-76 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2003. Simpson noted several editorial corrections including the deletion of the first paragraph. The Greenfield property was purchased in July 2002 for $1,000,000. He noted that closed church sales had made in excess of $260,000 available for church extensions. Simpson addressed the Wardlaw bequest on Kerr Lake for a retreat center/area for clergy. The trustees are evaluating the best course of action. He invited Barbara Tripp to address the Conference. Tripp requested permission to purchase property for a housing project for the MERCI center. She has funds available to purchase property for a rural affordable housing project in Chadburn. There are plans to build 33 houses. The purchase price for the property is $150,000. The purchase of the property as presented by the Trustees and Barbara Tripp was approved. Simpson then placed the whole report before the Conference for approval. Sam Brown had a question regarding the MERCI property.

Motion: Diane Christianson, Bethany (DU), moved to change the Trustees Report on page 74, top paragraph, 3rd line from the end to read, “the best course may be disposition....” The motion passed. The vote on the report as a whole was then adopted. Simpson then discussed the cost of insuring coastal property.

Wellspring Prayer Break: Robby Lowry lead the Conference through a Wellspring Prayer Break.

Announcements: The Bishop reminded the Conference of the 7:30 p.m. Congregational Development Celebration. He stated the business session would resume after the evening service.

THIRD DAY, EVENING SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 2003

Worship Service: The Conference members were led in praise and celebration during the $10 Club service with skits, video clips and music from Newsong, New Beginnings, Reconciliation, Raleigh Korean, Agape Korean, Johnson Memorial and Nashville UMCs.

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Wednesday evening session to order at 9:10 p.m.

Result of Clergy Ballot #9: Bishop Edwards read the results of Clergy Ballot #9. There were 261 ballots cast. Twelve ballots were defective. One hundred twenty-five votes were needed for an election. There was one election: Jerry Lowry.

Clergy Ballot #10: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #10. He declared the ballot closed at 9:17 p.m.

Report of the Committee on Episcopacy: Episcopacy Chairperson Cashar Evans presented the report. Evans described the work of the committee to the Conference. He gave a very supportive and complimentary series of comments about Bishop Edwards and his ministry. Evans presented Bishop Edwards with a signed copy of Bishop Cannon's book, The Redeemer. He requested that all the churches pray for the Bishop every day. Evans then asked the Conference to stand as he prayed for the Bishop. The Bishop thanked Evans and the committee for the kind words and gift from the Annual Conference.

Report of the United Methodist Publishing House: Cindy Keen, Raleigh Cokesbury manager, brought the report from the United Methodist Publishing House. Keen explained the ministries of Cokesbury with statements and a video. She introduced Drew Jones, Cokesbury manager from Birmingham, AL. Jones announced the opening of a new store in Greensboro, NC. Mark Christy was introduced as the new manager of the Greensboro store. Keen gave Bishop Edwards a copy of the New Interpreter Study Bible. She then presented a check in the amount of $14,457.66 for the clergy pension fund. The Bishop requested that the Conference Board of Pensions prayerfully consider donating this amount to the Central Conference for the pensions of pastors in other parts of the world.

Report of the Board of Institutions: Tom Stark presented the report. Stark outlined the work of the Board of Institutions. He proposed that a task force be formed to promote programming and to make efforts at reconnecting with the churches. This would make them feel they are a part of the institutions that the Board of Institutions represent. He corrected the date in last sentence of the fifth paragraph to read June 2004. The Task Force will report its findings and recommendations to the Annual Conference at its meeting in June 2004. The Bishop called for the vote on the proposal of the Board of Institutions. The proposal passed.

Report of Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty: Sue Ellen Nicholson presented the report. She restated the goals of the initiative. She talked about the Hand-in-Hand Project and other projects that the Bishops' Initiative has generated. Nicholson stated there will be a children's march on the state capital. The goal is to raise the legislators awareness of issues that affect children and families. The march is designed to influence the decisions made in our state that affect children and families. A "Community with Children and the Poor" study guide for small group studies has been developed by the Task Force. Hope for the Children of Africa was another initiative Nicholson spoke about. She ended her report with a video presentation, Community with Children and the Poor.

Report of Wellspring Ministries: David Brownlee addressed the Conference. Brownlee explained the beginnings and the purpose of Wellspring Ministries. Glenda Johnson spoke about spiritual formation initiatives under Wellspring Ministries. She encouraged clergy covenant groups. Johnson also leads 24 hour prayer retreats. The next retreat is September 21-22, 2003 and will be held at the Bergland Center at Camp Rockfish. Branson Sheets outlined his responsibilities for working with small membership churches. Sheets runs the Wellspring Leadership Academy. He announced the next academy dates. He then introduced Paul Dunham to talk about the Academy for Christian Leadership. Another aspect of Sheets responsibilities is small church leader training. Jimmie Weaver addressed the Conference about his contributions and responsibilities at Wellspring Ministries. His responsibilities encompass helping pastors establish disciplined life including prayer, study, and participation in a colleague forum. In conclusion, Brownlee spoke about the 5-day academy for spiritual formation.

Point of Personal Privilege: Ken Ripley suggested that the next venue for Annual Conference be handicap accessible. The Bishop took this under advisement.

Result of Clergy Ballot #10: The Bishop read the results of Clergy Ballot #10. There was an election: David Banks. This completed the delegation for General Conference.

Parliamentary Inquiry: M. B. Collier, Duke Chapel (DU), asked if the remaining people on the clergy balloting that have the highest votes could be elected as the remaining delegates. The Bishop ruled it out of order because of the rules of the Conference for voting.

Clergy Ballot #11: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #11 for Jurisdictional Conference. J. B. Helms, Retired (GO) asked for the names of those elected to be projected on the video screen. The Bishop closed Clergy Ballot #11 at 10:30 p.m.

Adjournment: Bishop Edwards adjourned the Conference until 8:00 a.m. Thursday morning.

Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference Report: Steve Hickle was recognized to present the report of the committee. Resolutions 6, 7, 8 and 9 were looked at separately.

Resolution 6, Dialogue About the Middle East: There were editorial changes to paragraph 5: substitute "Christian and Interfaith Unity Council" in place of "Commission on Church and Society or any other appropriate body.” In paragraph 6, strike “all necessary.” In the last paragraph substitute the first “the” with the word “such.”

Amendment: Greg Jenks, Christ Community (RA), moved to strike the words “our brothers and sisters” in paragraph 4 and replace with “people.” Diane Blanchard spoke against the amendment. Bishop Edwards first called for a hand vote and he called for a standing vote. The amendment passed.

Amendment: Lon Miller, Incapacity Leave (RM), moved to change the last line of paragraph 5 to read “...including its history, cultures, religions and evangelism of that region.” The Bishop called for the vote.

Point of Order: Carl King, Chaplain, Columbia College was recognized for a point of order. The Bishop called for a motion to either count the vote or use his judgment.

Motion: Jim Murphy, Apex (RA), moved to count the vote. It received a second. The Bishop called for the vote and the motion passed. The ruling of the Chair stood and the ruling was that the Miller amendment passed.

Carl Frazier, Sanford: St. Luke was recognized to inform the Conference that there was no money in the budget for Task Forces.

The Bishop called for the vote for Resolution 6 as amended and the resolution failed.

Resolution 7, Better Treatment for Workers: The committee recommends to concur with the resolution as printed. After several speeches for and against the amendment, the question was called. Bishop Edwards called for the vote on Resolution 7 and it was defeated.

Resolution 8, Health Care Reform: There was an editorial change in paragraph 2 to read, “...without health insurance are children...” The committee recommends concurrence. Greg Jones, Ayden, spoke against. Sam Brown, RA: Retired spoke for the resolution. A vote to call the question was held and the question was called. The Bishop called for the vote on Resolution 8 and it passed.

Resolution 9, Supporting the United Nations: The committee concurs with Resolution 9. The Bishop called for the vote and the resolution passed.

Resolution 2, Withdrawing the United Methodist Church from the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice: Hickle directed the Conference to Resolution 2 and informed the members that no funding goes from the United Methodist Church to the Coalition. Based on research by Hickle, the committee recommends non-concurrence with resolution 2.

Amendment: Peg Witt, Trenton-Maple Grove (NB), moved “to delete the words (or any other organization dedicated to pro-choice education, research, and/or advocacy) from the last paragraph of the resolution.” The amendment failed. There was a vote to call the question and the question was called. The Bishop called for the vote on Resolution 2. A standing vote was taken.

Point of Order: Rufus Stark, RA: Retired called for a point of order. While the standing vote was being counted, the Bishop announced that 1,531 persons were registered and in attendance at Annual Conference.

The results of the standing vote for Resolution 2 were 461 votes for and 268 votes against the resolution. Resolution 2 was adopted.

clergy stay and finish their work. Bishop Edwards announced that the money received for No Hungry Neighbor was $118,176.20 of the $500,000 goal. Randy Maynard, BU: Elon, First, noted that he had $15,000 that had not been included in the above total. The Bishop declared the ballot closed at 10:58 a.m.

Point of Personal Privilege: Rodney Hamm, Burlington District, was recognized. He stated that John Varden, University (BU), and his wife, Nancy, had a baby girl.

Motion: Jimmy Cummings, Retired (RO), moved "that debate be limited to 2 speeches for and two speeches against not to exceed three minutes each." The Bishop called for the vote and the motion passed.

Motion: Frank Lloyd, Retired (SA), moved to suspend the rules so that the top vote getters of the next ballot be allowed to complete the delegation. The motion was ruled out of order. The Bishop noted that this could put the whole delegation in danger of not being seated at the Jurisdictional Conference.

Resolution on Support of Chaplains in the Department of Corrections: The committee has no recommendation regarding this resolution. Ken Ripley, the author of the resolution, was recognized to speak for the resolution.

Amendment: Katherine Williams, lay delegate offered a friendly amendment to add the following: "Be it further resolved, That the Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries Committee of the NCC investigate how this AC will respond in the area of volunteer chaplaincy." The Bishop called for the vote on the resolution as amended and the resolution was adopted.

Resolution on A Call to End Sexual Harassment of Lesbian and Gay Individuals by the United Methodist Church: This resolution was referred by the 2001 session of the NC Annual Conference to the 2003 session of the NC Annual Conference. Jean Aycock, author of the resolution, asked to speak for the resolution. Since she was not a delegate of this Annual Conference, the Bishop asked for a vote to grant Aycock permission to address the Conference. She was granted the right to speak to her resolution. Motion: Jerry Lowry moved that the five alternates for Jurisdictional Conference be selected as the top five clergy on ballot #17 that were not elected. The Bishop read the names of those persons: Gayle Felton, Bill Weisser, Leonard Fairley, Charles Michael Smith and Powell Osteen. The motion received a second. M.B. Collier spoke against the motion.

The Bishop called for the vote to elect the alternates as described in the motion and the motion passed. This clergy delegation was declared completed at 1:39 p.m.

Point of Personal Privilege: Ken Ripley was granted a point of personal privilege. He thanked the Bishop for considering the needs of the laity in scheduling Annual Conference.

Bishop Edwards then asked Secretary Bryan if all the Annual Conference business had then been addressed. Beverly Legget, GR:Asbury, asked about a Saddlebag for the last day of Conference. She would like the Saddlebag and the Bishop's state of the church address mailed to all delegates. The Bishop commented that his state of the church address was not in manuscript form. He further stated that he had planned to include issues on forgiveness and reconciliation in his state of the church address. Bill Norton was consulted about the request for a Saddlebag. Norton stated that it would be posted on the Conference web page.

Motion: Bill Cottingham, WI: Trinity moved for a reconsideration of the election and received a second. He then declared himself out of order because he voted against the election. James Coile clarified that alternates can be elected as the Annual Conference may determine. The Bishop called for the vote to rescind the Lowry motion elect the alternates. The Conference voted not to go back to elect alternates.

Point of Personal Privilege: Jerry Bryan, Conference Secretary thanked the Conference and expressed his pride and gratitude for the Conference and the work they did.

Announcement: Cashar Evans announced there would be a delegation meeting in the arena at the close of Annual Conference.

Linda Edwards was recognized and presented a corsage. Bishop Edwards then presented his wife to the Conference and greeted her with a kiss. He then welcomed and thanked Sandy Smith and presented her to the Conference.

Worship and Sending Forth: Bishop Edwards addressed the Conference and briefly commented on the spiritual nature in the process of making appointments. Bishop Edwards instructed the District Superintendents to read only the changes, with corrections (which appear in the Conference Journal and on the Conference Web site) for their respective districts. The Bishop fixed the appointments in each district after the appointment changes were read. Finally Bishop Edwards fixed the appointments for the ministers in Extension Ministries found on pages 19-23 in the Appointments 2003-04 book. After the final prayer, the Conference sang the first and fourth verse of God Be with You Until We Meet Again. Bishop Edwards dismissed the 2003 North Carolina Annual Conference session at 2:33 p.m. Thursday, June 5, 2003.

Corrections from the Joint Committee on Incapacity:

The 2002 Conference Journal inadvertently omitted reference to clergy who had their incapacity leave terminated since the last conference session. Number 11 in the report should read: "Who have had their incapacity leave terminated since the last annual conference (§ 355.3)? Stacey Zane Graves, 03/15/2002. The name of Stacey Zane Graves should have been deleted from question number 9.

We recommend the following persons to be placed on incapacity leave for the first time: Julie H. Steele.

We recommend the following persons to be continued on incapacity leave: Debra Watson, Ronda Lee-Torres and Lon Miller.

This information was correctly recorded in the conference business questions, but omitted from the independent report written by the Joint Committee on Incapacity.

91. Where shall the next Conference Session be held (§603.3)?
Fayetteville, North Carolina

STRUCTURE REVIEW COMMITTEE

The Structure Review Team has the following comments and recommendations to the conference as the conference moves into its third year in living into the new structure.

1. Communication with the conference members continues to be an area in which there is opportunity for improvement. Each circle of ministry and the Connectional Table can take better advantage of the technology available, and publish their work to the conference membership. Using the email list maintained by the Conference, and the conference website, the 5 circles of ministry and the Connectional Table can provide summaries of their work, their discussions, and their requests to the conference body.

2. In addition, there is room for improvement in communication between teams, circles of ministry and the connectional table. It is the recommendation of the Review Team that some guidelines for communication be arranged.

- * Individual teams need to meet to do their work, and they need to be active in communicating their work to the circle of ministry at which they sit.
- * The circle leaders need to hold circle meetings once or twice a year, depending on the work being undertaken by the circle. In these meetings the work of the individual groups is to be discussed, for the purposes of communication, joint brainstorming, and joint planning between related groups.
- * In addition, the circle leaders need to be current on the work being done by the teams, and before all connectional table meetings needs to communicate with circle members either in person or by phone/email.
- * Circle leaders are responsible for communicating the work of their circle and the corresponding teams with the connectional table, and for representing the needs and vision of the circle in the connectional table. In addition, circle leaders are the ones who will take the connectional table work back to the circles, so that the circles can contribute to the vision cast by the connectional table.

CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

"In the Midst of New Dimensions"

*In the midst of new dimensions, in the face of changing ways, who will lead the pilgrim peoples wandering in their separate ways?
God of rainbow, fiery pillar, leading where the eagles soar, we your people, ours the journey, now and ever (repeat), now and evermore.*
The Faith We Sing, 2238 Words and music by Julian B. Rush, 1994

The Connectional Table met in October, January, and May under the leadership of our Conference Lay Leader, Jeanne Rouse, to serve as the "think tank" envisioned by our Annual Conference when we approved this new structure in 2000. We chose to leave behind the old way of having a Conference Council on Ministries and to move in the direction envisioned by many leaders of the General Conference who still dream of bringing matters of money and mission to one common table, a proposal they will again bring to General Conference in 2004. Attendance and participation have been excellent, and we continue enthusiastic about the journey we have undertaken, but we are also experiencing some of the anticipated concerns that always accompany changes of this magnitude. Annual Conferences, like local churches, sometimes have "Back to Egypt" committees!

The Structure Review Team is encouraging better communication by the Connectional Table with members of the Annual Conference, and better use of information technology to facilitate this among the agencies with their circles of ministry and the table as a whole. They have also recommended that the leaders of the five circles hold circle of ministry meetings once or twice a year, preferably near the time of the Connectional Table meetings, so as to be better informed on the work of the teams within their particular circle. The leaders of the five circles of ministry—Communications, Episcopal, Mission Development, Spiritual Formation and Leadership, and Resource Ministries—will serve as liaison persons between their circles and the Connectional Table so that the circles can contribute to the vision cast by the table. This way the circles and the table will not only interlock as portrayed on paper but in actual practice as well. Better training for new members of the Connectional Table and circles is also strongly recommended and will be offered in the coming year.

Efforts will also be made this year to have the Executive Director and the Directors spend even more time in local churches and at district gatherings preaching, teaching, leading workshops, and generally offering themselves in the service of our members. Our Conference website has been vastly improved and a brochure has been mailed to all churches and pastors in an effort to encourage churches to take advantage of the talents of these servants of Christ who will gladly come to any local church without charge as they are funded through our fair-share giving.

Through the flood of starving people, warring factions and despair, who will lift the olive branches? Who will light the flame of care?

Our theme for this session of the North Carolina Annual Conference will be “Come to the Water for Repentance and Reconciliation.” On the first morning, we will hold our “Service of Repentance and Reconciliation” that has been carefully planned by a diverse committee and will utilize the two sacraments of our church. Our intention is for this service to set the tone for the entire gathering, indeed for the rest of the year, as we give voice to our sins against our African American and Native American brothers and sisters, beg their forgiveness, and seek true and lasting reconciliation through the One sent to us by God to reconcile us to him and to each other through his life, death, and resurrection. Our meeting will also rightly take note of the fact that we are a nation wounding down a war and that we have a responsibility to support our troops and their families, to pray for our leaders, and to love and help restore our former enemies. We will further identify with the Head of our church by remembering his call to feed the hungry, and to welcome all, as we receive special offerings for “No Hungry Neighbors” and the Bethea Welcome Center at Lake Junaluska..

As we stand a world divided by our own self-seeking schemes, grant that we, your global village, might envision wider dreams.

Two members of the staff of the General Board of Discipleship spent a day with our bishop and other leaders of our Annual Conference in mid-March to hold a “Connectional Conversation.” In their report, they observed that among Annual Conferences we are strong in starting new churches and faith communities (over thirty in the past six years), missions, spiritual formation especially through Wellspring offerings and covenant groups, and our willingness to try new things. We celebrated that we have a clergy surplus whereas many other conferences have shortages, that we encourage gender and racial diversity among our clergy, have strong programs of training and continuing education, and have grown from twenty-nine to one hundred thirty-nine Local Pastors over the past ten years. The extraordinary and unique support of The Duke Endowment was noted, and the programs such as Hand in Hand linking churches with public schools, and Disciple Bible Outreach Ministry taking Bible study behind prison bars and into churches of small membership, both of which came into being with the help of funds from The Duke Endowment. Attracting 6,000 teenagers to Pilgrimage, providing model leadership for sexual ethics training, offering counseling and referrals for clergy and their families experiencing emotional distress, and having MERCY (Marion Edwards Recovery Center Initiative) become a model for how to do Disaster Recovery Ministries were also cited by the participants. Our guests concluded that we are filled with talent, diversity, and potential, and that we are committed to covenantal living, creating multicultural faith communities, and developing transformational leaders.

We are man and we are woman, all persuasions, old and young, each a gift in your creation, each a love song to be sung.

Note was also taken of our changing financial situation due to the decline of the stock market and the resulting loss of earnings income coupled with a tighter economy in many areas of our Annual Conference. Whereas we have been extremely fortunate to have had this financial resource that most of our peers do not, we have now reached the point of needing to reduce supplemental appropriations from this source that is drastically smaller than in the halcyon days of the stock market boom. We will have to rely more on faithful and full payment of apportionments through fair-share giving by congregations of all sizes if our ministries are to be expanded, perhaps even just sustained at current levels, while we keep our promises to retirees regarding pension and health benefits.

Should the threats of dire predictions cause us to withdraw in pain, may your blazing phoenix spirit resurrect the church again.

Into a world dominated by one superpower and into a Middle Eastern nation ruled by a despot, God sent his Son to save it all. In an England wallowing in intolerable class divisions and ripe for a bloody social and political revolution such as came to France a little later, God raised up John Wesley and changed a culture from indifference to passionate caring for people of all stations. Such is the foolishness of God demonstrated repeatedly across human history, a foolishness that works and will ultimately triumph over the forces of darkness. And now in this nation we love and sometimes argue with, God sends us with the same mandate John Wesley gave to the ones he sent here: offer them Christ, and spread scriptural holiness across the land. May the North Carolina Annual Conference be truer to that calling than ever as we come to the water for repentance and reconciliation, renewal and refreshment.

Charles M. Smith, Executive Director of Connectional Ministries

COMMUNICATIONS CIRCLE

The Conference Communications Circle has met three times since the 2002 Annual Conference. Our primary task continues to be encouraging and supporting Igniting Ministry in the conference, offering training for local churches and districts as needed. Much thanks goes to Camille Yorkey and Bill Norton for their tireless effort in offering Igniting Ministry training in several locations across the conference and across the SEJ. In 2003, Bill and Camille, and hopefully a few others will do additional training themselves as the General Conference continues its emphasis on calling the church to be inviting, welcoming and discipling congregations.

Supplemental resources from CF&A allowed the communications ministry of the conference to purchase additional television coverage during the Christmas season of 2002. It is the hope of the Communications Circle that the purchase of television and other media will continue to be a priority of the conference as it is for the general church and that funding, supplemental or otherwise, will continue to be available.

An additional emphasis of the Communications Circle includes working to improve the conference web page with cutting edge graphics and current information and weblinks to other sites. We will explore ways to use Internet technology to benefit the local church, offering information and connecting us together as a 21st century church. Additional resources will be sought to accomplish this vision.

The Media Center will be working to offer special resources and programming materials for the 300th anniversary of the birth of John Wesley. Archives and History will support this effort to elevate and display Wesley materials in 2003.

The struggles of a new paradigm of vision driven ministry are a challenge that that will call forth much prayerful discernment, hard work, and faith in each of the ministry circles of the Conference Connection Table. The experience of the Communications Circles is that our meetings are purpose driven, energetic and fruitful so far as encouraging each of our component ministries to press on in the ministry they are doing. The Communications Circle is committed to the vision of the Connectional Table and hopes that clarity and a new enthusiasm for what we are about will come in 2003.

Lib Campbell, Convener

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

The spring meeting of the Commission on Archives and History was held at the Carr United Methodist Church in Durham. This congregation has been active since 1886 and the church displays a collection of breathtakingly beautiful stained glass windows.

Reverend Brian Wingo shared some of the highlights of their history at the Conference Historical Society meeting, and the ladies graciously provided us with a delicious repast.

□ Our fall meeting, held at the Methodist Building in Raleigh, allowed us the opportunity to visit the expanded archives facilities. What an outstanding improvement. Thanks to Martha Garrick for spearheading the movement to enlarge our storage capacities; to Laura Bailey for her helpful insights and hard work in preparing this space; Frank Grill for helping in arranging, shelving and filing the materials.

□ At the Historical Society meeting, Vivian and John Mitchell led a devotion filled with historical highlights that they had presented at the National Historical Meeting held in Salem, Oregon. We welcomed three new members to our Commission and elected a new slate of officers for the next two years. This was necessitated by the expiration of tenure for several of our company.

□ The oldest church building in the Conference in continual use for worship was researched. We thank the participants in this endeavor, and all the winners can be viewed on the new North Carolina Conference Archives Website <http://www.nccunc.org/ministry/archives/>

□ Grave markers were sent to the families of five deceased ministers, and we presented seven churches with certificates for years of service to our Lord.

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate, jointly operated by the NC and WNC Conferences, continues to provide United Methodists with sixteen pages of “news and views” twice a month. The Advocate is funded by grants from both conferences, subscriptions, and an endowment. Also, all pastors, associates, retirees and widows receive a subscription to the Advocate, which keeps them abreast of what’s happening in the conference, in the state, in the country, and in the world—in terms of religious news.

This past year, we offered readers a special Sept 11 anniversary issue, as well as an ongoing theological debate in print between bishops within our denomination. At this time, we are concentrating our focus on the war in Iraq and its subsequent effect within the religious community. A variety of leadership voices punctuate each issue, including Bishop Charlene Kammerer’s and Bishop Marion Edwards’. These voices, and the stories they tell, help define the substance and spirituality of our denomination in North Carolina.

The Advocate, like most subsidiary organizations of the church, has experienced a recent downturn in endowment investments, and continuing support by churches and congregations via subscriptions is appreciated and needed. This next year, we will concentrate on building readership within churches, touching more people as we make our connection.

EPISCOPAL CIRCLE

Those areas of Conference ministry relating to the Episcopal Circle include: the Cabinet, Annual Conference Program, Christian Unity, Congregational Development, Ecumenical Ministries, Monitoring and Accountability, and Nominations. The mission of the Episcopal Circle is to listen to, prayerfully consider, and offer insight to the Bishop; and to receive and implement tasks of his special interests.

Our primary focus during this quadrennium is the Repentance & Reconciliation priority of The United Methodist Church within the NC Annual Conference. During the past two years we have sought to acquaint the Annual Conference with historical acts of racism causing division to occur with our pan-Methodist brothers and sisters of the AME, AME Zion, CME and former Central Conference. In conjunction with the Christian and Interfaith Unity Council we have encouraged local churches to make use of the study guide cosponsored by the General Commission on Christian Unity & Interreligious Concerns and the Council of Bishops of The United Methodist Church – Steps Toward Wholeness: Learning and Repentance. We have sought the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help us recognize the truth, repent of racial offenses against African American and Native American communities of faith within the bounds of the NC Conference, and seek the reconciliation available only when our lives are centered in Jesus Christ.

This past year a special Task Force has drafted a Service of Repentance and Reconciliation. This will be our first act of worship at this 2003 Annual Conference. It is our fervent, prayerful hope that this service will bring the healing and wholeness desired by Christ in mending past and present racial sins which have for too long divided the Church, and which have in many respects hindered the effectiveness of our witness in the eyes of a watching world – “I ask ... that they may be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.” (John 17:20-21). As our Lord prayed – may we be one in order that the world may believe our witness for Jesus Christ.

The Episcopal Circle receives budget requests from those areas of ministry relating to our Circle. And we continue to serve the Conference and our Bishop in an advisory capacity as we address and carry forward significant issues brought to our table.

Randall E. Innes, Chairperson

CHRISTIAN AND INTERFAITH UNITY COUNCIL

At Annual Conference 2002 the Christian Unity and Interfaith Council had the privilege of presenting Dr. Geoffrey Wainwright the Christian Unity award to celebrate his vital ecumenical work during the past decades. Dr. Wainwright then delivered a powerful message to the Conference.

A somber but important task for the Council was the development of a suggested worship service to commemorate the events of September 11, 2001. Many churches used these resources during ecumenical and interfaith worship services.

The Council continues its work in the area of repentance and reconciliation with the Christian Methodist Church, African Methodist Episcopal Church, and African Episcopal Church Zion. The Council played a significant role in the development of the Service of Repentance and Reconciliation at this Conference and continued to encourage local churches to use the study guide prepared by the General Conference entitled "Steps Toward Wholeness: Learning and Repentance." Copies of this study were distributed to every pastor and in February a workshop centered on leading the study filled the sanctuary at St. Marks in Raleigh.

Members of the Council are participating in the statewide Methodist-Episcopal dialogue and attended the Ecumenical Dialogue at Duke University in January.

Finally, the Council would like to celebrate local ministries that cross denominational lines. Modest grants are available from the Council to help in these endeavors.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, COMMISSION ON

The commission supports our annual conference as we respond to Jesus' challenge to be "my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8). Our response reflects the diversity of the people called United Methodists and the geography we are called to serve. Many of our congregations are deployed to serve rural communities and small towns that are being transformed before our eyes into urban and suburban centers. This is why about half of the people called Methodist in our annual conference now worship in just 120 of our 800+ churches that typically average 175 or more in worship each weekend.

In the next year we will challenge our conference to substantially increase our membership in the "Ten Dollar Club." This 50 year old venture in our conference provides grants to start new ministries across the state and launch missions in other nations as well. We hold before the annual conference an ongoing goal of starting 5 new churches annually utilizing the resources made available from Ten Dollar Club moneys and other investments held by the commission. In the coming years this will require a greater commitment from the commission as we move to start new churches in areas where start-up costs are pushing beyond the reach of our current funding processes. To this end we are supporting the emerging work of the Congregational Development Foundation, Inc. as it engages in a capital campaign that we hope will provide a ten-fold increase in the support to new faith communities.

As we ponder the changes in North Carolina's cultural climate we are reminded of the challenge to reach people for Jesus Christ. Jesus' commission to be witnesses "to the ends of the earth" remains, even as persons from "the ends of the earth" have moved into our neighborhood. We celebrate the growth in membership, and worship and Sunday school attendance in many of our churches. The Office of Congregational Development continues to consult with nearly 100 churches each year. The assistance provided includes demographic research, local consultations, training and planning services for existing congregations. We are excited about the Hispanic Circles of Ministry in Wake County and the launching of community ministry centers in the Rocky Mount District. These initiatives are in response to our bishop's challenge to open 20 new faith communities in places affected poverty by the year 2004.

Again, the work of the Office and Commission on Congregational Development is varied as we seek to serve rural, small town, suburban and urban churches in various socio-economic situations and cultural traditions, offering to each one the gospel of Jesus Christ. Thank you for your prayers and your support.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, REPORT OF

Living into one of the key values of the United Methodist Church, Bishop Marion Edwards continued to appoint clergy so that the composition of the Cabinet reflects the diversity of our church. For the conference year 2002-2003, there were 2 women, 2 African-Americans, and eight Anglo males. The Reverend Jerry Lowry was the Native American Consultant with the Cabinet. New appointments to the Cabinet included The Reverend Marshall Old (Greenville District), Reverend Dr. Albert Shuler (Elizabeth City District), the Reverend Dr. Bill Simpson (Rocky Mount), and Reverend Hope Morgan Ward (Raleigh District). The Reverend Judi Smith moved from the Elizabeth City District to the Durham District. In 2002, the churches of the Greenville, Sanford, and Wilmington districts remitted 100% of their apportionments.

The following is a brief summary the work of the districts:

BURLINGTON DISTRICT: Manna Ministries, Inc., a mission focused on the multi-racial and cultural diversity of east Burlington and Alamance County, was initiated. Lebanon UMC evolved from student to full time appointment. One of our most exciting and high quality ministries is the Burlington District Youth Ministry under the steady and creative leadership of Mr. Tom Pritchard. Mt. Hermon UMC purchased a parsonage and Bethel UMC (Alamance) completed construction of a new parsonage. Front Street UMC added a new pipe organ and completed a large addition to its facility. Union Grove UMC and Belmont UMC completed new family life centers. Cedar Cliff UMC, Palmer's Grove UMC, and Eno UMC added new stained glass windows to their worship spaces.

DURHAM DISTRICT: Tabernacle UMC—new stained glass windows, sanctuary renovations including bathrooms and handicapped accessibility; Pleasant Green UMC—dedicated a new sanctuary; Duke's Chapel UMC—received a gift of a paved parking lot and remodeled its choir room; Mt. Sylvan UMC—hosts families on behalf of Interfaith Hospitality Network; Aldersgate UMC—uses its Family Life Center to house homeless families; Reconciliation UMC—joined the network as a support congregation

ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT gave thanks to God and to its pastors & laity for 96% payment of our apportionments. Across our district we are involved in Habitat for Humanity, Soup Kitchens, Food Pantries, MERCI mission trips, after-school programs, Operation Shoe Box, Nursing Home Ministries, etc. Our outreach ministries also include reaching out to the Hispanic Community and impoverished children. We are also finding more and more churches committing to discipleship studies, bible studies, and in many of our churches we are seeing increases in membership and attendance. Moyock UMC held its celebration of a New Worship Center. Duck UMC and Bethany UMC (Wanchese) are presently building fellowship halls.

THE FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT grew numerically in membership. Most of the sixty-five churches are mission and ministry oriented with participation in Hand in Hand, Disciple Bible Study, Prison Ministry, AGAPE, Emmaus Walk, food pantry and clothing thrift shop ministry. Special emphasis is upon the small membership churches using a district Director of Christian Education.

The GOLDSBORO DISTRICT has developed a new District Program structure, and creative goal setting for each local church. Nine churches have either dedicated or begun new buildings for ministry. We have purchased three new parsonages. Ministries of health fairs, and Hispanic circles of ministry has become a reality.

GREENVILLE DISTRICT: Across the district, God is moving in a mighty way. Undios por Cristo, the Grimesland Hispanic Faith Community, received a pastor and continues to grow. Ayden UMC is restoring its sanctuary while Williamston UMC dedicated its parsonage. For the fourth year the district paid its apportionments 100%. Genesis UMC (Greenville) launched worship on February 2, 2003 with 235 persons attending. St. James UMC (Greenville) celebrates its 50th anniversary while Williamston UMC celebrated its 175th

NEW BERN DISTRICT: I must start my report with the big success of our District Lay Rally in February with John Riley as our speaker. There were between 850 and 900 people present. We are celebrating also the building of new buildings and remodeling at Havelock; First UMC, Merrimon; New Song UMC; and Ann Street UMC. We have celebrated the Small Membership Churches by having Sub-district Small Membership Rallies building up to a District Small Membership Rally in September.

THE RALEIGH DISTRICT celebrates the practice of “Worshipful Work,” new Hispanic ministries at Garner and Christ Community, a MERCI work week, revisioning of the Raleigh Board of Missions creating a District Missions Network linking all local churches, and completion of building programs at Mt. Zion UMC, Christ Community UMC, Soapstone UMC, Franklinton UMC, Genesis UMC and Edenton Street UMC.

All of the ROCKINGHAM DISTRICT churches shared in an exciting Pulpit Exchange in the spring. Fourteen churches underwent an exhaustive facility reviews and local work teams are helping with the determined repairs. Over 130 lay persons were trained in the annual Lay Speaking Training event. One church was recognized nationally for its work with Igniting Ministries.

ROCKY MOUNT: The district churches remitted 97.9% of all apportionments. The United Methodist Community Building was completed in Enfield. Sandy Cross UMC is completing construction on a new sanctuary. Nashville UMC and St. Paul UMC (Rocky Mount) are completing construction of new buildings. Winstead United Methodist Church (Wilson) was recognized at the district lay rally as the outstanding lay ministry of the year—more than one hundred persons are involved in tutoring students, helping with the purchase of school supplies, and assisting teachers.

The SANFORD DISTRICT continues its excellent support of missions at home and around the world with again paying out over 100% of its conference apportionments. Many of our churches are participating in the “Hand in Hand” ministries and we are seeing more food distributions from our communities. Morris Chapel added an addition to its educational wing as did Goldston. Southern Pines consecrated a sanctuary costing 2.5 million dollars and Pinehurst consecrated the first complex costing 2.1 million. Since I am completing eight years as District Superintendent of the Sanford District, I wish to express my grateful appreciation for the wonderful support that I’ve received over these years. I pray God’s continued blessings upon this wonderful district.

The fifty-eight congregations of the WILMINGTON DISTRICT take great pride in paying 100% of their apportionments. We are very pleased to welcome an Educational Consultant and a Parish Nurse to the district staff. Windsor UMC, on the Bladen Charge, and Westview UMC have completed new educational and fellowship facilities. Jordan’s Chapel UMC is now in their new worship center. The first Wilmington District Camp Meeting was held in September with Dr. Joe Harding as the guest evangelist.

MONITORING AND ACCOUNTABILITY MINISTRY TEAM

As the Monitoring and Accountability Ministry Team we will continue to offer a ministry of advocacy for inclusiveness in the North Carolina Annual conference. As a diverse people of God who bring special gifts and evidence of God’s grace to the unity of the church and society, we are called to be faithful to the call of Jesus Christ’s ministry to all persons”(par. 138, The Book of Discipline, 2000). We will continue to guide and encourage the NCC to realize the full and equal participation of all God’s children, regardless ethnicity, gender, physical limitations, or age in the life and leadership of Christ’s Church.

During Annual Conference 2002 we again offered the following ministries to encourage inclusiveness in the life of our North Carolina Conference.

- 1) We monitored the conference plenary sessions and worship experiences to record participation rates. The results were published daily in The Saddlebags as feedback. The pattern of participation revealed the following (i.e. leadership from the podium; comments from the floor): 58% white men, 28% white women, 8% racial ethnic men, and 6% racial ethnic women. Of the worship services monitored, 51% of the worship leaders to include musicians were white men, 26% were white women, 14% were racial ethnic men, and 9% were racial ethnic women).
- 2) We monitored the conference Cross-racial appointments and found that as of July 1,2002 there were 54 appointments of racial ethnic clergy in the NCC, and 24 cross-racial appointments (African American pastors and, or associates in white churches 5; White Pastors in African American churches 2; Native American pastors in White churches 8; Korean American pastors in White churches 3; and White pastors in Native American churches 3).
- 3) We monitored the NCC District Superintendency and found as of 07/02 the following rates of representation: 83% white men and 17% white women; 17% racial ethnic men. Overall rating: 98% white and 2% racial ethnic.
- 4) While monitoring the NCC Connectional Table we noted 40% woman and 60% men.
- 5) Our team hosted another well-attended, conference wide Clergywomen's Day Apart with Bishop Edwards.

The Monitoring and Accountability Team will continue to refine our monitoring and accountability procedures as we enter our third year of reporting. Our desire is to broaden our scope to include more in-depth monitoring of district as well as conference functions.

We will continue to familiarize the NCC with the usefulness of monitoring for inclusiveness as we work to keep before the world and ourselves the church's commitment to inclusiveness as a faithful reflection of Jesus' ministry to all people.

William E. Cummings, Chairperson

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

The Administrative Council of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, in order to continue to be vital, recently adopted a new Mission/Vision Statement. Our mission is:

To serve God through the United Methodist Church by connecting individuals, congregations, and conferences in discipleship with Jesus Christ.

As resources, centers, and experiences are provided, we see a future in which we live our oneness in Christ in a covenant community that includes all God's people. The new statement extends the mission of the United Methodist Church "To make disciples of Jesus Christ." As the Southeastern Jurisdiction plans and evaluates its ministries and places of ministry, we will be expecting inclusivity, innovative leadership, partnerships, mission, spirituality and stewardship to guide our work.

The year 2003 marks the 90th Anniversary of Lake Junaluska Assembly. This special place has been the site of so many experiences of spiritual awakening and growth. We are pleased to see a bright future as we celebrate our heritage.

The conference year 2002-2003 was good for the Jurisdiction. The Ministry Team had many accomplishments through events and leadership provided at Lake Junaluska and elsewhere around the jurisdiction. Our ministry staff continues to provide support for associations, networking groups, and other areas of ministry within the jurisdiction and the General Church.

Ministers Conference, held each July at Lake Junaluska, showed an increase in attendance. Two ministry events held at Epworth By-The-Sea, St. Simon's Island, the Cabinet and Large Church consultations, also showed increases in attendance. Over 250 clergywomen from the Southeastern Jurisdiction attended the Consultation held at Lake Junaluska in March.

In August the Southeastern Jurisdiction Church Society Networking Group in partnership with the General Board of the Church & Society held an event in Birmingham to train leaders of conferences, districts, and local churches with special attention given to our role as United Methodists in eradicating HIV across the southeast. The Office of Outreach, Advocacy, and Racial Ethnic concerns is planning a multi-cultural convocation, "Reconciliation with Love and Understanding" for August 21-22, 2003 in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Office of Discipleship Ministries has been within the bounds of most of the SEJ annual conferences providing training and resources. In August Kadasha, the SEJ worship team, traveled to South Africa for a "learning and teaching" mission focused on youth ministry and worship. We experienced a slight increase in participation in all seasonal youth events, having reached the capacity of our youth facilities in the last few years. We look forward to expanding our participation in the remodeled Shackford Hall in the summer of 2003. SEJYMO distributed $20,000 in jurisdictional YSF offerings collected at summer youth events to mission projects. In 2003 new or reactivated events and initiatives will include: the Drew/Evangelism convocation focused on "Churches that Make a Difference – The Congregation as Evangelist," an SEJ/UM Heritage weekend for new United Methodists, and establishing the Kern Internet Kafé.

The Office of Communications and Learning Ministry has had a very productive year. The staff worked with students and annual conferences as communication consultants. A Latino/Hispanic web site (bi-lingual) was created, as well as many others of the jurisdiction agencies and ministries. We celebrate the inclusion of the Good Word Resource Center as a new partner with the Office of Communications. 2003 offers tremendous opportunities for significant partnerships, including working with the Foundation for Evangelism in developing a Learning Network with seminaries and agencies of the United Methodist Church. We are excited about what these opportunities offer to entire church.

The Good Word Resource Center served 260 churches, providing workshops and consultations on available resources. A church library workshop is scheduled for May 22-25, 2003, and a spiritual formation event for July 10-13, 2003.

The Office of Hispanic Ministries continued to make strides as it envisioned a new ministry for the jurisdiction. The national Hispanic Plan's modules I & II have been held for training of youth and adults. In April and October 2003, module III on theological education will be held. A Latino-Hispanic Christmas celebration will be held again this year.

The Workplace Discipleship Program continues to be a major emphasis for us as we strive to work toward more diverse leadership in events and in our staff across the Jurisdiction. We have an expanded Affirmative Action Plan and developed goals.

The seven Southeastern Jurisdiction agencies continue to meet needs of their special constituents. The Administrative Council affirms the focused ministries of: Gulfside Assembly; Hinton Rural Life Center; Intentional Growth Center; Southeastern Jurisdiction Native American Ministries; Southeastern United Methodist Agency for Rehabilitation; Southeastern Jurisdiction Archives and History and Heritage Center; and United Methodist Volunteers In Mission.

The 2002 fiscal year ended very strongly with the Lake Junaluska Conference and Retreat Center. Room revenues broke the 3 million dollar mark for the first time in the center's history with $3,087,675 as opposed to $2,937,918 in 2001. Guest nights also showed an increase. Operational analysis of the past four years in the conference center revenues versus expenses shows a trend toward a more positive fiscal management operation. The facts reveal the conference center is operating at better than 120% more than it's operational efficiency in 1999. New furniture at Lambuth, new carpet and better bedding at Lakeside, and added heating and cooling to 20 more apartments enable us to better serve larger members of persons for ministry.

The campaign for Lake Junaluska and Ministry with the purpose of renovating several buildings, building a new Welcome Center and Discipleship Center, and building our endowment is progressing. We have $4.3 million committed toward the $10 million dollar goal. The first project of the campaign is Shackford Hall, which is undergoing a $1.6 million dollar renovation.

The reclamation project of the lake was given another boost with the second five hundred thousand dollar grant from the state of North Carolina. Major work is being done to the dam of the lake. This 90-year-old structure has made it possible to enjoy wonderful Lake Junaluska as a special place for almost a century.

Our desire is to continue to serve the United Methodist Church and especially the Southeastern Jurisdiction as a partner in Ministry.

Jimmy L. Carr, Executive Director

MISSION DEVELOPMENT CIRCLE

The theme and vision we have chosen "To inspire courage, cultivate generosity, and to ignite service for Christ's mission in the world" is best understood as we step into the mission programs of our conference. The areas of ministry relating to the Mission Development Circle are: Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries, Evangelism, Church and Society, Disaster Response, Health and Human Services, Multicultural Ministries, Ethnic and Local Church Concerns, Global Ministries Missions and United Methodist Women. Every day scores of United Methodist of the North Carolina Conference live this vision out in action. We are blessed to have so many wonderful ministries that focus on and address human need and suffering.

The past year has been one that has showcased many examples of missions in not only in our conference but around the world. We have been blessed to be able to share the gospel in our prisons around the conference. We are fortunate to have those special individuals who sense this unique call to share ministry of Jesus Christ in these special places. We continue to advocate for those who seemingly have no voice in society. Today our response to disaster within our conference is a well thought out and orchestrated example of Christian love in action. From the recruiting and training of volunteers to the putting back together broken lives the MERCI Center is bridging many gaps and making possible service for volunteers and a new life and in some cases a new home for those who hurt. This year churches all across our conference have deployed teams for service on the mission field. Many have made their marks locally while others have given in Cuba, Russia, Peru, Bolivia, Afghanistan, Armenia and other parts of the world. These are but a few of the many mission efforts that are ongoing in our conference today.

We also understand that there is a major harvest in our own communities. As our communities continue to be reshaped and redefined we must continually seek new and creative ways to be in mission and ministry in all places. With a new Comprehensive Plan of Inclusiveness rolled out this year we will be presented with many new challenges to serve unmet needs in our own communities.

Gary Wayne Locklear, Chairperson

E. Lane Five: Conference Advance

1. ALLIANCE MEDICAL MINISTRY: This ministry was founded to provide affordable primary medical care to low-income, uninsured, working families in Wake County. This ministry aims to serve the working poor, families generally earning less than $25,000 annually, who have no health insurance.
2. MANNA MINISTRIES OF ALAMANCE COUNTY, INC: An outreach ministry in a culturally diverse community (east Burlington area) for families without food, furniture or clothing. To serve as a “safe haven” place for the people and offer education for adults & children; provision of clothing for the needy; nutrition; training of young mothers in baby care.

3. LEPULA(LIBERIA) SELF HELP SCHOOL CONSTRUCTION PROJECT: Provide funds for purchase of building materials and classroom supplies for a “Self Help” sun-dried mud block elementary school building. The local UMC congregation and UMC school (now is a bamboo hut) provides most of the labor at no cost. The construction of this school will provide improved learning conditions.
4. “EVERY MEMBER IN MINISTRY”-ROCKINGHAM DISTRICT NATIVE AMERICAN COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES: This program is designed to develop leadership within our Laity, Youth and Adults. The goal is to help our target group identify their gifts, graces, talents and skills. This will equip the target groups to respond to the opportunities that exist in the local church, community and beyond.
5. MERCI: THE MARION EDWARDS RECOVERY CENTER INITIATIVES: This center will be used to provide mission and ministry program that will meet people’s physical and spiritual needs. The primary function of MERCI will be disaster preparedness, response, and recovery. In addition, the center will provide missional outreach programs and opportunities.
6. THE HAND IN HAND PROJECT: This is a ministry for children and youth that connects churches with schools. These partnerships offer an avenue outside the walls of our faith community to build solid relationships with our children and our school community.
7. MISSION TO HAITI: Many communities in Haiti do not have schools. This project is to assist in building schools and supplement teacher’s salaries when possible.
8. HISPANIC MINISTRIES: Ministry to the fast growing Hispanic population in North Carolina. These funds will be administered by the North Carolina Conference Task Force on Hispanic Ministry to support an increasing number of our congregations who are developing ministry to Hispanics.
9. UNITED METHODIST VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION WORK TEAMS: Provides assistance for Volunteers in Mission work teams from within the North Carolina Conference.
10. CHATHAM- LEE HISPANIC MINISTRIES: A ministry to fast growing Hispanic population in Siler City and Sanford, served by Spanish-speaking pastor. Worship, Bible study, fellowship, and assistance with cultural transition needs are provided.
11. ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH PROJECTS IN ROCKINGHAM DISTRICT: Funds will be used to assist ethnic churches with crucial needs. Projects to be lifted up for assistance in 2002 are Piney Grove UMC Building and the Rockingham District Native American Cooperative Ministries.
12. WESLEY HERITAGE PROJECT: Gifts will help distribute Obras de Wesley, the works of John and Charles Wesley in Spanish.
13. PRISON MATCH (Mothers And Their Children): An interfaith program provides mothers and their children with the support and resources necessary to maintain and strengthen family relationships and to help break the cycle of children following their parents to prison.
14. WALNUT TERRACE CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER: Offers a unique program of child care for children aged six weeks to five years. Serves children primarily from low-income families.
15. STOP HUNGER NOW: Provides immediate relief to famine affected areas around the world.
16. NC OFFICE, SOCIETY OF ST. ANDREW POTATO PROJECT, Durham, NC: Coordinates and runs all hunger programs for Society of St. Andrew in North Carolina. More than 2 million pounds of produce saved and distributed in North Carolina at a cost of just 3 cents per pound.

17. JOHN WESLEY ENDOWMENT: The John Wesley Endowment is to provide start-up, promotional, and sustaining funds for new churches established in low income communities within the bounds of The North Carolina Conference.
18. SHALOM ZONES IN THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE: Churches and communities working together to rebuild community life.
19. ISA GRANT SCHOLARSHIP: Provides work team scholarships for persons who could not otherwise participate, especially young adults.
20. NC COUNCIL OF CHURCHES: Gives witness to the unity that God has given through Christ, to the churches in NC. It is an instrument for cooperative study and action, especially on matters of justice; child and family advocacy; violence against women; public policy advocacy; rural crisis and farm workers advocacy; disaster relief; criminal justice; workplace safety; peace-making; AIDS ministry; and Christian unity.
21. YOKEFELLOW PRISON MINISTRIES: Educates church people concerning Christian responsibility for persons affected by crime and brings Christians into direct service ministries with prison inmates and their families.
22. CASWELL COUNTY PARISH, INC.: Provides services to elderly and low-income families through Meals-on-Wheels, outreach program, fuel and rent assistance, clothing, food. In addition, Family Violence Prevention Program provides services for families who are suffering from domestic violence.
23. VOLUNTEER FAMILIES FOR CHILDREN (VFC): A private non-profit organization with the purpose of helping communities develop and utilize local resources by providing emergency shelter care to children-in-crisis.
24. FOOD BANK OF NORTH CAROLINA: Distributes food at minimal cost to hunger ministries throughout Eastern North Carolina.
25. HYDE COUNTY COOPERATIVE PARISH: Provides meals to the needy, recreation and other opportunities for youth, food pantry and clothes closet, transportation for elderly and those needing medical care, ministry to inmates at the Hyde Correctional Facility, drug prevention awareness, assistance to abused persons and ministry to a growing Hispanic population.
26. DISCIPLE BIBLE OUTREACH MINISTRY: A COLLABORATIVE MINISTRY of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences developing Disciple Bible Studies, especially in small membership churches and in missional settings, particularly in prisons.
27. NC INTERFAITH: Interfaith supports disaster recovery efforts by all faith groups in North Carolina.
28. YOUTH SERVICE FUND (YSF): Supports mission projects within the annual conference and beyond, which have been selected by youth of our conference.
29. RALEIGH DISTRICT BOARD OF MISSION: Funds should be sent directly to the Raleigh District Board and reported at year-end on Table II as Conference Advance.
30. NC CONFERENCE DISASTER APPEALS
31. CONFERENCE EVANGELISTS: To provide support for NC Conference approved evangelists.
32. ALL NEW CHURCHES LESS THAN FIVE YEARS OLD.
33. The following United Methodist institutional programs and projects.
 - a. United Methodist Camps: Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee, Rockfish, Kerr Lake
 - b. Member Groups of The United Methodist Church Campus Ministry Association.
 - c. General Scholarship Funds at Methodist, Louisburg, Wesleyan Colleges, Duke Divinity School.
 - d. Benevolent Funds of the Methodist Retirement Homes.
 - e. Benevolent Funds of the Methodist Homes for Children
 - f. Asbury Homes

The Annual Conference will approve district projects for advance specials in accordance with 651.4 of The 2000 Book of Discipline. This insures that local churches making advance specials on a district level and reported to the Annual Conference advance special will receive credit.

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, COMMISSION ON

The Conference Church and Society Ministry Team continues to be mission driven in its work. "To make disciples of Jesus Christ" is our goal as we network with partners across the twelve districts and with other Church and Society groups throughout the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Church. This group has been involved in training events at the general church level and has had three of the associate general secretaries visit us this year. Dr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Chamberlain of Greensboro, author of the book, UPON WHOM WE DEPEND: THE AMERICAN POVERTY SYSTEM, have partnered with the Church and Society Team as consultants, and Dr. Chamberlain has led the group through a study of the text, UPON WHOM WE DEPEND. The priorities for the quadrennium continue to be focused on 1) working to defeat the lottery in North Carolina; 2) working to insure a living wage for all people of our state, with special emphasis on those who work for our churches; 3) working to help mediate justice for farm workers; 4) working for peace with justice for all persons in all areas of our society; and 5) working to educate and inform all citizens of the climatic events will have on agricultural practices, human health, the distribution of fresh water supplies, the loss of species and the survival of entire cultures. To this end the Church and Society Ministry Team of the Annual Conference entreats all Methodists to use their influence to reduce the consumption of fossil fuels by practicing conservation; by encouraging energy audits in our churches and homes and in every way possible to increase energy efficiency. The Church and Society Ministry Team calls on people called Methodists everywhere to remember the call of our Church "to work ... to build support for measures that would end the flood of special-interest monies...and restore integrity..." 2002 Book of Resolutions, p.639.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND MERCY MINISTRIES, COMMITTEE ON

The Conference Committee on Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries (CJAMM) is eager to assist any and or all of the North Carolina Conference churches in becoming advocates for the victims, for the inmates, and for the chaplains at the prisons and jails in our Conference geographic area. We offer a yearly updated booklet entitled, "Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries Opportunities" which is available through the Conference office, or from a CJAMM member. This booklet has a listing of some of the opportunities for ministries in the prisons, and a listing of what many of the churches in our Conference are doing. There is a wonderful mission being carried out by the many prison volunteers and tremendous prayer support through out the Conference. Crime and the needs within the justice system continue to rise. The CJAMM committee encourages every church to support prison ministries by visiting and praying with our brothers and sisters there. We are eager to inform willing volunteers about a new program called FAITHFUL FRIENDS MINISTRY, which is a collaborative Ministry of the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences. This is an aftercare program begun by Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries volunteers.

The main areas we are urging the churches to take on are our FIVE INITIATIVES:

1. Be a PRAYING CHURCH – organize a committee and adopt a local institution and pray regularly for the staff, the inmates, the victims, and the families.
2. Be an ADVOCATING CHURCH – for victims, for inmates, for local prisons.
3. Be a RECEIVING CHURCH – welcome inmates as they are released and their families when they visit or accept a family member home from an institution.

4. Be a DISCIPLE BIBLE STUDY LEADING CHURCH – have members that are willing to contribute, via: teaching and/or funding the Disciple Bible Study in a local institution, through the Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries office.
5. Be a FUNDING CHURCH - offer monetary assistance to various programs that the chaplains may have.

We give grant support to the following:

1. Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries – DBOM is a joint NC & WNC Conference venture which seeks to have every church and every institution in North Carolina involved in the Disciple Bible Study series.
2. MATCH (Mothers And Their CHildren), Inc. which is a program at Women's prison in Raleigh which educates mothers in many area of parenting and also enables them to have visits with their children in a homelike atmosphere.
3. Yokefellow Ministries – trained volunteers that share the love of Jesus weekly in the institution
4. Angel Tree Ministries – a project by Prison Fellowship that enables caring people to provide Christmas gifts for the children of incarcerated persons
5. Epiphany ministries – A weekend event that involves a team of Christian adults who work together to show the love of God and the saving power of Jesus to the residents of youth institutes.

DISASTER RECOVERY MINISTRIES AND THE MARION EDWARDS RECOVERY CENTER INITIATIVES

(M.E.R.C.I.)

On July 1, 2002 the Marion Edwards Recovery Center became the parent organization for disaster recovery in our conference. In connection with the Conference Disaster Response Committee, MERCI will help with preparedness training, emergency response and recovery operations in the event of a disaster in the North Carolina Conference. MERCI has an on going relationship with NCEM to provide necessary services in times of emergency. For disasters outside our conference, MERCI will provide assistance as needed and is willing to coordinate teams to the affected area.

In addition to disaster programs, MERCI has a Rural Housing Initiative for making repairs to homes of low-income families as well as the ability to build new homes for families who qualify.

Through the Connection Ministries Initiative MERCI has assisted in collecting supplies and loading containers for Armenia and Liberia as well as working with the NC Public Schools to collect and ship over 10,000 school kits to children in Afghanistan. MERCI delivered over 40 volunteer bunk beds to Louisiana to assist in their disaster recovery efforts. We continue to collect, sort, and package materials for emergency supplies. Health Kits and Flood Buckets are two items that are constantly requested both by UMCOR and our local communities.

This summer brings us the opportunity to host Footprints, a youth work camp to help families in the community with home repairs. We plan to teach construction skills and safety before putting the youth on the job. Our Duke Student Intern will run this program.

We are continually amazed by the number of volunteers who are willing to give so freely of their time and talents to help those less fortunate and those in times of crisis. We at MERCI are blessed to be a part of a conference that sees the value in disaster readiness as well as sees the need to reach beyond the walls of our own churches and to help those in our communities. That blessing is continued by the witnessing of the hands and feet of Christ at work through you, the members of our conference.

EVANGELISM, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Evangelism exists to assist the churches and pastors of the North Carolina Conference with equipping their membership to witness to the saving love of Jesus Christ for all persons. To that end, the Commission does not do the work of evangelism for the church. Rather, it enables that work to be done by equipping the laity and clergy through education and inspiration. During the past year, the commission provided scholarship and seed money to individuals, churches and districts to assist with varieties of training opportunities and programs in the area of Evangelism. Future requests for assistance can be submitted through the Conference office.

Since last report, the Commission on Evangelism birthed the first annual Academy for Christian Witness for leadership development in evangelism, witness and faith sharing ministries. The Academy is designed to provide “hands-on” contact and training utilizing a variety of the tools and resources available to churches and pastors today. The retreat format offers the participants of the Academy a three-day intensive workshop specifically designed to increase the effectiveness of local church pastors in evangelism, witness and faith sharing. Participants are mentored and instructed by leaders who have demonstrated excellence in evangelism. Additionally, a toolbox of practical resources is provided for each participant. This first session targeted clergy who were recommended by their respective District Superintendents for the specific training. Participants were given a full scholarship to cover event costs, books and resource materials. The first Academy was held April 1-3, 2003 at the Bergland Retreat Center, Camp Rockfish.

The Igniting Ministries emphasis continues to provide a platform for creativity in evangelism and outreach. Local churches and districts lead in intentionally offering Christ in new and inviting ways. Across the conference, billboards, targeted mailings, printed media advertising, Radio and TV spots proclaim the hearts, the minds and the doors of the United Methodist Church are open and offer invitations to persons outside of the church to come and join “the family.”

Again this year, the North Carolina Conference celebrates growth in professions of faith, worship attendance, new church beginnings, and membership. Churches in all settings are finding numerical growth happening in their congregations. Growth in numbers must also be balanced by growth in faith. A tool for measuring growth in faith as our people mature in their spiritual life has yet to be discovered, but growth in faith is among the most important evidences of converts becoming disciples. Making disciples is the command of Christ and must be the primary directive for the church. The Commission on Evangelism seeks to prepare the people of the North Carolina Conference to be faithful to the Great Commission of our Lord, to make Disciples. By faithfully equipping the laity and clergy with education and inspiration, the Commission on Evangelism shares the call of Jesus Christ, “to go and make Disciples.”

HISPANIC MINISTRIES TEAM

The Holy Spirit is transforming the lives of hundreds of Hispanics in the NC Conference through 20 faith communities, 13 congregations and 28 community ministries. Average weekly attendance in Hispanic congregations in the conference exceeds 800. Four full-time pastors and eight lay missionaries share God’s Word in faith communities and “welcome the stranger” through community ministries.

In the Greenville District, Unidos por Cristo is experiencing very notable growth. The Rev. Jose Luis Zamora is reaching out to the community with the help of parish associate, the Rev. Silva Zamora.

Manna Ministries in the Burlington District, under the leadership of the Rev. Maggie Crandall and missionary Julio Garcia has a congregation of approximately 100 people. In addition to weekly worship, ministries include after-school tutoring, ESL (English as a Second Language) programs, Alcoholics Anonymous in Spanish, liturgical dance, Bible study for adults and children, and a "Feed My Sheep" program.

Wake Circles of Hispanic Ministries in the Raleigh District, led by the Rev. Hector Millan, added two new congregations in 2003: at Garner UMC with Daniel Pantoja and at Christ Community UMC with Persida and Javier Montañez. Alejandro Garcia will soon begin at Pueblo de Esperanza at Millbrook UMC. Rafaela Millan works with faith communities and the Kid's Café, and afterschool tutoring program at Avent Ferry UMC, and Edith Salazar leads worship and coordinates Sunday school and ESL and Spanish classes at Luz del Pueblo at White Plains UMC. At Sunrise Hispanic Ministries, Daniel Pantoja has organized a worshipping congregation and Sunday school as well as provided ESL and computer classes in Spanish, and Spanish classes for English speakers.

"La Escuelita," a Hispanic preschool at Fuquay-Varina UMC serves 36 children with 27 volunteers while their parents take ESL classes offered by Wake Tech. Hispanic missionary Araceli Padilla coordinates the ministry which includes a program called MotherRead and health screening.

At First UMC in Cary, the Rev. Nancy Pugh has formed what is perhaps the first Hispanic United Methodist Women's circle, in the conference. The Amigas Unidas circle meets monthly for an interchange of language and ideas.

In the Durham District, Cristo Vive has moved its ministry to St. Paul's UMC in Durham over the past year. The Rev. Rosanna Panizo leads worship, and coordinates Sunday school as well as Bible studies.

The Rev. Daniel de la Cruz reports that Sundays at El Camino in Siler City begins with a breakfast for children, followed by Sunday school and worship. Spiritual formation occurs through weekday Bible studies and classes for couples, and community ministries include a clothes closet, food pantry, and assistance in finding employment. At La Trinidad in Sanford, co-pastor Everardo Marquez leads worship every Sunday and serves as a chaplain at a local poultry processing plant in Sanford.

Que Dios bendiga a todo el ministerio hispano en la Conferencia de Carolina del Norte . . . may God bless all the Hispanic ministry in the North Carolina Conference.

MISSIONS TEAM

I was hungry and you fed your hungry neighbor. I was thirsty and you gave infant formula to a suffering Armenian child. I was a stranger and you offered shelter to refugees. I was naked and you clothed people in Liberia. I was sick and you visited the victims of land mines in Sierra Leone. I was in prison and you came to me with Disciple bible study. And the King will answer and say to them, "Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these, sisters of mine, even the least of my brothers, you did it to me."

And who are my sisters? Your sisters are employed in on-going micro-industry at the Project AGAPE Christian Education Center. Your sisters at the Breakfast of Love, fed hungry children through the Peru Covenant. Your sisters met the needs of broken adults at the Sheltered Workshop in La Esperanza, Chile. Your sisters drove nails into the leaking roof of a distressed elderly woman at the Robeson County Church and Community Center.

And who are my brothers? Your brothers collected thousands of school kits for the children of Afghanistan. Your brothers traveled to Alaska and hung 1800 panels of sheet rock for an Athabaskan United Methodist congregation. Your brothers built a seminary for Russian United Methodist students. Your brothers collected thousands of pounds of potatoes with Society of St. Andrew. Your brothers continued to reach out to scores of our impoverished neighbors who are still without shelter as the result of a by-gone hurricane. Your brothers provided critical supplies to people whose homes were destroyed by tornadoes.

And there is more ... much more. God is calling us, you and me together, through the missions of the North Carolina Annual Conference. We have experienced God's grace in our Kingdom building activity. We have provided over $300,000 in mission oriented grants, touched thousands of lives, and engaged ministry in a multitude of countries. We have sent scores of work teams, supported schools and hospitals and remote villages. We have proclaimed the name of Christ and we have met the Christ. In Christ we have transformed the world. By Christ, we have been transformed.

Mike Leburg, Chairperson

MULTICULTURAL MINISTRIES

We live in an increasingly diverse and multicultural world. The NC Conference of The United Methodist Church cannot merely react to this reality. We must be proactive in our pursuit of justice, peace, reconciliation, and inclusiveness. The Multicultural Ministries Team seeks to work toward this end. This year we have sought to work more closely with all the racial ethnic ministry groups in our conference (Native American Ministries Team, Hispanic Ministries Team, Strengthening the Black Church, and Korean ministries).

CPI (Conference Plan of Inclusiveness) grants for 2002 were awarded in the total amount of $67,350 to twenty grantees representing the Burlington, Durham, Fayetteville, Greenville, Raleigh, Rockingham, Rocky Mount, and Wilmington districts. Our team also continues to relate to the General Church's EICC, Religion and Race, and COSROW.

This past year, our team pulled together a diversity of people from around our conference in an effort to evaluate our two previous plans of inclusiveness: The Comprehensive Plan of the NCC Missional Priority Coordinating Committee (1987), and the NCC Plan of Inclusiveness (1995). Our most recent plan was only intended to take us through the year 2000. It was our task to put together a writing team and formulate a new Comprehensive Plan of Inclusiveness to come before the 2003 Annual Conference session. We prayerfully submit that plan to the NCC in hope that it will assist us in living more faithfully into our calling to be the Church for and with all people.

Kevin Baker and Hector Millan, Co-chairs

NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES TEAM

The Conference Committee on Native American Ministries continues to work under the call "Every Member in Ministry" but with an expanded focus and vision. Our primary focus will be involving our churches in both corporate and individual ministry. The core areas of focus will continue to be on leadership development, evangelism, congregational development and missions. Task oriented Christian leadership will continue to be the most effective tool used for translating our dreams into reality.

Our goals continue to broaden as the communities and personnel undergo radical change in an ever-changing world. We accept the challenge of providing opportunities for the leadership of our churches to become involved in spiritual leadership in a new and more dynamic society. Church leadership is boldly addressing a new type of challenge as economic opportunities diminish in our communities. We struggle to find new ways to address these new and rapidly increasing issues. We are challenged to understand our unique gifts and graces and how we might apply them to these new problems that we have not known before. The goal of this deployment is always to serve God in their local congregations and beyond with the results being growth and commitment. We want our membership to be involved in spiritual enrichment and leadership development programs. This process will continue to include, Emmaus Walk, Disciple Bible Study, Family Camp, SEJANAM'S Native American Family Conference, "Discover God's Call" and other leadership events.

The Native American Interfaith Ministry efforts we entered into two years ago have now begun to produce results in the community. More than 125 congregations are working cooperatively to address five core areas of need in the Native American Community that have come about primarily because of "Spiritual Depletion" in the lives of many in our community: homelessness, domestic violence, the spread of STD within the Native American community, substance abuse and suicide prevention. We are now aggressively addressing these five goals as we work with a team of health care, Faith-based, education and social professionals.

We continue to develop local, national and international mission opportunities for our local church members. The youth of our congregations are now organizing and planning challenging agendas to address their most pressing needs local church leadership, career choice and education. Our youth have now extended their focus area within their own local church and beyond addressing some of the needs of our communities, particularly for the elderly.

PERU COVENANT, TASK FORCE ON

With thanksgiving to God for the blessings that come through the covenant relationship our conference has with the Methodist Church of Peru, comes thanksgiving for the support and hard work of so many who participate both formally and informally in our mission initiative.

Our covenant was first approved in 1989; our vision for this ministry has always followed the movement of the Holy Spirit to form and shape it into God's vision. In the last thirteen years, we have experienced alongside our sisters and brothers the changes of the political landscape in Peru, changes in Episcopal leadership of our small sister church, the addition of many new participants in our ministry, and the growth of interest in it beyond our Annual Conference.

In the last year, our Task Force has actively participated, with the General Board of Global Ministries, the British Methodist Church, the Methodist Mission Society, and other Methodists in supporting the ministry of the Methodist Church of Peru. We have been "at the table" of the National Plan for Evangelization, providing leadership and training opportunities for the hard work of reconciliation, developed specific areas of giving through our Conference Treasurer to provide avenues for specific gifts, developed guidelines for matching our local churches with local churches in Peru to encourage closer relationships among our peoples, and developed a Conference Building Work Team guide. While the Seminary in Lima has been closed, this Conference year, we were able to reopen opportunities for students at Duke Divinity to experience study in Lima.

Presently, six local congregations have formalized their relationships with local churches in Peru. Our youth continue to find interest in this experience and make a commitment to this ministry. In March, two teams from both a local church and Duke Divinity School visited, learned, and came into contact with our brothers and sisters in Peru. This summer, three teams are scheduled to travel for ministry – all of these teams have included youth and young persons in their mission. We have seen much growth and development in our relationship.

Our mission is to serve our conference and those beyond by facilitating successful and meaningful experiences for our local congregations, adults and youth, alike. To that end, our members have served as advisors, helpers, and resources for groups which feel a calling to mission in Peru. Our newly launched newsletter is in process of linking individuals with local congregations and congregations and NC Conference and others beyond our borders.

The experience of ministry “across culture” is challenging and constantly calls us to learn to hear with new ears, see with new eyes, know with a new heart and mind, and depend upon God and the leading of the Holy Spirit to guide our feet into the way of peace and love. As we invite you into this ministry, we give thanks to God for all those who have given of themselves to this ministry this year: Mark Wethington (Theological Education), Ron Rivenbark (Building Work Teams), Eric Torres, Regina Henderson Sarah Smith, and Jason Compton (Youth), Warren Heitzenrater (National Plan for Evangelization), Wayne McFarland (Newsletter Editor), Ruth Lucier (Secretary), Rosanna Panizo, Lucho Reinoso, Edith Salazar, Steve Taylor (Conference Missions Director) and others who have given their time, gifts, talents, and energy to this mission.

STRENGTHENING THE BLACK CHURCH

Strengthening the Black Church (SBC) for the 21st Century is an initiative to restore, reconstruct, redeem, reconcile, and revitalize African Americans within the denomination and the community at large. The SBC Committee of the North Carolina Conference provided an opportunity, working toward the goal of this initiative, by sponsoring the “Black Church Celebration”. This celebration was held in April hosted by John Wesley and Hay Street churches in Fayetteville. Over 300 lay and clergy were in attendance. Dynamic leadership from within our conference and from the denomination presented information to the participants to equip them to become more effective witnesses in this 21st century.

The SBC Committee has been actively involved in planning the “Act of Repentance and Reconciliation” which will be presented at this Annual Conference. It is the committee’s hope that this Act of Repentance will move this Annual Conference in a new direction as we work to remove the stain of racism from our church. To prepare the Annual Conference for this Act of Repentance, the SBC committee has recommended that each district study the resource, Step Toward Wholeness: Learning and Repentance. A workshop was held on February 8 to train districts how to use the resource. Carolyn Oehler, the author of the resource book, led the workshop. The workshop, which was attended by lay and clergy from every district, had over 400 in attendance. The SBC Committee has also recommended that local churches study the resource prior to attending Annual Conference.

“Black Methodists have been a part of this church for over 210 years. Keeping leaders equipped to lead this denomination into the coming century is crucial.” (Quote from Bishop Jonathan Keaton) As the SBC Committee continues its work for this quadrennium, we will focus on ways of equipping clergy and lay leadership for this new millennium.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

“Ordinary People with an Extraordinary Mission” was the 2002 theme for the North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women. In following our purpose we focused on spiritual growth, education, social responsibility, leadership development, and most importantly mission outreach locally and throughout the world.

In 2002 the North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women sponsored six conference-wide events including: the 39 & Under Event, the Spiritual Enrichment Retreat, the three day Conference School of Christian Mission, two Mother/Child Retreats, and the UMW Annual Meeting. We also held workshops on Racial Justice Issues, Membership, Financial Analysis, Leadership Development, and Officer Training.

We awarded $7,000 in scholarships to applicants who are attending Methodist colleges or who plan to enter religious vocations. In addition we supported and promoted the Methodist Home for Children’s “Sharing Sunday” and helped raise over $130,000.00 on their behalf.

Our 2002 pledge to mission was $434,000.00. We exceeded our pledge and sent a total of $449,823.74 in undesignated giving. In addition we sent $35,488.55 in designated giving for a total remittance of $485,312.29!

In this our third year of the “Mission Today” program we recognized 14 Gold, 60 Silver, and 90 Basic “Mission Today” local units.

The North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women are a strong and vital witness for Christ in the world. We look forward with great expectation for the ways God will use us in the coming year.

CHILDREN’S MINISTRY TEAM

In children’s ministries we celebrate...

“Safe Sanctuaries” workshop for reducing the risk of child abuse in the church held August 2002 with over 100 participants. All local churches that are responding and implementing Safe Sanctuaries policies and procedures.

Curriculum workshops held for Vacation Bible School through Cokesbury and the United Methodist Publishing House.

Faithful reporting through charge conferences of church-school partnerships and weekday program ministries with young children. Over the last three years, 457 new spaces for childcare and weekday ministries with children (preschool, afterschool, childcare) were created in United Methodist Churches in the NC Conference.

The Hand in Hand project, our ongoing intensive work under the Bishops’ Initiative on Children and Poverty, in collaboration with the Western NC Conference UMC, Methodist Homes for Children and Communities in Schools works toward developing partnerships between churches and schools to meet the needs of children and their families. (See related report)

Continued commitment to the Bishops’ Initiative on Children and Poverty and local church efforts to reach out to children and the impoverished beyond their four walls. The new study guide “Community with Children and the Poor” being introduced at Annual Conference this year. The Children’s March on the state Capitol being planned for February, 2004 with the Western NC UM Conference and Bishops Edwards and Kammerer.

We invite churches to give input to the needs for resources and training for ministry to, with and by children.

CLERGY COUNSELING AND CONSULTATION, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Clergy Counseling and Consultation was established by the 1999 Annual Conference to address the needs of clergy and their families for psychological services. Upon the Commission's recommendation and at the direction of the 2000 Annual Conference, the Clergy Counseling and Consultation Service was established on January 1, 2001. Jane Clark Moorman, MSW, LCSW, BCD, was employed as Director by the Commission. In developing this service for clergy and their families, her duties include:

- 1) Providing assessment, counseling, psychotherapy and referral services for clergy and members of their families;
- 2) Providing mental health consultation to clergy regarding their pastoral counseling work with parishioners, etc.;
- 3) Establishing over the next few years a network of mental health providers throughout the North Carolina Conference who understand the particular stresses of clergy families and can provide counseling/psychotherapy for them upon referral;
- 4) Planning/providing continuing education programs designed to enhance assessment, counseling and referral skills of our clergy.

During the year 2002, more than 200 pastors and members of their families have utilized the CCCS. There are no fees for these services since the Annual Conference funds this program to provide support for our clergy. Ms. Moorman provides assistance with a wide range of personal, family, congregation-related and other professional issues which frequently arise in the practice of ministry. Those who have used the Service include pastors serving churches throughout the Conference as well as those in appointments beyond the local church.

A policy of strict confidentiality guards the privacy of each person who contacts the Service or seeks consultation, counseling/psychotherapy, or referral. No information is divulged to anyone, including this Commission, the Bishop or the Cabinet, concerning individuals who utilize these services. In order for information to be released concerning anyone's contact with the Service, that person must give written authorization prior to such release. This is extremely important in our itinerant appointment system, and Ms. Moorman adheres to this policy closely. As Director, she is not responsible to the Bishop or the Cabinet, but rather is responsible only to the Annual Conference through this Commission.

The office is located at 2804 Montgomery Street in a Durham residential community which is easily accessible from Interstate routes 40 and 85. If you wish further information, would like to consult with the Director, or make an appointment for an office visit, please call the toll-free number 866-440-4200 or the local number 919-402-4200.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has as its primary responsibility the assisting of any clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference. Changes in conference relationship may occur in any of the following ways: 1) discontinuation, 2) leave of absence, 3) retirement, 4) sabbatical leave, 5) maternity/paternity leave, 6) family leave, 7) termination of conference relationship (surrender of credentials), 8) honorable location.

The Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in conference relationship upon the request of that person, or upon request of the Cabinet or the Board of Ordained Ministry. The committee attempts to determine what is appropriate in each case by posing questions, offering counsel and providing support. The committee then discusses the request and acts upon it by making a recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In any event, the person requesting the change and the Conference Relations Committee acting on the request must follow the requirements in The Book of Discipline.

The Book of Discipline provides specific guidelines applying to each of the categories of conference membership. All those persons in the various categories of conference membership (other than the effective relationship) should remember to familiarize themselves with, and adhere to, the disciplinary guidelines which apply to that category. The Committee on Conference Relations issues a yearly reminder of these guidelines through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting. Following the appropriate guidelines is particularly important for clergy on leave of absence; for these persons, exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is held. The Conference Relations Committee would take this opportunity to reiterate that pastors on leave of absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (both geographical and membership bounds) of that charge conference.

Every Spring (since 1987) the Conference Relations Committee has hosted a luncheon for those who will be retiring from the North Carolina Annual Conference at the June session of that year. At this luncheon, the retirees and their spouses are informed about various matters relating to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension benefits. This year's retirement luncheon was held at St. Luke United Methodist Church in Goldsboro on Tuesday, May 13, 2003.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 2000 Book of Discipline, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education and spiritual growth throughout their careers, including carefully developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational and spiritual growth activities." The Discipline further states that, "In most cases the ordained ministers' continuing education and spiritual growth program should allow for such leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with their charges or other agencies to which they are appointed as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of The Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all clergy and diaconal ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. In The 2000 Book of Discipline it states, "There are professional responsibilities that elders are expected to fulfill and that represent a fundamental part of their accountability and a primary basis for their continued eligibility for annual appointment. Growth in vocational competence and effectiveness through continuing formation is expected of conference members."

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are “organized,” “competent leadership,” and “clearly defined goals and objectives.” By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered “continuing education”; e.g., degree programs, recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar, or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) it sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) it establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) it seeks to insure their availability.

1. Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

2. Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

3. Insuring their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing education programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education.

The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the Local Church:

1. Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

2. Provides study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time.

3. Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Clergy: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution, and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of conference apportionments. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, conference staff positions, district superintendencies, Conference Evangelists, and conference-related agencies and institutions, retired supply, and Extension Ministry categories C and D (with total funding for all category C and D applications being no more than $1500) are eligible for grants from Conference funds provided:

1. The program does not lead to advancement from one level of Conference relationship to another.

2. The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.

3. The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal.

4. The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish chairperson, and district superintendent.

Limits to Conference Funds: Note: The 2004 budget will provide a total of $20,000.00 to cover individual continuing education seminars. Because of the limited funds available, applicants are asked to first utilize the funds provided by their local church prior to requesting conference support.

1. The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $400.00.
2. For a one CEU event, no more than $150; a two CEU event, $300; a three CEU event, a maximum of $400 if the cost of the event merits it.
3. The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least ONE Continuing Education Unit.
4. Grants for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) can be given when the CPE program offers the required CEU credits. No more than $400 per CPE unit will be granted. Grants for CPE are given only for non-degree programs.
5. Holy Land Trips - a grant according to the current policy may be made once in a pastor's career, provided funding is available.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1. The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the clergy or diaconal minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation or other appropriate time.
2. Clergy shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to the Office of Ministerial Relations.
3. It is the responsibility of each participant to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

ENLISTMENT, COMMITTEE ON

A simple look at the ages and faces of clergy in The United Methodist Church helps all to understand the truth of the statistical projections indicating a tremendous loss of clergy through retirement over the next eight to ten years. The primary concern of the Committee on Enlistment is to raise the consciousness of our constituency within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference so that identification and enlistment of ordained ministers is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of our church. In keeping with this goal the Committee on Enlistment can provide guidance and encouragement in the process of clergy enlistment. However, the primary responsibility for identifying youth, young adults, and second career adults who need to answer God's call upon their lives falls upon local church pastors, laity in the local churches, and campus ministers.

All too frequently, persons place God's call to the ministry behind economic or security concerns. Sometimes others that are close to that person are more aware of their calling than the person themselves. The role of individuals and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees in local churches is to confirm the claim of God upon those that are called and direct them to their local church pastors, District Superintendents, and District Committees on Ministry.

During each even-numbered year, the denomination offers an event designed to help persons who are "exploring" a call to ministry. The 2004 Exploration event is being planned and will be announced at a later date. The Exploration weekend is designed to help one explore the call to ministry, discover one's giftedness for ministry and ways in which to fulfill the call.

There are other spiritual encounters that have been helpful to persons defining a call to ministry. Disciple Bible Study and Emmaus Walk events have awakened and provided opportunities to hear and respond to God's call in one's life.

The Committee on Enlistment encourages all pastors and committed laity to assist God in facilitating the process of discovery. To assist those whom Christ has called into His service is a high and holy commitment.

Committee on Enlistment

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, COMMISSION ON

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry seeks to interpret and promote the United Methodist ministries in the North Carolina Conference as it pertains to the work of our Methodist-related institutions of higher learning—Duke University in Durham, Louisburg College in Louisburg, Methodist College in Fayetteville, Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount and the unique relationship we uphold with Bennett College in Greensboro, a historically black United Methodist-related women's college in the Western North Carolina Conference. We welcome this year Dr. Johnetta Cole, known as one of America's great leaders and educators, as the 14th president of Bennett College and Dr. Reginald W. Ponder as the 25th president at Louisburg College—the oldest chartered two-year, church-related, co-educational college in the nation.

The Wesleyan heritage in the academy reaches far beyond the walls of our Methodist-related institutions. The State Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry oversees the management of seventeen campus ministry programs for the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference in a shared partnership at the following non-Methodist related institutions: Salem College, Wake Forest University and Winston-Salem State University in Winston-Salem; UNC-Charlotte and Central Piedmont Community College in Charlotte; Western Carolina University in Cullowhee; North A&T State University and UNC-Greensboro in Greensboro; Duke University Chapel and North Carolina Central University in Durham; UNC-Wilmington; North Carolina State University, Peace College and Meredith College in Raleigh; UNC-Pembroke; UNC-Chapel Hill; and East Carolina University in Greenville. Our 2003 operating budget of $1,049,470 supports the works of priestly and pastoral presence on college campuses, spiritual formation and Christian nurture to college students, faculty, and staff and property maintenance. Domestic and international mission trips, spiritual retreats, weekly bible studies and worship services sustain and empower the work of Christian discipleship on college campuses across the state. We are particularly proud of our "Touch Africa Too" program which last summer sent four students, a college chaplain and a campus minister to Africa University to explore how we can share in ministry in our respective campuses.

To better serve the North Carolina Conference as interpreters of the work in campus ministry, the Commission continues to work with Hunter-Kemper Consulting, Inc. to foster collaborative work through Wesley Foundation local boards, campus ministers and the Commission. The heart of the consultative work is a process that calls campus ministers, state commissioners and local boards to develop a vision and mission that lays a strong foundation for spiritual formation, organizational and financial development and sustaining pastoral excellence for years to come.

The United Methodist commitment to higher education and campus ministry is girded by continued prayers of the local church, scholarships and endowments, and the gift of student recruitment to our Methodist-related schools as the college of choice in the local church.

Regina Henderson, Chairperson

ITINERANT CLERGY MOVING EXPENSE, COMMITTEE ON

The Itinerant Clergy Moving Expense Committee met to study moving expense needs and policies.

The Committee makes the following recommendations.

- I. Eligibility
 - A. Pastors of local churches continuing under appointment to local churches within the Conference, district superintendents, and Conference ministerial staff whose salaries are paid from the Conference treasurer's office.
 - B. Pastors in section I.A. who become Conference Evangelists upon moving from an appointment to new residence. Their moving expense to return to any of the above categories will also be paid.
 - C. Pastors in section I.A. who retire from serving appointment or who assume approved incapacity leave or return into active service from approved incapacity leave.
 - D. Widows or widowers of clergy in section I.A. upon moving from place of appointment to new residence.
 - E. Pastors moving into an appointment in the North Carolina Conference to assume full-time or student appointments under section I.A.
 - F. Interim Supply pastors
 - G. Pastors being appointed to leave of absence are entitled to moving expense for one leave of absence.
 - H. Persons who are called to active military duty will be entitled to moving expense at the time of call up, if need be, and at the time of return, if need be, if not covered by the military, with substantiation of the military orders.
 - I. Persons moving who are not defined above will not be eligible to make claim.
- II. Payment of Claims
 - A. All reimbursements must be substantiated with paid receipts for actual moving expenses. All reimbursements must be for expenses which are deductible for income tax purposes according to Internal Revenue code, Section 217, non-taxable fringe benefits. Payment will be granted to all who are eligible to make claims as follows:
 1. Active itinerant clergy in section I.A., I.B., I.E., I.F., I.G. and I.H. (except retiring clergy, widows, widowers, and clergy couples) will receive reimbursement of costs up to $1,500.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expense.
 2. Retiring itinerant clergy, widows, or widowers will receive reimbursement of costs up to $2,200.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. The retirement amount may be granted upon request when taking incapacity leave in lieu of receiving the retirement benefit at retirement.

3. Itinerant clergy couples will receive reimbursement of costs up to $1,750.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. If only one member of the clergy couple is re-appointed, section II.A.1. will apply.
- B. Travel: Mileage is reimbursed at the standard IRS rate for moving expense deductions. This rate may be paid per mile per vehicle for a single trip to move each vehicle to the new residence. If a vehicle is used to move household goods, i.e., in lieu of a moving company, additional trips may be reimbursed as necessary. The per trip mileage will be computed from appointment to appointment, or from the Conference boundary to the appointment, or from the appointment to the residence/Conference boundary (in case of retirement), whichever is less. Either the mileage as described above or actual out of pocket expenses for gas, oil, etc, may be reimbursed from the Conference boundary.
- C. IRS guidelines require that moving expense reimbursements be reported on a W-2. Based on recommendation from legal counsel and their consultations with the Internal Revenue Service, we recommend that the W-2 be issued by the local church. The Conference Treasurer will provide to the local church all moving expense information to be reported on the W-2. The Conference Treasurer will make payment to the new local church appointment. The new local church will pay the clergy and include the moving expense on the W-2 that they issue to the pastor at the end of the year. In absence of a new appointment, payment will be made to and reported by the old appointment. The Conference treasurer will make this payment as soon as the district superintendents have received the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist properly signed along with all appropriate receipts to substantiate expenses. This will fulfill the 2000 Discipline, ¶12532.4, which states "The chairperson of the board of trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance." Moving expense funds will be withheld by the Conference treasurer if the district superintendent determines that the parsonage was inadequately cleaned or was damaged beyond normal wear and tear. If an inspection by the district superintendent and the pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee reveals monetary needs for cleaning or repairs, or for having the fuel tank filled, the remaining balance of the moving expense due said pastor shall be made payable to the respective district to pay for needed cleaning or repairs. If the district superintendent or the moving pastor is NOT in agreement with said pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee, the superintendent may request the arbitration committee of the clergy living committee to inspect the parsonage involved and give an impartial recommendation.
- D. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to $600.00 to eligible itinerant clergy to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendent. Those receiving an advance must substantiate their expenditures, and any money that is left over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer. All advance payments shall be included in W-2 information provided to the local church by the Conference Treasurer for inclusion on the W-2.
- E. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district, or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.
- F. Reimbursable expenses include the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, boats, etc., moving household and personal goods, travel as defined in II.B., lodging, packing, crating, in-transit storage and insurance, labor costs, and any other expense necessary to physically move household items. Expenses which are not reimbursable include meals, purchase of household items, or any other item not reasonable or necessary for the move.

- G. The request for moving expense reimbursement must be received in the Treasurer's Office no later than four months following the date of the move.
- H. Reimbursement will be considered a qualified, non-taxable fringe benefit not subject to income and self-employment tax when:
 - Your move is 50 or more miles from the old appointment to the new appointment and
 - Your new appointment is full time for at least 39 weeks during the first 12 months at the new location.

If your appointment does not meet the above conditions, then the reimbursement will be reported as taxable for both income and employment tax. However, if your reimbursement is treated as taxable income, an additional stipend in the amount of 20% of the taxable income portion will be provided. The maximum stipend will be no more than 20% of the applicable limit stated in section II.A.

III. Review Committee

- A. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference treasurer, and the director of Ministerial Relations and the chair of the Moving Expense Committee.
- B. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

LAITY, COMMISSION ON

We invite churches to give input to the needs for resources and training for ministry to, with and by children.

A Pastor/Lay Leader Training event, "Preparing God's People", was held on March 8, 2003 at Highland United Methodist Church in Raleigh and on March 9, 2003 at Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church in Greenville. Christine Harman, Director of Discipleship Development in the Kentucky Conference, was the leader. The training covered a year-round process of spiritual leadership development; the process for identifying, developing, deploying, evaluating, and monitoring Christian spiritual leadership; new methods for helping disciples know and understand their spiritual gifts; the meaning of their gifts and their implications for gift-oriented ministry; using their gifts in the unique ministry that God has planned for them; training for gift counselors; and, re-encountering God's call for lay ministry. It is our hope that this vital training is being implemented in all the local churches who participated. If your church was unable to participate, contact us at the email address or phone number below and we will try to help your church get started! Remember Jesus' call in The Great Commission. Our main focus should be to "make disciples"!

Tuesday, June 3, 2003 at 4:00 p.m. the Laity Report will be an Order of the Day at Annual Conference. Following laity reports we will recognize the Outstanding Lay Ministry of the Year. Each district had the opportunity to submit a nominee and the ministry selected will receive $1,000 grant from an Endowment Fund left by the late Roy Turnage, a former Conference Lay Leader.

The 2003 Laity Banquet will be held on June 3, 2003 at 5:00 p.m. at Annual Conference. All lay persons are invited and they are encouraged to invite their pastors as well. The theme is "Partners in Ministry...All God's People--Telling the Story--BEING the Church in the World". The speaker for the banquet will be Vickie Sigmon, Director of Open Arms Community in Winston-Salem. You will not want to miss her powerful message. Music will be provided by Jim Hewitt, D.S. from the Virginia Conference and members of his band. Jim Hewitt artfully blends his mastery of the guitar, gift of storytelling, and theological insight to create Christian music from a different perspective. Jim's strong lyrical attention to matters of faith, scripture, and tradition backed by a multi-talented band offers the listener

Christian music that is transforming. In an effort to celebrate the outstanding lay ministries going on in our conference we will have a display by each of the District nominees for Outstanding Lay Ministry of the Year. Following the banquet, we will gather in the Auditorium for worship with Dr. Zan Holmes, of Disciple Bible Study, and music by Cynthia Wilson Hollins.

This is an important year in the life of Methodism. June 17, 2003 marks the 300th anniversary of the birth of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism. As we consider ways to celebrate and remember, may we never forget the way John Wesley took his ministry to the streets...outside the walls of the church. May we be reminded that "the world was his parish"and, may we seek ways to answer Jesus' call to "go into all the world". We have a wealth of resources such as Disciple Bible Study, Faith Quest, Companions in Christ, Witness and many more that can help us discern God's will and God's direction for our churches as we seek to reach beyond the walls to win persons to Christ.

Remember to continue to develop our Theme for the 2001-2004 Quadrennium:

"Partners in Ministry...All God's People...

2001 Setting the Table

2002 Welcoming the Stranger

2003 Telling the Story

2004 Singing the Song and Living the Life <>< >>

Jeanne Rouse, Conference Lay Leader

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

The Ministerial Education Fund (MEF) is one of the most "unsung blessings" of our connectional support! In addition to being the underlying support to our seminaries, it provides invaluable support for the following ministries: Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry for programs they provide for clergy and diaconal ministers; scholarships for students studying for the ordained and diaconal ministry in the 13 outstanding United Methodist seminaries and in non-United Methodist seminaries approved by the Division of Ordained Ministry and taught by seminary professors and conference leaders throughout the United Methodist Church; Continuing Education; Course of Study Schools (more than 2,300 people are involved in 12 Course of Study Schools); research and special programs related to candidacy and enlistment; pastoral care initiatives; clergy women concerns; racial and ethnic concerns; spiritual formation; testing and evaluation; training of boards of ordained ministry; international theological education; jurisdictional block grants; supervision issues and Dempster Fellowships. All of these ministries are nurtured by money from the Ministerial Education Fund.

The general policies for the North Carolina Annual Conference's portion of the Ministerial Education Fund (25% of MEF apportionments) are set by the Board of Ordained Ministry. Brochures with guidelines and policies for the MEF scholarships are available from the Office of Ministerial Relations.

Some interesting facts regarding MEF are:

- Hundreds of millions of dollars have been? given by local congregations to the MEF since 1968.
- More than twenty-five percent (25%) of that amount from the MEF? has supported conference board services in each annual conference since 1970.
- MEF supports? Duke Divinity School, which for over 77 years has prepared men and women for leadership in the church as clergy and laity.

Other institutions supported by Ministerial Education Funds are: Boston University School of Theology, Boston, MA; Candler School of Theology at Emory University, Atlanta, GA; The Theological School at Drew University, Madison, NJ; Iliff School of Theology, Denver, CO; Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, GA; Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, Evanston, IL; Methodist Theological School in Ohio, Delaware, OH; Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX; Saint Paul School of Theology, Kansas City, MS; Claremont School of Theology, Claremont, CA; United Theological Seminary, Dayton, OH; Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, DC.

ACTIVITY OF THE MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND:

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS FELLOWSHIP

The mission statement for the Christian Educators Fellowship, The United Methodist Church, states, "Believing that called, committed, and equipped leaders enable and empower the church's teaching and learning ministry for the formation of faithful disciples in today's world, Christian Educators Fellowship, The United Methodist Church exists to nurture and support professional Christians educators and persons who have responsibility for the many expressions of educational ministries." The North Carolina Chapter of CEF seeks to be faithful to this mission by offering monthly programs with practical insights on a variety of topics related to educational ministry. Meetings during this conference year have included a programs on "Nuts and Bolts" of Christian Education, "Know When to Refer" by Jane Clark Moorman, Director of Conference Counseling and Consultation Services, Sharing from the workshops attended by our members at the National CEF conference in Norfolk, A Celebration of the 300th Anniversary of the birth of John Wesley, A Little Lenten Discipline, and a sharing of favorite books in the fields of personal and professional growth. In addition, a two-day spiritual formation retreat was held at Bergland Retreat Center. The program, "Sacramental Spirituality-Discovering Personal Meaning in the Sacraments", was lead by Dr. Gayle Felton.

NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION

On October 14-16, 2002, 515 clergy gathered for the annual Convocation and Pastors' School at Duke Divinity School. The event focused on the theme "Remembering Who We Are: Renewing the Spiritual Life" and featured strong lectures, seminars and worship services. The James A. Gray Lectures were presented by Richard B. Hays, George Washington Ivey Professor of New Testament at Duke Divinity School and author of The Moral Vision of the New Testament: Community, Cross, New Creation, one of the 100 most important religious books of the twentieth century according to Christianity Today. Popular author Roberta C. Bondi, professor of church history at Candler School of Theology, presented the Franklin S. Hickman lectures. "J.R.R. Tolkien on the Communal Character of the Spiritual Life" was the title of the keynote lecture presented by Ralph C. Wood, University professor of theology and literature at Baylor University.

The convocation preachers were Timothy W. Whitaker, resident bishop of the Florida Area of the United Methodist Church and Arnetta E. Beverly, district superintendent of the Northeast District of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. Seventeen different continuing education seminars enrolled a record 392 participants. The seminars included Holy Friendships: Sustaining Pastoral Ministry, Spiritual Practices of Daily Living, Story as Spiritual Formation and Preaching from the Later New Testament Epistles.

Thee 2003 Convocation and Pastors' School will be held October 13-15, and will focus on the theme "Forming Christian Disciples." Well-known preacher and writer Richard Lischer, the James T. and Alice Mead Cleland Professor of Preaching, at Duke Divinity School, will serve as the James A. Gray lecturer. The Franklin S. Hickman lectures will be shared by Michael Curry, bishop of the North Carolina Diocese of the Episcopal Church, and Adam Hamilton, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Resurrection in Leeward, Kansas. Christine Pohl, professor of church and society, Asbury Theological Seminary, will present a keynote address. Preachers for the event will be Bishop Curry and George Mason, pastor of Wilshire Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas.

A detailed brochure will be available from Duke Divinity School later this summer. Individuals are encouraged to contact the center for continuing education for more information (www.divinity.duke.edu, email div-conted@duke.edu, phone 888-845-4216)

OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES, COMMITTEE ON

The committee seeks to be the focal point for aging issues which impact the program and ministry of the local church and the Annual Conference as a whole. Our society is an aging society with more people over 65 living today than have existed to this point in time. Some 12 percent in the state of North Carolina, totaling over one million people and still growing, are over 65 years of age. The traditional ways of ministry to and with older adults are fast changing, in light of the very active younger older adults who are either working or seeking challenging ministry opportunity through the church. The new emphasis is on empowering older adults into ministry. Towards this goal, the committee has promoted the following services and learning programs:

1. The Conference Web Page now offers a link for Older Adult Ministry and it may be reached: <http://nccumc.org/nccef/OlderAdultMins.htm>
2. An Idea Bank will maintain a list of active ministries of local churches with older adults, which could be shared with the churches who are seeking older adult ministry organization and programs in a local church. It would be a practical how-to-do program resource.
3. A Speaker's Bureau has been formed so the committee can offer churches a list of names of people who could speak on issues pertaining to Older Adults.
4. A Resource Library is being maintained in the Conference Audio-Visual Library for use by local churches.

5. The Norman T. Allers Academy on Older Adult Ministries is a certification program established by the Older Adult Association of the Southeastern Jurisdiction to provide training and credentials for those in older adult ministry. Clergy and lay persons are being encouraged to take advantage of this certification program.
6. To partner with other conference groups and agencies in the sponsorship of the education and training of clergy and lay persons in the spiritual development for the fourth quarter of life.
7. To raise the consciousness of how, where and why the church ought to be involved in ministry with, to and by older adults. Aging challenges the church in its ministry. Let us be involved in intentional ministry.

Daniel P. Jones, Chairperson

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

The North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry is pleased and privileged to present to the clergy session of the North Carolina Annual Conference our report for 2003.

Our board is a strong, representative body from the clergy and laity of this Annual Conference wrestling constantly with its responsibilities outlined in The Book of Discipline 2000 (§632). These duties require the board to exercise strong care in its examination of candidates for ordination in a way which is both fair and diligent. The Board also seeks always to encourage and sustain those in the process and to provide resources for growth for those already involved with ministry to local churches and other places of mission.

To provide this report, your Board of Ordained Ministry members have given nine (9) full days in meetings and interviews along with innumerable times for committee assignments. All of this is summarized in the names and recommendations found in this submission of our work for your approval.

The duties of the Board of Ordained Ministry include:

- 1) To assume the primary responsibility for the enlistment of ordained clergy, with due regard for the inclusive nature of the Church. It provides guidance for these persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.
- 2) To examine all applicants as to their fitness for ordained, commissioned, licensed, or consecrated ministry and their election as: a) Diaconal Ministers, b) Local Pastors, c) Associate Members, d) Probationary Members, and e) Full Members of the Annual Conference.
- 3) To interview and report recommendations concerning: a) Candidates for Commissioning b) Students to be appointed to attend school, c) Candidates for ordination as Deacon, and d) Candidates for ordination as Elder.
- 4) To interview applicants and make recommendations concerning changes in ministerial relationships: Leaves of Absence, Retirement, Sabbatical Leaves, Incapacity Leaves, Less-than-Full-time appointments, and Readmission to or the termination of conference membership.
- 5) To provide support services for the ordained minister's career development, including personal and career counseling, continuing education, assistance in preparation for retirement, and matters pertaining to ministerial morale.
- 6) To provide a means of evaluating the effectiveness of the clergy in the Annual Conference.
- 7) To interpret the high ethical standards of ministry as set forth in The Book of Discipline 2000, and to study matters pertaining to character.

8) To administer the portion of the Ministerial Education Fund for use by the Annual Conference.

Members of the North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry have worked diligently to fulfill their duties!

This year we are pleased to report that (13) persons were elected to Probationary Membership and commissioned on the Elder Track; (3) persons were elected to Probationary Membership and commissioned on the Deacon Track; (5) persons were elected as Deacons in Associate Membership (under the 1992 Discipline); (1) person was elected for ordination as a Deacon in Full Connection; (5) persons were elected for ordination as Elders in Full Connection (moving from Probationary Membership and Deacon's Orders); (6) persons were elected for ordination as Elder in Full Connection (moving from Probationary Membership under the 2000 Discipline).

This year's retirement class includes (10) Members in Full Connection; (2) Associate Members and (2) Local Pastors; (1) Full Member retired in the interim (since the 2001 Annual Conference). We are deeply grateful for their love, commitment, and service to the North Carolina Annual Conference. Many opportunities continue to open for persons in this field of service!

Please note that various committee reports follow this introduction and are significant for the various areas of concern they address. All of this material, as well as our supportive services during the year, have been provided through the Office of Ministerial Relations under the leadership of Dr. Paul L. Leeland, Robbie W. Barrett, and Linda L. Bourey. We are indebted to these individuals for their excellent work and dedication to the Ordained Ministry of our Annual Conference.

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED ON OR BEFORE JUNE, 1988

Local pastors in progress or serving prior to 1988 must complete at least the five-year Course of Study.

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED FROM 1989-1993

The Board requires that ministers having completed the basic five-year Course of Study continue to attend the Course of Study School in the summer, enrolling in at least four years of Advanced Studies during any six-year period. These courses, offered on a seminary level, would increase the competency of our Local Pastors (1980).

OR

It is required that they complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED IN 1994, 1995, 1996

It is required that they complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP (WITH DEACON'S ORDERS)

Each candidate must complete the following seminary level courses to be eligible for interview, effective June 1998:

1. A course in preaching that includes a practicum, laboratory, or field experience in the preparation, delivery, and evaluation of sermons.

2. A course in public worship that includes the theory, theology, and practice of planning and leading public worship.

ELDER IN FULL CONNECTION

Attention is called to the course requirements contained in ¶326(3)a of The 2000 Book of Discipline. Candidates must complete the Methodism courses PRIOR to the interview:

1. United Methodist Polity
2. United Methodist Theology and Doctrine
3. A History of Methodism

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

Since 1971 the Committee on Pastoral Care has served the North Carolina Annual Conference by providing financial aid for confidential professional counseling and marriage and family enrichment. The Committee is comprised of five members from the Board of Ordained Ministry (one of whom serves as chair); one representative from the Conference Clergy Living Committee; one representative from the Clergy Partners Association; one Pastoral Counselor. Funding for grants and expenses of the committee is included in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the awarding of grants is dependent upon the availability of funds.

Financial aid is available to both clergy and diaconal ministers and their families. The financial grants, of up to $400.00 per family per calendar year, are provided to cover one-half of the cost of counseling sessions. Ministers under the NC Conference health insurance program should review the Health Care Benefits for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Pastoral Care Grants should not exceed 100% of fees charged.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events, including those focusing on the needs of single as well as married ministers. Grants of up to $100 per individual, or $200 per family or couple are available. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials, and verification of participation should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Whereas, conference clergy and diaconal ministers and their families are eligible for grants, a family is defined as dependents of the minister living in the minister's home or parsonage, including spouse, children, parents, and grandparents. Children of the minister are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home through the age of 22.

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

1. Clergy who are members of the NC Annual Conference whose status is active, retired or on leave in accordance with ¶¶ 351, 352, or 353 of The Book of Discipline (2000), OR any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent.
2. Diaconal Ministers, or candidates who are serving a local church, members of the NC Annual Conference, and whose status is active, retired, or on leave.

Special circumstances:

Grant eligibility continues for two years for persons who have terminated their relationship with The United Methodist Church, for surviving spouses of ministers, and for former spouses of eligible persons.

COUNSELORS AND THERAPISTS WHO QUALIFY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Only counselors or therapists who meet the following criteria qualify to receive grants from the Committee on Pastoral Care:

Psychiatrist: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification, North Carolina License;

Psychologist (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologist, North Carolina License;

Pastoral Counselor: Member, Fellow, or Diplomat of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, Inc. (AAPC)

Counselor: Clinical Member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT), North Carolina Certified Marriage and Family Therapists, North Carolina Licensed Professional Counselors (LPC)

Social Worker: Member Association of Certified Social Workers (ACSW)

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The counselor or therapist, at the request of the qualifying client who is receiving the counseling, is to make application for a grant to the Chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care in the following manner:

1. The counselor or therapist requests an application form and instructions from the Office of Ministerial Relations. This request should be addressed in care of the Office of Ministerial Relations, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.
2. Once the application and instructions for a Pastoral Care Grant are received by the counselor/therapist, and a determination is made that the client qualifies, the application should be completed and returned to the Chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care. To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members shall be assigned the same case number.
3. The counselor/therapist will receive the financial aid grant on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund to the client if the account has already been paid. Clients should request from the therapist a statement showing the amount of financial assistance received from the Pastoral Care Committee and should request the therapist to contact the Chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure if any problems arise concerning the process. The client, not the Pastoral Care Committee, is responsible for all contracts, negotiated fees, and payment of services that are provided.
4. The deadline for submitting grants is January 15 of the following year.

In 2002 the Committee on Pastoral Care granted $9,573.76 for counseling sessions. This represents 296 sessions with counselors and therapists during the calendar year. Grants were processed for 32 clients during 2002 representing 190 sessions for clergy, 5 for cleric and spouse, 61 for spouse, 37 for dependent children, and 3 for families. Of these 32 clients, 11 received the 2002 maximum of $400.00 in assistance.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND BACKGROUND CHECKS, COMMITTEE ON

The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry evaluates all prospective and continuing candidates in accordance with requirements in The Book of Discipline 2000. Those seeking to enter ordained ministry or licensed ministry undergo a comprehensive evaluation. One component of the evaluation process involves psychological testing and background investigation, conducted under the direction of the Committee on Psychological Testing and Background Checks.

Psychological testing serves two purposes: (1) It provides the individual with valuable information, feedback and guidance related to psychological health and wholeness. (2) It provides the Board of Ordained Ministry with useful information as it evaluates prospective and continuing candidates to determine their fitness, potential, and promise for fruitful and effective service in ordained and/or licensed ministry.

For several years, psychological evaluation services have been provided through a contract with Dr. Gary Brown, a retired elder from the Western North Carolina Conference. Dr. Brown has done an outstanding job in providing this service, and the Committee is indebted to him for his guidance and counsel. We regret that he will be unable to continue to serve in this capacity but are delighted for him and his wife, Ann, who have moved to Franklin, Tennessee to be closer to their family. We are, however, fortunate indeed to be able to announce that Dr. Bert Lucas, a member of St. Luke United Methodist Church in Sanford, North Carolina, will be our new conference psychologist and we welcome him.

Expenses for psychological evaluations are borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry for those persons residing within the annual conference and for those transferring into the conference when they are included with North Carolina Conference candidates for group testing.

Background checks on prospective and continuing candidates are furnished through a contract with Kroll Background America, Inc. Each background check costs $55.00 and the cost is borne by the applicant. The applicant is provided with a copy of their background check report once completed by Kroll.

The Committee on Psychological Testing and Background Checks is composed of the following persons: Philip Beaman, Ray Wittman, Clyde Denny, David Wade, Paul Phillips, Jimmy Cummings, Sue Robertson and Brigitte Morris.

Philip L Beaman, Chairperson

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

The North Carolina Conference Residency in Ordained Ministry (RIOM) program began in fulfillment of ¶417.3 of the 1984 Discipline requiring Annual Conferences to provide Counseling Elders for Probationers. Adjusting to changes in the mentoring process mandated by subsequent Disciplines, RIOM continues to provide an opportunity for probationary members to grow and find support as they live and learn through this opportunity of concentrated focus and reflection on ministerial theology and practice. Eighteen years of experience with this program have demonstrated the great value in preparing probationers for Full Conference Membership.

Special thanks are offered to the Reverend Bob Wallace, an RIOM pioneer. Bob has developed a manual for Cluster Group Leaders which has provided invaluable information to our leaders, and brought order and consistency to this significant process. An emerging group of current and future Cluster Groups leaders can be directly attributed to Bob's servant heart.

The North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry uses a “Cluster Group Model” to meet the Disciplinary requirements for providing leadership and supervision for our probationary members. Probationers meet in small “cluster” groups throughout the probationary period. These groups are arranged, as often as possible, by geographical area in order to minimize travel time and facilitate greater fellowship. Cluster leaders are Elders who, by intention, are not members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Recognizing that these cluster groups become an important source for collegiality and support, every effort is made to keep each participant in the same cluster, with the same leader, throughout the probationary period.

A candidate serving under the 2000 Discipline can complete his/her requirements for Deacon/or Elder in Full Connection within three (3) years by accepting a full-time appointment and participating in the RIOM process. The Book of Discipline provides a maximum time line of six (6) years to complete these requirements. Under this three-year probationary process, year one (Phase A) focuses on issues of Christian spirituality, while year two (Phase B) involves the shared exploration of the practice of ordained ministry. Year three (Phase C) is a time of preparation for written and oral interviews with the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry as candidates consider the Disciplinary questions for all who seek to come into Full Connection.

During the RIOM process, certain candidates may be required by the Board of Ordained Ministry to spend an additional year or more “continuing” the probationary process. A continuance does not mean the probationer has failed or that he/she does not have the gifts and grace for ministry. This continuance is better understood as an opportunity for the probationer to continue to grow in grace as they seek to answer God’s call to ordained ministry.

The RIOM committee also sponsors events aimed at sharing information helpful to candidates in their probationary process. In the past, probationers have met for an overnight retreat. A resource person selected by the Committee has led the group in exploring issues such as call to ministry, spiritual formation and practical concerns of pastoral leadership in the local church.

In September of each year, Duke Divinity School sponsors a retreat for candidates who are preparing for Full Connection interviews in the coming year. This annual seminar is led by faculty from the Divinity School and focuses on theology, worship, and pastoral concerns. Though not mandatory, we strongly recommend this time of reflection for all who are planning to come before the Board for Full Connection interviews. As a part of this seminar, participants are given the opportunity to meet with representatives from the Board of Ordained Ministry’s interview committees to discuss their preparations for the coming year and to address questions they may have.

The Residency in Ordained Ministry Committee would like to offer a word of thanks to Jeff Arthurs, Tom Loftis, Rich Greenway, Dan Earnhardt, Claire Clyburn, Ken Hall, Jr., and Bob Wallace for their service as Cluster Group Leaders during the past year. These gifted servants have enabled our Annual Conference to offer candidates an enriching and worthwhile experience of growth and reflection. We, as a committee, are committed to helping candidates for Ordained Ministry in every way possible.

Jon Strother, Chairperson

SEXUAL ETHICS SUPPORT TEAM

The Board of Ordained Ministry was asked at the 1999 Annual Conference to implement a policy on professional sexual misconduct for the North Carolina Conference. Since this time the committee was organized and implemented the policy. The present committee is comprised of the following members: Tom Holtsclaw, Doris Fox, T.R. Miller, Charles Astrike and Cynthia Powell.

The committee continued the training of sexual ethics support teams, persons available if the bishop wishes to deploy them to support persons who bring a complaint of sexual misconduct, to support persons against whom such complaints are made, and to support congregations which might be impacted by such circumstances. The careful training, coordinated by Mary Jane Wilson-Parsons, has prepared nine persons to serve as support team members.

In response to the request of the Board of Ordained Ministry in 2000, Bishop Edwards has appointed The Reverend Mary Jane Wilson-Parsons to a less-than-full-time extension ministry as Coordinator of the Sexual Ethics Concerns. Her responsibilities include: 1) Design and implement training for SEST; 2) Make recommendations to and serve on the subcommittee of the Board of Ordained Ministry as a consultant and advisor to policy decisions; 3) Coordinate each SEST response, providing supervision to team members as needed; 4) Be available to consult with the bishop or members of the Cabinet regarding any instance of alleged clergy misconduct; 5) Provide outreach and education to members of the conference regarding the Sexual Ethics Policy and the role of the response team; 6) Be responsible for staffing the toll-free Clergy Ethics Hotline. This ministry began July 1, 2000, and is funded by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Moral responsibility underlines the importance of our attention to this area of our life together. The sub-committee invites you to review the Sexual Ethics Policy (pgs. 248-250 of The Journal 1999 – note: will be reprinted in 2003 journal). The policy is also available on disk from the Conference Secretary's Office. Awareness of and fulfillment of that policy will strengthen our covenant and will offer new avenues for grace in our lives.

Thomas G. Holtsclaw, Chairperson

WORSHIP, COMMISSION ON

The goal of the Commission on Worship continues to be one of service, plan, and precise execution of outlined liturgy for the Annual Conference. The Annual Conference presented several new challenges that the Commission diligently addressed in this fiscal year. The first challenge was to witness positively to the commission presented at the 2000 General Conference in Cleveland, Ohio with the issue of "Service of Repentance for the Sin of Racism" through Reconciliation, Repentance and Forgiveness. The Commission was an integral part of the inception and planning for the Annual Conference special service through the guidance of Bishop Edwards and the cabinet. There were numerous inclusive meetings held prayerfully to incorporate this sensitive theme into the Annual Conference. It can be postulated that a favorable agreement was reached after careful debates, humble selection of participants, and God led songs and hymns selected for this spiritual program.

A second challenge was the continue advent of technology that has launched the Commission to adventure into incorporating workshops possibly for the newly "Faith We Sing" hymnal. Several workshops were scheduled conveniently for the conference and churches. The purpose was to introduce new materials, and to remind Methodists that we have a singing God filled heritage. A creative new age worship style was presented for the millennium.

A final challenge that the Commission experienced was a brief cancellation of early morning worship, because of logistics. The committee had sought many suggestions to continue this precious time of fellowship, but agreement were not favorable. Therefore, the Commission will continue to seek suggestions and comments from members in this conference for creative ideas for early morning worship.

In short, the Commission came together and faced all challenges as one and God blessed us. The Commission would like to wholeheartedly thank the past chair and former members for their vision and service. As Commission will continue to strive to bring forth creative God sent liturgy to enhance each Annual Conference worship service.

Johnnie L. Wright, Chairperson

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church states: Each church or charge shall have an organized unit of the United Methodist Men chartered and annually recertified through the General Commission on United Methodist Men (GCUMM) to provide dedicated ministry for building men spiritually and involving men in the total ministry of the church (paragraph 256).

The reason why chartering is important is because it enables the GCUMM to resource the local church, provide training for UMM leaders, coordinate men's materials and events, support UMM mission projects, as well as provide leadership in the ministry of scouting. Chartering connects each local fellowship to the district, conference, jurisdiction and GCUMM. Chartering supports a national staff of specialist in men's and scouting ministries.

Follow these steps to organize your men and to charter: 1st, get your pastor involved; 2nd, ask the pastor to call a meeting with whatever number of men that you have in order to organize; and 3rd, telephone the GCUMM for additional information and materials at (615) 340-7145 and ask for Ann Waller-Bee. The chartering fee is $50.00 per unit.

The letters EMS stands for Every Man Shares in Evangelism, Mission and Spiritual Life. This program is an annual UMM membership that supports the ministry and work of the UMM worldwide. The EMS fee is $25.00 per individual.

The North Carolina Conference UMM encourages men to participate in our conference-wide events; namely, the potato drop each year at Annual Conference; the Bishop's Dinners to promote the Ministry of Scouting—to be held 9/26/03 and 10/3/03, respectively in New Bern and Fayetteville; and our annual Fall Rally at Goldsboro's St. Paul UMC on 10/18/03. Bishop Marion Edwards will be joining us for our Fall Rally. Our Upper Room Prayer Line Ministry is available each year at Annual Conference and at our Fall Rally.

The conference and the district UMM will provide training at district leadership workshops with the approval of each district superintendent. The next Men's Congress at Purdue University has been scheduled for July 15-17, 2005.

Mack B. Parker, President

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

"Time of Your Life" is the theme for the year 2003 in Conference youth ministry. Being a Christian youth is the time of your life. I Timothy 4:12 says "Do not let anyone treat you as if you are unimportant because you are young. Instead, be an example to the believers with your words, your actions, your love, your faith, and your pure life." Jesus said in John 10:10, "I came so that everyone would have life, and have it in its fullest." This theme of time of your life is also expressed in the mission statement of Conference youth ministry: to walk with youth in their journey to know Christ by creating an environment in which youth can experience Christian communion to hear the Gospel, to know God's love and to respond in faith by loving and serving others...for in all of this we are making disciples of Jesus Christ. Through local church youth ministry with a variety of faces and programs and service projects; through districts offering opportunities for youth; with close to 7800 youth and adults participating in Conference youth events; and with an Episcopal Initiative that calls the church to reach out and meet the needs of young people we are indeed rejoicing in a time of our lives!

Youth (and adults) from across the Conference have participated in ten events over the year: Confirmation Celebration, PK Getaway, Global Vision, Kaleidoscope, Rally Day, Appalachian Trail Hike, Summer Breakaway, ACS-Annual Conference Session for Youth, Youth Mission Workteam and Pilgrimage. The Confirmation Celebration offers an experience of the connectional church to those in confirmation classes from local churches. PK Getaway was a new retreat weekend offered exclusively for the teenage children of pastors in the Conference (held every other year in even number years). Global Vision included a visit to New York City and a seminar to explore issues of cultural sensitivity. Kaleidoscope is a Conference youth event that offers a spiritual life retreat for middle school youth. Rally Day was a bright and sunny spring afternoon that celebrated the place of youth within the life of the church. The Appalachian Trail Hike proved to be a mountaintop experience of God for those involved. Summer Breakaway and ACS offered times of worship and sharing experiences of fellowship and faith in small and large groups. Our youth mission workteam to Peru in 2003 and Costa Rica in other years is providing an avenue for Christian service. Pilgrimage (with 5900 in attendance-setting another record) in the Crown Coliseum with moving messages of invitation to Christian discipleship from Norman Coleman and music by Chris Hughes and our own NC Conference youth will be a Pilgrimage not soon forgotten. In addition to these events, Exploration is a new event offered with the Western NC Conference for senior high youth and college age young adults exploring Christian vocation and a call to ministry (held every other year on the odd number years).

Youth Service Fund continues to be a avenue of mission for United Methodist Youth. Grants to such ministries with youth as Disciple Bible Outreach (Bibles for Dillon Youth Development Center), Conduit Day Camp, "Super Saturday" at Trinity UMC in Rockingham, the Junior Grade Senate of All God's Children UMC, Trinity UMC-Wilmington child care center, Positive Attitude Youth Center in Burlington, Seeds of Peace in New York, Appalachian Service Project, Camp Providence in South Carolina, Community Organic Gardens in Mississippi, Alaska Child Services and the Society of St Andrew are possible only in as much as local churches support and contribute to Youth Service Fund. Youth Service Fund is money raised by youth and spent by youth to benefit youth. While the contributions to YSF at Conference youth events is very good, more support from local churches is needed to reach our goal of $15000 a year.

We rejoice in the vision that local church youth ministries are living toward in areas of mission, service, study, outreach, fellowship and spiritual growth. We celebrate and give thanks to the Annual Conference and all the people within local churches giving support and encouragement to youth ministry. We pray for God's guidance and blessing as we seek to find and live with Jesus in our lives.

RESOURCE MINISTRIES CIRCLE

TRUSTEES, CONFERENCE BOARD OF

The Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference is charged with responsibilities vital to the mission and ministry of the Conference as defined in paragraphs 2512 - 2516 of the Book of Discipline. These include holding legal title and managing Conference property; receiving and holding bequests and donations; receiving and managing closed or abandoned churches and other property; recommending action to the Annual Conference regarding sale, lease or acquisition of property to serve the Conference interests and mission; and intervening to protect Annual Conference interests.

PROPERTY DISPOSITION OVER THE LAST YEAR

For the past four years, the Trustees have investigated the re-location of the Conference headquarters into a new and more useable building, easily accessible to the entire Conference. Based upon action by the Annual Conference, the Trustees proceeded with the purchase of the Greenfield Park property in east Raleigh last July. The purchase price was $1,000,000 and the Trustees are confident that this is a good investment for our future needs. Details of this are included in the section on the United Methodist Building.

During the course of the year, we have sold three closed church sites, the former Hope United Methodist Church in Bonlee, Holy Trinity Church in Greenville, and St. John United Methodist Property in Wilmington. Through these sales some $260,000 was made available for church extension in the Sanford, Greenville and Wilmington districts through these actions.

After very careful study over the past two years, the Trustees concluded it is less expensive to provide housing allowances for Conference staff than to maintain parsonages.

Four houses were disposed of in the Raleigh area. The proceeds were invested in our parsonage account, which now totals some one million dollars. The earnings on this account offset the cost of housing allowances and provide a source of funding should the Conference decide to provide parsonages for staff in the future. Currently, the Board of Trustees is managing two houses, one staff parsonage, located on Cartwright Drive, and the Episcopal residence.

FREDERICK AND CLOSS PEACE WARDLAW BEQUEST

Last August, the Trustees were notified of a bequest to be received from the estate of Frederick and Closs Peace Wardlaw in the form of some fourteen acres with dwelling on the Virginia shoreline of Kerr Lake. This was left for the purpose of providing a retreat or renewal location for clergy of the Conference. Extensive investigation has been conducted over the past year related to regulations, zoning and potential usages with local authorities and the Corps of Engineers. The Trustees concluded with the concurrence of the trustees of the estate that the best course was disposition of the property and investment in a fund to be used at a later time that honors the testamentary language and the intent of the original bequest.

THE UNITED METHODIST BUILDING

The goal of the trustees is to obtain a building suitable to the needs of the Conference and its staff without engaging in a major capital campaign or encumbering the Annual Conference with debt service. This implies utilizing the major assets we have, such as the property on Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, to best advantage. At some point, the Trustees will be prepared to present a plan that will seek permission from the Conference to either sell the site on Glenwood or use its value to make possible a move to Greenfield.

In light of the current weak economy and soft office market, our progress in moving forward with the planning and ultimate construction of a new building in Greenfield has slowed. Our consultants tell us that the office market is weak throughout the Triangle. The good news that our headquarters building has remained fully occupied with rent paying tenants and we are maximizing our cash flow.

We will continue to analyze the disposition of the existing building. We have determined that a sale of the building, given the current market conditions and the ultimate date of our move being question, is not a viable option in the short term. Our original goal in this process was to sell the existing building for as much as possible, invest those funds in a new building on our land in Greenfield, and occupy the building with little or no debt.

Also be aware that our existing building will continue to need maintenance while it serves as our headquarters. It will need a new roof in the next few years and it continues to need repairs and renovations because of its age. We know that this cost will only escalate.

We have made the decision to continue to leasing the excess space in the building to outside tenants on as long a lease term as possible in order to preserve our options. This will also help if we stay longer than we expected and if we move forward with a sale of the property in the coming years.

The Conference must be assured that the Trustees are exploring all options. We continue to evaluate these over the next several years in terms of an outright sale as well as a joint venture with a developer. We welcome your comments and guidance in our work.

CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

As a part of the Resources Ministries Circle, the Conference Staff Relations Committee confers and counsels with the Conference Connectional Ministries staff to continue and enhance effective ministry. In consultation with the Executive Director, the Committee makes recommendations to and meets at least annually with the staff, leads filling of staff positions and sets staff salaries. It also considers and recommends changes in other areas of staff support and concerns such as vacation, sick leave, housing, continuing education and other compensations. It functions as a Personnel Committee for the Administrative Assistants in the Methodist Building.

The Committee is composed of nine voting members (four lay persons and five clergy including two District Superintendents). Ex-officio members without vote are the Resident Bishop, Lay Leader, President of CFA, Executive Director of Conference Connectional Ministries, Director of Ministerial Relations/Administrative Assistant to the Bishop, Conference Treasurer/Business Manager, Conference Secretary and United Methodist Foundation Director.

Actions taken since the 2002 Conference are the recognition of the excellent work of our new Executive Director of Connectional Ministries, Rev. Charles Michael Smith, and our new Director of Multicultural and Social Ministries, Rev. Jesse Brunson, and the recommendation of 3.5% raise for conference staff effective January 1, 2003 based upon a survey of businesses, churches and non-profit agencies. Conference salaries are based upon many factors such as performance, experience, job requirements, and length of service. Each person's salary is carefully determined and employees are asked not to discuss their salary with other staff members.

Executive Director Charles Smith has found a dedicated Conference staff and is pleased with their cohesiveness. A luncheon of appreciation was held for the staff whose Staff Organizational Chart is being revised. Due to the nature of their work, Director of Multi-cultural and Social Ministries Jesse Brunson and Director of Mission Development Steve Taylor live in Fayetteville and Lumberton, respectively, and sometimes work out of their homes.

The entire clergy staff is performing admirably in their various positions and the committee recommended the Bishop reappoint them.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline mandates that "there shall be in each annual conference a commission on equitable compensation" (§ 623), whose purpose is "to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference" (§ 623.2). Three broad areas of responsibility are outlined in § 623.2, which are: "(a.) Recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b.) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c.) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations."

God calls persons to ministry to go into all the world, preaching, teaching and baptizing (Matthew 28:19), for without them the world would not have heard Christ preached (Romans 10:14). These are called to be stewards of the mysteries of God (1 Corinthians 4:1). The Church lifts up some persons for the role of clergy and ordains these persons to the work of pastoral ministry to be servants of the servants of God.

Those who are ordained to pastoral ministry answer affirmatively the historic question of John Wesley, (§ 327.17) "Are you determined to employ all your time in the work of God?" For such a called, set apart and committed clergy, the Church assumes an obligation to plan adequate support. The Book of Discipline is clear that "the primary responsibility for payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges (§ 622.5; see also § 246.12). Pastoral charges carry a responsibility for clergy salaries as one expression of their missional and ministry presences in the community. We recognize that such a missional presence also include faithful payment of apportionments in full as ministry beyond the local church.

The Commission seeks equity and fairness for both pastors and local churches. Why should this commission be so concerned about equity and fairness? Our prayerful consideration of scriptural and historical foundations are found in the following:

- a. Jesus says, “the laborer deserves to be paid,” (Luke 10:7) and Paul reminds us “Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of compensation, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching; for the scripture says, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain,”” (1 Timothy 5:17,18).
- b. Wesley was concerned that clergy have responsibility not to be “in debt so as to embarrass you in your work” (§327.18), which implies that the Church has a responsibility that it neither lead its clergy into positions of embarrassing indebtedness, nor leave them there.
- c. The Great Commission to “go into all the world preaching, teaching and baptizing” brings with it a cost. Systems of clergy support which foster the use of the right pastor in the right place, hold up the hope of seeing the Great Commission bear its promised fruit.
- d. The Commission on Equitable Compensation embraces the Great Commandment to “love our neighbors as we love ourselves” by desiring for each pastor what our members desire for themselves – compensation adequate to free persons for the work of pastoral ministry.

Through our prayers, working and considering together as both laity and clergy from across The N.C. Annual Conference, we make the following recommendations, which we believe will help us move toward fairness for both local churches and pastors as together we support ordained ministry in The N.C. Annual Conference.

The Commission currently recommends a 4.76% increase for the year 2004. For the year 2003, the average full-time salary increase was approximately 5.18%. Our recommendation is based on several factors: (1) the average compensation from other conferences; (2) it more closely reflects the majority of salary increases for this conference; (3) shows concern for general economic trends. However, the Commission currently recommends a 4.76% increase for the year 2004. For the year 2003 the average full-time salary increase was approximately 5.18%.

I. Recommended Schedule of Minimum Compensation for 2004:

A. Salary Schedule

We recommend that the student minimum salary be based on 65% of the minimum salary of full-time pastors.

PASTORS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT	2003	2004
(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)
Salary	$31,500.00	$33,500.00
Utilities	2,000.00	2,000.00
TOTAL	$33,500.00	$35,000.00

STUDENT PASTORS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)

Salary	$20,475.00	21,450.00
Utilities	2,000.00	2,000.00
TOTAL	$22,475.00	$23,450.00

B. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the local charge as an item of pastoral expense, it is expected that each local charge would provide at least $3,000 for travel expense. The Commission encourages each charge to establish a plan to reimburse the pastor for all legitimate business mileage at the current rate established by the IRS. Where such a plan is established for reimbursement of business mileage, equitable compensation support shall not be affected by payment of travel expenses. However, where a reimbursement plan is not implemented and a travel allowance is given, any travel allowance in excess of $3,000 will result in a reduction of equitable compensation support.

C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Compensation Funds support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) based on the pastor's cash base compensation (including funds from the Equitable Compensation Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources), and housing (percentage of cash base compensation designated by the General Board of Pension/Health Benefits or housing allowance, if provided in lieu of a parsonage). Cash base compensation plus housing in Plan Compensation.

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Compensation Funds:

The pastor's base compensation is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the each charge of The North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Compensation Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge, to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Annual Conference, the Commission and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

- A. In considering the base compensation for the charge, all income, including base compensation, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as base compensation in determining appropriations from the Equitable Compensation Fund. Base compensation support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.
- B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one third (1/3) of the total base compensation will come from the Equitable Compensation Fund on the first application of the charge. Charges seeking more than one third (1/3) supplement shall provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendent regarding the terms of Equitable Compensation support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.

When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Compensation funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop and the approval of the cabinet. In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume total responsibility for base compensation and its proportionate share of all apportionments.

1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Compensation provide more than one third (1/3) of the base compensation required for such a division.
 2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge shall pay initially two thirds (2/3) of the pastoral support established by the division.
- C. Churches receiving Equitable Compensation Funds shall conduct an annual financial/stewardship campaign in the second year of receiving Equitable Compensation funds, to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.

- D. The Commission further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Compensation Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten percent (10%) each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum base compensation for their pastor each year and receive ten percent (10%) less each year in assistance from Equitable Compensation Funds than granted the previous year.
 - E. Any Equitable Compensation Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time, secular employment. The supplement may be reinstated at the time the charges appointed pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision will be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking to be employed outside their ministerial responsibilities for emergency reasons.
 - F. Equitable Compensation Funds are to be sent to charges that have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum base compensation established by the Annual Conference. The monthly base compensation supplement checks sent by the Conference Treasurer's office are to be deposited by the charge treasurer into the charge/church bank account. Checks shall not be endorsed nor cashed by the pastor.
 - G. Ethnic Minority and Women Ministers: Each ethnic minority or woman minister who is an associate member or a member in full connection of The N.C. Annual Conference, serving full time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $200 per service year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for ten years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities are equal to the Conference minimum base compensation. Said incremental increase is to administered by the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the cabinet, approval by the charge conference, and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for all MPP and CPP payments on incremental increase. This policy does not restrict the Commission on Compensation, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.
 - H. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Compensation Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form, supplied by the district superintendent. The pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent, shall carefully analyze the request. The application form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and receive the approval of the charge conference.
 - I. The Commission on Equitable Compensation will not fund any charge that is also receiving funds from The Emerging Church Salary Fund. The Commission on Equitable Compensation plans further consultation and study with other Conference boards and agencies to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.
- III. The Commission reports that 27 charges received a total of $166,914.00 in compensation assistance in the year 2002.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON

III. FINANCIAL POLICIES

The United Methodist Church is a connectional church, and all local churches participate in the mission and service giving of the larger church. The outreach and mission giving opportunities of the Connection are distributed to the churches of the NC Conference by means of a formula based on the financial performance in each local church. Every effort is made to develop a computation which is shared with fairness by all. Church leaders are encouraged to interpret the work of the Connection so that each congregation understands these funds to be a necessary extension of the ministry and mission of the church beyond its local organization.

A. APPORTIONMENTS:

1. The funds to be apportioned are:
 World Service and Connectional Ministries
 Past Service Liability - Pensions
 Episcopal Fund
 Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
 Black College Fund
 Africa University Fund
2. Formula: The Apportionments for each year shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year, or on the most recent year less the approved exclusions, whichever is lower. The change in unadjusted apportionments from the previous year shall not increase or decrease in excess of 15%. The exclusions are: Payments on World Service and Conference Benevolences, Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration, Past Service Liability – Pensions, Episcopal Fund, and all other apportionments; district work fund; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $4,500 for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness Sunday; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Response Committee and the Resident Bishop.

3. Beginning with all new congregations started in the NC Conference after July 1, 1993, the following formula shall be used to determine a new congregation's base for setting apportioned contributions for mission and service giving:

C	$4A \div 4$	No Cap
D	$(3A + B) \div 4$	No Cap
E	$(2A + B + C) \div 4$	No Cap
F	$(A + B + C + D) \div 4^*$	No Cap
G	$(B + C + D + E) \div 4$	15% Cap

* Standard formula

 Maximum % increase cap shall be the percentage determined by Annual Conference

4. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata.

The CFA is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference, if funds are available, for emergency or unforeseen needs. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds. It is the intent of CFA that 50% of supplemental funds available be designated for the retirement of our current liabilities. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need beyond available resources within the Annual Conference, the CFA is authorized to adjust the pro-rata distribution by up to 10% at its discretion and is authorized to use such funds to make supplementary appropriations according to this provision. General Church apportionments will be paid in full as collected to general agencies and will not be subject to adjusted pro-rata distributions. All supplementary appropriations made under these provisions shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information

5. Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 18, 2003.
- B. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace with Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.
- C. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of CFA. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
- D. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another.
- E. All General Church Funds (World Service, Episcopal, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, Africa University, Interdenominational Cooperation, General Administration) and College Sustaining Fund, Past Service Liability Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, and Methodist Building Routine and Capital Maintenance Funds will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the CFA.
- F. Investment Policy: The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. Investments are with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. (local), the United Methodist Church Foundation (national), area banks, and with specific minority financial institutions within the bounds of the NC Conference. Investments of funds reserved for use in the next budget year shall be invested 50% fixed income investments and 50% equity investments. The Conference is also a member of Project Equality.
- G. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 2003 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 2004.
- H. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in the Discipline, ¶ 610.5.b.
- I. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by ¶ 611.11 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or the Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., Board of Missions, Inc., Asbury Homes and North Carolina United Methodist Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc..

- J. All new programs or entities which would not be funded by an existing approved budget shall be referred to the CFA for review of budget needs and supplemental funds available prior to approval by Annual Conference. If the item is approved, the next year's budget shall be amended to include the necessary funds based on the CFA recommendation.

IV. Approval to Solicit Funds

Any organization designated as a Conference Advance Special may ask local churches to consider opportunities for giving. It shall be at the discretion of the local church as to whether, when and how these opportunities will be presented to the membership. Solicitation or private campaign may not be taken directly into local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists (either partial or in entirety).

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies and programs for the privilege of soliciting funds under these policies throughout the District or Conference.

- A. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
- B. The Commission on Congregational Development for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club and the John Wesley Endowment for Congregational Development.
- C. The Board of Directors for Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.
- D. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
- E. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College; and Asbury Homes for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto.
- F. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- G. The Disaster Response Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the NC Annual Conference.

The CFA continues to recommend that 100% "Missional Service Giving" be the on-going priority. The Council also recommends that stewardship continue to be a missional focus, Conference priority.

V. District Superintendent's Salary

CFA continues to recommend, as sustained by the 1998 Annual Conference, that the percentage change in district superintendents' salary be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary and utilities) for the prior year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference. The percentage change, 2003 over 2002, is 5.18%; ($1,500 or 4.76% increase for Equitable Compensation minimum salary. See page _____. We currently recommend the 2004 salary for district superintendents to increase by 3.5% ($3,012), to $89,076.00. Utilities for the district superintendent are paid by the district.

VI. Organization and Procedure (presented for information only)

- A. The audit for 2003 will be by McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC.
- B. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the CFA shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect two additional members to the executive committee from its voting membership.

- C. The Conference treasurer will include in the monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in the office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
- D. The treasurer may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $5,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such over expenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.
- E. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of The United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA. Note: CFA requests the Board of Institutions to provide regular reports (at least annually) regarding its financial monitoring of related institutions/programs.
- F. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items. Any carryover or portion thereof by this policy may be rescinded in any year in which funds are not available to meet basic ministry needs as determined by CFA.
- G. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.
- H. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Compensation Funds, staff salaries, etc.)

Programs authorized and mandated by the NC Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year.

Amounts required by the Past Service Funding Plan adopted jointly by the Board of Pensions and the CFA which are not raised by the Board of Pensions annual budget requests.

Second Priority

New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.

Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

1. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.
2. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee which will make a recommendation to the full Council.

3. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action.
- I. Interest shall be paid to/from the Board of Pensions, Insurance Fund, Blackburn Scholarship Fund, Camps Endowment for Maintenance, Church Extension Redevelopment, and Church Extension Salary Endowment funds using the rate of the conference interest bearing checking account, compounded monthly, on monthly average balances held by the Conference treasurer.
- J. Retroactive adjustments for transfer or posting delays will be made to the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Fund accounts for earnings calculations.
- K. Funds in excess of operational needs for the Board of Pensions and the Insurance fund are invested in the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., of the N.C. Conference.
- L. In order to prevent a loss of funds due to investment risk, and in order to have funds available for emergency use, the goal of the Council is to maintain minimum reserve funds equal to 15% of the current operating budget for World Service and Connectional Ministries and the Past Service Liability. Supplemental appropriations from current year earnings shall follow the guidelines in paragraph H above. Supplemental appropriations beyond current year earnings shall follow the following guidelines: 1. If reserves are less than or equal to 20% of the current operating budget, then only supplements to meet payroll for existing positions may be considered. 2. If reserves are above 20% and below 30% of operating budget, then only supplements to meet payroll for existing positions and unfunded liabilities may be considered. 3. If reserves are equal to or greater than 30% of operating budget, then other requests may be considered. 4. No request may be considered if the amount requested would reduce reserves below 15% of operating budget.
- M. Mailing address labels will be available for a nominal fee to conference agencies, clergy and lay members of Annual Conference or other United Methodists for church related uses.
- N. CFA Meeting Schedule: The executive committee meets at the call of the President. Scheduled meetings are:
 - June 2003: There may be a called meeting in conjunction with Annual Conference if necessary to elect officers or conduct other business.
 - August 27, 2003: An optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the President.
 - November 5, 2003: An optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the President.
 - December 3, 2003: To consider apportionment matters and supplemental appropriations for salaries.
 - January 14, 2004: To look at the shortfall and make a decision regarding paying out the general church apportionments
 - February 4, 2004: To consider the operating budget for the current year. All payments on apportionments are due to the Treasurer by mid-January. A report of receipts, amounts allocated to the budgeted boards and agencies, and supplemental appropriations are decided at the meeting.
 - March 3, 2004: To consider the budget to be recommended to Annual Conference which will be raised in the subsequent year and spent in the year following that. Additionally, the CFA policy recommendations to the Annual Conference are adopted.

O. Dates to Remember:

July 18, 2003: Apportionments sent to the Districts.

November 12, 2003: Requests for supplemental appropriations for the 2003 operating budget due in the treasurer's office.

January 13, 2004: Annual Conference and General Church remittances must be received by 8:30 A.M. in order to receive credit for 2003. (Subject to change based on GCFA final closing date.)

January 23, 2004: Requests for supplemental appropriations for the 2004 operating budget due in the treasurer's office.

January 31, 2004: Tables I and II due to the Conference statistician.

February 11, 2004: Requests for the 2006 budget, to be adopted at the 2004 Annual Conference, due in the treasurer's office.

VII. Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund, and Basic Protection Plan

A. GENERAL

1. The lay employee's supervisor is responsible for making lay employees aware of these rules and procedures. Detailed information on the CPBF and the BPP is available from the treasurer's office. Supervisors will have lay employees who are eligible for these benefits contact the treasurer's office 60 days before they are eligible for participation, or sign a waiver form if they decline to participate in the CPBF and the BPP. The form will be kept on file in the treasurer's office for future reference.
2. The Conference treasurer's office will administer the CPBF and the BPP.
3. Contributions will be withheld from the employee's pay and remitted to the General Board of Pensions by the treasurer's office within ten business days after receiving the bill from the General Board of Pensions.

B. CUMULATIVE PENSION AND BENEFIT FUND (CPBF)

1. The lay employee must be full time (at least 25 hours per week).
2. The lay employee must be an employee for 1 continuous year before becoming eligible for CPBF.
3. The conference contribution will be the same percent as it is for clergy (currently 12%).
4. The lay employee's required contribution will be 3%. Participants in the CPBF must be participants in the BPP.
5. Participants in the CPBF must be participants in the BPP.

C. BASIC PROTECTION PLAN

1. Participants in the BPP must be participants in the CPBF.
2. The conference contribution will be the plan document required amount less the lay employee's required contribution.
3. The lay employee's required contribution will be the same ratio as it is for clergy.

R. Carl Frazier, Jr., President

INCAPACITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Incapacity acts as the advocate for those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional incapacity to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of incapacity within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are incapacitated, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Incapacity Leave, including the source of their disability income.

Persons interested in discovering more about the process of being granted Incapacity Leave can contact a district superintendent or the chair of the Joint Committee on Incapacity.

The following recommendations are presented to the 2002 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Incapacity, through the Conference Treasurer's Office, will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Incapacity Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, chair of Joint Committee on Incapacity, Conference benefits officer, and the district superintendent before the request for Incapacity Leave can be acted upon. Whenever possible incapacity requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date. Requests presented before May 15 will be included in the Committee's report to the Annual Conference.
2. Definition of Incapacity: For the first 24 months, an active participant will be considered incapacitated for the purposes of the Comprehensive Protection Plan and the Basic Protection Plan as of the date the Administrator determines on the basis of medical evidence that such active participant was unable to perform the usual and customary duties of his/her employment by reason of bodily injury, disease, or mental or emotional disease or disorder that will presumably last for at least six continuous months, exclusive of any incapacity resulting from service in the armed forces of any country, warfare, intentionally self-inflicted injury, or participation in any criminal or unlawful act.
3. A pastor seeking to be on Incapacity secures a disability claim kit from the Office of Ministerial Relations. The applicant completes Form A, has his or her physician complete Form B, completes the applicant's portion of Form C, and submit all these forms to the Office of Ministerial Relations for completion. Disability Management Alternatives reviews the claim and recommends a determination to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits who retains the authority to approve or deny a claim.
4. ~~We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan may be placed on Incapacity Leave with benefits paid through the Joint Committee on Incapacity with its approval.~~
4. We recommend that pastors applying for Incapacity Leave be approved when the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits grants their request for incapacity benefits through the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
5. The Ministerial Pension Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance, and Life Insurance shall be paid by the Joint Committee on Incapacity both for those approved by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and those approved by the Joint Committee on Incapacity.
6. Pastors on Incapacity Leave are reminded to investigate the penalties by the Social Security Administration if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65.
7. We recommend that a lump sum grant of $3,500 be made at the beginning of Incapacity Leave. This grant will be available only one time in a pastor's years of service.
8. The Joint Committee on Incapacity will review the progress of each pastor on Incapacity Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances.
9. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Incapacity Leave.
 - A. Wilson E. Barber, PO Box 4931, Emerald Isle 28594 (252/354-5635)
 - B. Jack Benfield, 2609 Dunhaven Dr., Garner, NC 27529 (919/772-9436)
 - C. Victor L. Galipi, 294 Third St., Dublin, NC 28332
 - D. Sherwood A. Godwin, 4909 Pineville St., Grifton NC 28530 (252/524-0874)
 - E. Sidney Gene Hadden, 603 Connor Street, Russellville, KY 42276 (270/726-2173)
 - F. Susan Harsh-Cafferty, 82 Willow Bridge Dr., Durham, NC 27707 (919/401-9492)

- G. Carol Hayes, 4100 Five Oaks Drive, #28, Durham, NC 27707 (919/490-8625)
 - H. Bobby L. Jordan, 2085 Osborne Rd., Hamlet, NC 28345 (910/205-0473)
 - I. Ronda Lee-Torres, 507 Stornoway Dr., Southern Pines, NC 28387 (910/944-2292)
 - J. Richard F. Lewis, Jr., (AM) PO Box 323, Calypso, NC 28325 (919/658-3098)
 - K. Lon W. Miller, 116 Sandy Lane, Roanoke Rapids NC 27876
 - L. John S. Paschal, 4220 Coquina Harbour Dr., Unit B-7, Little River, SC 29566 (843/249-0652)
 - M. William Rickman Pinner, 1521 Harvey Johnson Road, Garner, NC 27529 (919/773-0116)
 - N. Michael E. Rocheleau, 1182 Wimpleton Dr., Raleigh, NC 27609
 - O. Clint W. Spence, 1308 Shady Lane, Durham, NC 27712 (919/477-7323)
 - P. Michael Lawrence Tart, 105 Shawn Ct., Rocky Mt., NC 27804 (919/443-1931)
 - Q. J. Albert Trotter, 427 Glenwood Ave., Burlington, NC 27215 (336/229-1855)
 - R. Clarence Arthur Wall, 217 Blair Dr., Angier, NC 27501
 - S. Debra S. Watson, 806 McConnell Ave., Eden, NC 27288 (336/623-5912)
 - T. LaVerne B. Womack, Jr., 10760 Taylor Rd, Laurinburg 28352 (910-610-1248)
 - U. Camille Yorkey, 6025 Bur Trail, Raleigh, NC 27616 (919/875-8855)
10. We recommend the following pastors to be placed on Incapacity Leave for the first time:
 John M. Crowe, July 1, 2003; 207 Mimosa Park Drive, Goldsboro NC 27534/ 919/759-2146
11. Who have been placed on Incapacity Leave since the last Annual Conference?
 Michael E. Rocheleau - January 1, 2003
 Sidney Gene Hadden - March 1, 2003
 Clarence Arthur Wall - March 1, 2003
12. Who have had their Incapacity Leave terminated since the last conference session? (Give effective dates of terminations)
 Donna Susan Moore (deceased) 03/23/2003
13. We recommend that pastors and congregations in the communities in which our disabled pastors reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Incapacity Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities.

Charles L. Pollock, Chairperson

INSURANCE, COMMITTEE ON

I. Group Term Life Insurance

- A. The current life insurance program is provided by Medical Life Insurance Co.
- B. Our coverage is $25,000 for active participants, $12,500 for retired clergy up to age 72; $2,500 for clergy over age 72. Current spouse and child coverage is $10,000 per person. The spouse's insurance terminates upon retirement of the subscriber. Accidental Death and Dismemberment is provided to active participants in amounts equal to current life coverage but does not cover retirees, spouses, or children.
- C. The life insurance plan is non-contributory. Life insurance premiums are to be paid by the salary-paying unit.
- D. LIFE INSURANCE CLAIMS PAID IN 2002:

Christina Gause	$1,000.00
William Eason	2,500.00
Noah Hill	2,500.00
Robert Knight	2,500.00
Waverly Lamb	2,500.00
Robert MacLean	2,500.00
John Mitchell	2,500.00

Kermit Wheeler	2,500.00
James Hicks	12,500.00
Samuel McMillan	12,500.00
Emerson Thompson	12,500.00
TOTAL BENEFITS PAID	$56,000.00

II. Health Insurance Benefits

A. Group

1. The Insurance Committee will mail the proposed benefits to the members immediately before each Annual Conference session. The committee considers the most current financial information that is available before adopting its recommendations.
2. Insurance companies who make inquiries, for the purpose of submitting proposals, will be notified of a $200 processing fee. This fee will help cover the costs of preparation and processing of the information necessary for proposals.
3. Health Screening will be sponsored by the Insurance Committee on a biannual basis. The Insurance Committee encourages everyone to take advantage of this service in 2004. For each subscriber in the Conference plan who participates in the health screening, the Insurance Committee will donate $2.00 for handicapped camperships.
4. The Insurance Committee is to be made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2-Board of Pensions; 1-Board of Pensions Chair; 2-Board of Ordained Ministry; 2-Joint Committee on Incapacity; 3-Lay Members appointed by the Commission on Laity; 5-At Large Members. The following members are without vote: 1-Conference Treasurer; 1-Controller; 1-Benefits Manager; 1-Director of Ministerial Relations; 1-Consultant. The representative should be elected at the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies. Once elected from its constituent groups at the beginning of each quadrennium, the Insurance Committee's membership will remain established for the remainder of that quadrennium.

B. Policy and Rules

1. Effective January 1, 2004, the North Carolina Conference will offer a Preferred Provider health insurance plan administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield of North Carolina. Benefits will include health, dental, pharmacy, mental health, Medical Reimbursement Accounts, Dependent Care Accounts, and life insurance. Details may be obtained by contacting the Benefits Manager in the Treasurer's Office, 800-849-4433.
2. Effective January 1, 2001 the North Carolina Conference joined the HealthFlex health insurance plan administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits in Evanston, Illinois. Health, pharmacy, and dental benefits will be administered by Cigna. Mental health benefits will be administered by United Behavioral Health. Additional benefits will include Medical Reimbursement and Dependent Care Accounts. Details may be obtained from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits or from the Treasurer's Office.
3. Coverage is not automatic. Completion of an enrollment form on a timely basis is required.
4. Open enrollment and annual election of benefits (Medical Reimbursement and Dependent Care Accounts) end on November 30, for an effective date of the following January 1. A change of life circumstances (divorce, death, loss of spousal coverage) will allow a mid-year change.
5. When there is a change of address, or a change in family status, it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-849-4433 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.

6. Effective January 1, 2001 health insurance for the subscriber may continue for 12 months after employment is terminated provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.
7. Adding new family members must be completed within 30 days of the qualifying event.
8. Participants applying at any time other than the initial enrollment period (thirty days from the date first eligible) would be subject to the one year pre-existing conditions clause. Submission of a valid Certificate of Insurance may eliminate or decrease this 12 month clause. The exception to this rule would be possible by a change in life status causing loss of coverage: divorce, death of spouse, loss of spouse's employment, reduction of hours regarding spouse's coverage.
9. Effective January 1, 2004 the Conference health insurance plan will be the primary carrier for active participants who continue to work past the Medicare eligibility age, and are enrolled in the Conference health plan.
10. Retired participants should sign up for Medicare parts A and B upon reaching the Medicare eligibility age. The Medicare Companion Plan is the only plan offered to retirees past this age. Medicare becomes the primary payer, with the Conference plan as secondary.
11. A participant must be covered in the Conference insurance for five consecutive and uninterrupted years immediately prior to retirement to retain health benefits after retirement. All participants enrolled on January 1, 2001 will be prorated under this rule.
12. Effective January 1, 2004 call Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC at 800-214-4844. Mental health benefits should be pre-certified through Magellan Behavioral Health at 800-359-2422
13. Denial of claims or incorrect processing of claims should be appealed through Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC. There are two levels of appeal.
14. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Personal checks cannot be accepted due to IRS regulations governing Section 125 cafeteria plans. The personal portion of insurance premiums should be withheld from the participant's salary by the salary-paying unit on a pre-tax basis.
15. Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.
16. Lay persons or clergy on maternity/family medical leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.
17. The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums. Insurance payments which are 60 days late (from the date of the bill) will result in termination of benefits. Termination will take place on the last day of the month in which the 60th day has occurred. Benefits may be reinstated without lapse in coverage if full payment is made within 30 days of the termination date. Thereafter, insurance coverage may be reinstated upon full payment and coverage will be effective the first day of the following month. The one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply to all reinstatements where a lapse in coverage occurs.
18. In case of termination of coverage, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.

III. Statement of Intent

The NC Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired clergy. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

IV. Eligibility Policies

If you enroll in this program, you are eligible for your coverage to begin on the first day of the month following date of hire. The definition of mandatory, as well as the mandatory classifications will be mailed prior to Annual Conference.

2003 Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to the following:

- A. Clergy who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary and commissioned probationary members, associate members, student local clergy, part-time local clergy, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full time or part-time under appointment in:
 1. One of the churches or charges of the NC Conference.
 2. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
 3. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
 - (a) Clergy shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, a one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions may apply before re-establishing the health insurance coverage.
 - (b) The Institution shall be responsible for payment of all health insurance premiums by the due date.
 4. Clergy eligible for life and health insurance through the Conference are entitled to these benefits.
- B. Clergy on Leave of Absence provided that a written request to continue the coverage shall be filed with the Conference treasurer within 30 days after the beginning of the leave of absence.
- C. Lay Employees:
 1. Each church/charge must apply for a group insurance contract with the Conference Treasurer's Office in order to offer insurance to eligible lay employees. An insurance administrator must be appointed at each church/charge to manage insurance policies dealing with lay staff. This contract may be obtained from the Conference Treasurer's Office. It is the responsibility of each local church/charge and its officers to be apprised of the parameters of the Conference insurance plan.
 2. Each local church must have at least 75% participation of the eligible lay employees to participate in the Conference plan. Those churches who currently have less than 75% participation will be allowed to continue their current coverage of lay employees now under the Conference plan. Diaconal Ministers are not subject to this rule.
 3. The employee must work a minimum of 30 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment - this period being within 30 days of date first eligible, or be added as a late applicant.
 4. The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for clergy.
 5. All churches providing post-retirement benefits to lay employees will be billed in full for all premiums associated with retirement insurance benefits. The Annual Conference is not responsible for the premiums of local church retired lay staff.
- V. The Insurance Committee strives diligently to present the best possible health and life insurance coverage available to the North Carolina Annual Conference. Careful consideration is given to benefits and rates that are proposed each year. The Committee wishes to thank the members of the Annual Conference for their support.

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

I. Past Service Liability

- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline ¶1506.22a for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Compensation. The 2004 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $52,148.
- C. The current rate is $467 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Compensation increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAC to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. The unfunded liability as of January 1, 2004 at this rate is $30,933,645 using explicit assumptions. Our current funding plan has used explicit assumptions since 1991. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 2004 be increased to $485 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Compensation increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability under explicit assumptions of $44,918,879.
- D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.
- E. The Annual Past Service Deposit required by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefit is $3,710,584.00 and $3,119,796.00 is due December 31, 2003 and 2004 respectively. The amount needed in the 2005 budget to fund our total liability by the year 2021 is $2,900,000. Additionally, for other benefit plans; such as, health and life insurance, pension grants, administration, etc., the 2005 budget request is $2,340,000.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the plan document. A copy of the summary plan document is available on request by contacting pension services in the treasurer's office.

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.
- B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated by the GBOPHB according to the plan document:
 1. No vouchered travel is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations since this is considered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be local expense.
 2. Clergy couples housing (Effective January 1, 1988):
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
 - b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 25% housing - allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.

- c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.
- d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
- 3. In accordance with the Plan Document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is 25% times the cash salary.
- 4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document. (Effective January 1, 1988)
- C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)
- D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
- E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.
- F. We recommend 12% as the level of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan for the North Carolina Conference participants.
- G. Unfunded Liability Actuarial Funding Plan (Amended 2003)
 - 1. Interest assumption is 7.5%. (Decreased from 8.0%)
 - 2. Past Service Rate assumption continued at a 5% increase.
 - 3. No change at the present is required in contribution pattern (new money).
- III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)
 - A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP, whose charges are paying at least minimum full-time salary.
 - 1. Death Benefits provide $50,000.00 as the benefit paid on the death of an eligible active participant. Upon retirement at any age, death benefits drop to $13,715.10
 - 2. Effective January 1, 2002, the disability benefit equals 70% of plan compensation, with plan compensation capped at 200% of the DAC. (The DAC for 2003 is $45,717.00 and for 2004 is $49,325.00) The disability benefit is reduced by any disability benefits payable under the Social Security Act. This revised benefit applies only to eligible clergy whose disability effective date, as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, is on or after January 1, 2002.
 - 3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 12% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.
 - 4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)
 - B. Effective January 1, 2002, the cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) is a total of 4.4% of the actual Plan Compensation up to 4.4% of 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). The pastor shall be required to pay 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of 200% of DAC) and the church or charge shall pay 3.4% of the Plan Compensation (up to 3.4% of 200% of DAC). ¶1506.19 in The Book of Discipline 2000.

IV. Implementation of the Program

The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.

- A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.
 FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation for MPP and 3.4% of Plan Compensation for CPP (up to 3.4% of 200% of the DAC) ¶ 1506.19, Book of Discipline 2000
 STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
 LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
 INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility
- B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of 200% of the DAC) for CPP.
- C. It is recommended that the pastor make regular monthly payments through the local church treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for his/her personal tax-paid or tax-deferred contributions of at least 3%.
(The following Item V. was approved by the 1997 Annual Conference to be placed in effect at the conclusion of the Session of the Annual Conference, Year 2000:)

V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

A. Five-Year Rule

A participant must be covered under the health insurance plan for five consecutive years immediately prior to the date of retirement in order to retain health insurance benefits after retirement.

B. Retirement prior to January 1, 2004

Clergy persons who retire prior to January 1, 2004 from the North Carolina Annual Conference will be subject to the current rate policy as outlined below. Effective January 1, 2004, there will be a minimum monthly contribution of $10 per participant (for all retirees and surviving dependents with a clergy retirement date prior to January 1, 2004).

1. Clergy persons who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference may receive life and health insurance benefits when the clergy person attains age 62 and receives pension benefits or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits provided at least twenty (20) of the thirty-five years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference. The following policies apply
 - a. Before the retired clergy person and/or spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility (currently 65 years of age), the retired clergy person will pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year in which he/she retires. The Conference Board of Pensions will pay the difference between the clergy person's payment and the costs of his/her health insurance. The retired clergy person must continue to pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year of retirement until both the retired clergy person and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility. Billings will be made monthly from the Treasurer’s Office.

- b. If a clergy person who, prior to retirement, has been covered as a single individual for the purposes of health insurance, wishes at the time of retirement to add family members to his/her health care plan, he/she must pay the premium applicable to that type of coverage for the year in which he/she retired. The retired clergy person must continue to pay that amount of premium until both the retired clergy person and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility.
- c. A clergy person who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty (20) full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference may receive life and health insurance benefits when the clergy person attains age 62 and receives pension benefits or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits provided at least twenty of the thirty-five years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference. Retired clergy persons and/or dependents with less than twenty years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will be responsible for the monthly insurance premiums as described in #1 above, with the remaining monthly portion shared by the retired clergy person and/or dependents and the Conference Board of Pensions, based on the following formula:

Years of Pension Credit	Individual Contribution	Board of Pension's Contribution
2	90%	10%
3	85%	15%
4	80%	20%
5	75%	25%
6	70%	30%
7	65%	35%
8	60%	40%
9	55%	45%
10	50%	50%
11	45%	55%
12	40%	60%
13	35%	65%
14	30%	70%
15	25%	75%
16	20%	80%
17	15%	85%
18	10%	90%
19	5%	95%
20	$10 minimum	Remaining premium

2. This payment formula remains in effect throughout the participant’s lifetime (clergy person or surviving dependent).

C. Retirement after January 1, 2004

Effective January 1, 2004 the following schedule(s) will apply to all retired clergy and their eligible dependents, whose retirement date is January 1, 2004 or later.

1. Medicare Eligible (retiree and/or dependents)

Years of NC Pension Credit	Individual Contribution	Board of Pension Contributions
0-4	Not eligible	Not eligible
5-19	100%	0%
20-24	50%	50%
25-29	40%	60%
30-34	30%	70%
35-39	20%	80%
40 or more	10%	90%

2. Age Less than Medicare Eligible (retiree and/or dependents)

Years of NC Pension Credit	Individual Contribution	Board of Pension Contributions
0-4	Not eligible	Not eligible
5-19	100%	0%
20-24	50%	50%
25-29	40%	60%
30-34	30%	70%
35-39	20%	80%
40 or more	10%	90%

3. The minimum monthly premium billed to the individual will be no less than the active monthly personal portion of the premium for the applicable coverage type.

D. Retirement after January 1, 2007

Effective January 1, 2007 the conference Board of Pensions will fund only the % above as applied to the Medicare Companion plan rate. Retirees and/or dependents not yet Medicare eligible age will be responsible for the difference between this % and the remaining cost of full coverage.

E. [Paragraphs noted are from The Book of Discipline, 2000]

Effective August 1, 1992, Pastors who discontinued ¶346.1, or Probationary Members, ¶318.6, as well as Conference Members who are retired involuntarily, ¶356.3, who are granted Honorable Location, ¶357; who withdraw to unite with another denomination, ¶358.1; who surrender the ordained ministerial office ¶358.2; who withdraw under complaints or charges, ¶358.3; and Conference Members who re placed on Administrative Location, ¶359.3 are ineligible to receive retirement health or life insurance benefits when payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits begin.

F. Life Insurance

A clergy person must have been covered under the conference active life insurance plan in order to retain life insurance benefits after retirement. The Board of Pensions does not provide life insurance for dependents of retired clergy.

G. Clergy Couples Insurance

1. When one member of a clergy couple retires, medical and life insurance will be paid for the retiree according to the schedules and rules previously listed.
2. Health insurance will be provided for the spouse and eligible dependents of the retired clergy partner according to the rules and schedules previously listed.

H. Surviving Spouses

Surviving spouses of active participants must be enrolled in the health insurance plan at the time of the participant's death in order to receive health insurance benefits under the current health insurance plan.

1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided health insurance by their employer, the plan of the Board of Pension will be the secondary carrier.
2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the conference health insurance will terminate. Future benefits under the conference health insurance plan are waived.
3. Surviving spouses of retired clergy must be enrolled in the health insurance plan at the time of the retired clergy's death in order to receive health insurance benefits under the current health insurance plan.

- a. Surviving spouses who married the clergy person after the clergy person's retirement, can remain covered by the health insurance plan if the surviving spouse pays 100% of the monthly premium associated with the health coverage. The Board of Pensions assumes no responsibility for these premiums.
- b. Surviving spouses of retired clergy who married the clergy person prior to the clergy person's retirement are subject to the payment schedule applicable prior to the death of the clergy person.

VI. Intent

The North Carolina Annual Conference established health and life insurance plans with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired pastors. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plans without the consent of the individual participants.

VII. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under the health insurance plan have dental insurance. Dental benefits became available on July 1, 1987.

VIII. Maximum Lifetime Benefit Under the Medicare Companion Plan

The lifetime maximum under the current Medicare Companion Plan is $2,000,000 for each participant.

IX. Special Provisions

The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for active participation in the MPP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (MPP Section 3.2 and CPP Section 3.2.)

X. Conclusion

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 2001 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the least of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Please Note: There is no place on your 1040 Tax Form to list this Housing Exclusion.

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has provided a sample statement to be used: "I received $ _____ from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Incorporated in Missouri; and $ _____ from the Duke Endowment (total $ _____) as reported on the attached 1099 - R's. I did not include that amount on Line 16b because $ _____* has been excluded under provisions of IRC Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code as a rental allowance exclusion. As a retired clergyperson, I am entitled to take this rental allowance exclusion." (In this blank put the least of the 3 amounts on your Housing Exclusion Worksheet.)

Attach this note to your 1099-R forms.

Report D - Ministers' Transition Fund

I. The Principles of the Fund - The Ministers' Transition Fund of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church (the "Fund") was established effective November 20, 1937, to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has usually been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his or her housing. The Fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries-Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church that all ministers participate in the Fund. The Conference does not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their ministers, but as a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he or she contributed to the Fund.

The Conference vigorously emphasizes that the purpose of this Fund is to assist the minister's retirement transition and not to be an emergency fund available for any other purpose. All participant elections available shall be irrevocable. The Fund is intended to be a church plan within the meaning of section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") which has not made the election under section 410(d) of the Code and is also intended to meet the requirements of a retirement income account under section 403(b)(9) of the Code. The Plan shall be interpreted, wherever possible, to comply with the applicable terms of the Code and all applicable formal regulations and rulings issued under the Code.

II. The Conference Treasurer - The Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference (the "Conference Treasurer") shall serve as Treasurer and custodian of this Fund. He or she shall promote this work, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of assessments received and benefits paid.

III. Eligibility for Membership - Membership in this Fund is not mandatory. Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who are appointed to serve at a North Carolina Annual Conference Institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) or other Episcopal appointment of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be eligible to join.

In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other appointment. A full-time local pastor may continue as a member of the Fund only during the time he or she is serving under episcopal appointment. Students under episcopal appointment who have previously served full time and who intend to return to full time service are eligible to continue. Those ministerial members on disability leave, leave of absence, or Conference members with less than full time service, may continue to be active, participating members by meeting the provisions discussed hereafter.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total salary and utility allowances for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve month amount.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his or her membership becomes effective. The deadline for enrollment for all ministers is January 31 of each year.

IV. Apportionments and Assessments

- A. Conference Contributions - Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This budgeted amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items, and this amount shall become part of the Fund.
- B. Minister Contributions - Each minister in a pastoral appointment who participates in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of all salary and utility allowances he or she receives each year from the charge he or she is serving and/or Conference sources. (Salary also includes Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources.)
- C. Council on Finance and Administration Contributions - The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment into the Fund an amount equal to one percent (1%) of salary and utility allowances usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers appointed as Conference staff.
- D. District Superintendent and Conference Ministerial Staff Contributions - District superintendents and Conference ministerial staff shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of their salary and utility allowances.
- E. All Other Ministers - All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or two percent (2%) of the Conference Average Salary, whichever is greater.

V. Deadline For Receipt of Assessment - The plan (fiscal) year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. No later than November 1 of each year, the Conference Treasurer shall notify all members their assessment is due. Each member of the Fund shall submit payment for the required assessment no later than January 31 of each year. Assessments received after January 31 will be returned to the minister. If he or she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this lack of payment extends the period for one additional year before dividends can be received. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he or she will receive no dividends for the year involving lack of payment. If any member of the Fund fails to pay his or her required assessment for three consecutive years, he or she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

VI. Base Benefits - Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Transition Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$200.00
If retired at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If retired at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If retired at the end of four years of membership	500.00
If retired at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If retired at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If retired at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If retired at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If retired at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If retired at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00
If retired at the end of eleven years of membership	1,200.00
If retired at the end of twelve years of membership	1,300.00
If retired at the end of thirteen years of membership	1,400.00

If retired at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If retired at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00
If retired at the end of sixteen years of membership	1,700.00
If retired at the end of seventeen years of membership	1,800.00
If retired at the end of eighteen years of membership	1,900.00
If retired at the end of nineteen years of membership	2,000.00
If retired at the end of twenty years of membership	2,100.00
If retired at the end of twenty-one years of membership	2,200.00
If retired at the end of twenty-two years of membership	2,300.00
If retired at the end of twenty-three years of membership	2,400.00
If retired at the end of twenty-four years of membership	2,500.00
If retired at the end of twenty-five years of membership	2,600.00

VII. Allocation of Dividends After Ten Years of Membership - After ten years of membership, and beginning with the eleventh year, the base benefit to be paid is increased by dividends credited to the members account.

Any funds, except as provided below, including apportionments, assessments, forfeitures and earnings thereon, remaining after benefits have been paid to eligible members for the plan year shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for more than ten years and are not in arrears for the previous year.

A reserve equal to ten percent of the members' payments and dividend fund balances as of December 31 each year shall be maintained. Unrealized gains on investments shall be reserved and are not generally eligible to be distributed as annual dividends. The Hearing Committee may supplement the annual dividend from such reserves to maintain the declared dividend in an amount consistent with previous year levels when such action is deemed appropriate considering current investment returns and current economic conditions. The purpose of maintaining these reserves is to insulate the members in any year from market fluctuations and preserve the ability of the fund to consistently provide for housing needs in their retirement.

VIII. Limitations on Contributions Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code

A. In General - The contributions for any calendar year allocated to a member's account under Articles VI and VII on behalf of a member under all Qualifying Retirement Plans in which the member participates shall not exceed the member's Limit on Annual Additions as determined in subsection B of this Article

VIII. The provisions of this Article VIII are intended to provide the limits on the amount of contributions to this Fund which are excludable from the gross income of the member pursuant to Code sections 415, and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with that Code section.

B. Limit on Annual Additions Under Code Section 415

- (1) A member's Limit on Annual Additions shall for any calendar year be an amount equal to the lesser of:
 - (a) 100% of the member's includible compensation within the meaning of Code section 415(c)(3)(E) in such calendar year, or
 - (b) $40,000, or such greater amount as is permitted under Code section 415(c) as adjusted under Code section 415(d)(1)(B).

For purposes of determining a member's Limit on Annual Additions, in the case of a member who has more than 50% control of an employer (a "Controlled Employer") within the meaning of Code section 415(h), contributions to a plan of the Controlled Employer that constitute annual additions (as defined in Code section 415(c)(2)) to the member shall be treated as contributions to this Plan.

- (2) A member's "includible compensation" for purposes of paragraph (1), above, shall mean the amount of compensation received from an employer within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3) and 414(e) which is includ-ible in gross income, computed without regard to Code section 911 for the most recent period ending not later than the close of the taxable year which is counted as a one year period of service as defined under paragraph (3) below. Such term shall not include any amount received by a former member after the fifth taxable year following the taxable year in which such member was terminated, or utilities to the extent such amounts are not includible in compensation pursuant to Code section 107.

- (3) A member's "period of service" for purposes of paragraph (2) above shall be expressed as a number equal to the member's number of full years of service plus one-twelfth for each one month period of service in addition to his or her full years of service. Part-time service of a member shall be taken into account as the percentage of such service that is equal to the percentage of full-time service served.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Article VIII.B to the contrary, the Limit on Annual Additions of a member who has made an election under Code section 415(c)(7) shall be determined under such Code section and the regulations issued thereunder.

D. Prohibition on Before-Tax Salary Reduction Contributions - Before-tax contributions under a salary reduction agreement shall not be permitted under this Fund.

IX. Death Benefits - When a participating member of the Fund dies, the Treasurer shall pay to his or her designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, otherwise to his or her estate, the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the dividends, if any, added to his or her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the eleventh year of membership, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the assessments contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary, beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the ministers death than the member's assessments plus simple interest credited annually at the rate of The United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the most recent four quarters prior to the date of death.

X. Designation of Beneficiary - Each member shall provide the Conference Treasurer the name(s) of the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom the death benefits described in Article IX are to be paid in the event of death. The designation shall be indicated on a form provided by the Conference Treasurer. A designation shall not be effective unless such form has been duly completed and filed with the Conference Treasurer. In the absence of a designated beneficiary, benefits shall be paid to the member's estate.

XI. Irrevocable Election Regarding Distribution of Funds - Members actively serving must make, prior to attaining age 59 1/2, an irrevocable election to either terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund beginning with the Annual Conference following the attainment of age 60 or to defer termination from the Fund until retirement, as defined in the Book of Discipline, 2000, ¶¶356.1, 356.2a, 356.2b, 356.2c. Such irrevocable election is the responsibility of the member and must be made in writing to the Conference Treasurer by age 59 1/2. Forms can be obtained upon request from the Conference Treasurer. Should the member fail to make the irrevocable election, the member will not terminate from this Fund until retirement.

XII. Payment of Benefits

A. In General - At retirement or early termination from the Fund, members who have accrued the same number of years of service credited under the Fund (during the same calendar years) will have exactly the same accrued benefit and will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Fund, all payments under this Fund must be made at least as rapidly as required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code and any proposed or final regulations thereunder, including but not limited to the incidental death benefit requirements of Code section 401(a)(9)(G).

In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's assessments plus interest computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters prior to the retirement date.

- (1) Ministers With Less Than Ten (10) Years. For ministers retiring between January 1 through Annual Conference, and who retire or terminate from this Fund with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund shall be paid in a single lump sum immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which he or she retires or terminates. For ministers retiring between Annual Conference and December 31, payment shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. The benefit shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table for retired members under Article VI plus minister contributions
- (2) Ministers With Ten (10) or More Years. A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund must make an irrevocable election to receive benefit payments under one of the following options. This irrevocable election must be made no later than ninety days prior to the retirement month or month of termination due to early retirement or disability. For either option selected, total benefit payments shall be the base benefits as prescribed in the table plus the dividends credited. Interest will accrue on the principal balance beginning on the later of the retirement date or July 1 of the retirement year and will continue until the account is paid in full. The interest rate will equal the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters. All payments excluding the payment of member assessments shall be subject to income tax.
 - (a) Two payment option: The first payment shall be equal to the cumulative amount that the member has paid in assessments. The second payment shall be the remainder of dividends and base benefit payment earned during their membership and interest accrued.
 - (b) Six payment option. The first payment shall be the equal to the cumulative amount that the member has paid in assessments. The remaining payments shall be five equal annual installments of the remaining dividends and base benefit payment earned during their membership and interest accrued. The six payment option shall not be available to a member following attainment of age 70.

For ministers retiring between January 1 and Annual Conference, under either option, the first payment shall be paid within 15 working days following the adjournment of the Annual Conference following the ministers' retirement or termination from the Fund. The second and subsequent payments shall be paid annually between January 1 and January 10 of each year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires until the account is paid in full.

For ministers retiring between Annual Conference and December 31, the first payment and second payment for either payment option shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. Unless the minister selects the six payment option, the account shall be disbursed in full in the first January after retirement. If the six payment option is selected, the four remaining installments shall be paid annually between January 1 and January 10 of each subsequent year until the account is paid in full.

B. Direct Rollovers

- (1) This Article XII.B applies to distributions made on or after January 1, 1993. Notwithstanding any provision of the Fund to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this Article XII.B, a distributee may elect at the time and in the manner prescribed by the plan administrator, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.

(2) Definitions:

- (a) Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code as made applicable by section 403(b)(10) of the Code, any amount that is distributed upon hardship, and the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities).
- (b) Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the Code, an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the Code, or an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the Code (including custodial accounts described in section 403(b)(7) of the Code and retirement income accounts described in Section 403(b)(9) of the Code) a qualified plan described in section 401 (a) or 403 (a) of the Code, or an eligible plan under section 457(b) of the Code which is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or political subdivision of a state which agrees to separately account for amounts transferred to such 457(b) plan from this Fund, that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution.
- (c) Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in section 414(p) of the Code, are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse.
- (d) Direct rollover: A direct rollover is a payment by the plan to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

- (3) Within a reasonable time before making an eligible rollover distribution from the Fund, the Conference Treasurer shall provide or cause to be provided the written explanation to the distributee required by Code section 402(f).

XIII. Disability Leave - A minister who is approved for and placed on Disability Leave granted by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources. Should Disability Leave be granted between sessions of Annual Conference, 2% of the disability pay received from all sources computed to a 12 month amount shall be paid.
- B. Be treated the same as a transferring member.
- C. Receive benefits the same as a retiring member.

- D. Terminate from the Fund and receive all benefits within thirty (30) days following the granting of Disability Leave.

The minister shall notify the Conference Treasurer in writing of his or her choice of option within ten (10) days following the granting of Disability Leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's assessments plus interest, determined as described in Article IX.

XIV. Leave of Absence - A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation while on leave.
- B. Be treated the same as a transferring member under Article XVI. Conference Average Compensation means the Conference Average Compensation as determined annually by the General Board of Pensions.

XV. Less Than Full Time Service - A Conference member who is approved for less than full time service by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member for no more than three years by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation (within the meaning of Article XIV) while serving less than full time.
- B. Withdraw from the Fund according to the provisions of Article XVII.

XVI. Membership Transferring - Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church cannot make any further payment to the Fund. He or she may leave his or her account (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the benefit under this Fund will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with interest determined in the manner described in Article IX, determined from the date of transfer to the date of retirement. If the account is left, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he or she may reinstate his or her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

XVII. Withdrawing From The Fund Prior to Retirement - If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference Treasurer, he or she shall receive the amount he or she has paid into the Fund, plus interest determined in the manner described in Article IX each year he or she was participating in the Fund. Amounts in the members account in excess of the amount determined under the preceding sentence shall be forfeited and reallocated as dividends for the year of forfeiture pursuant to Article VII.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference Treasurer with a statement indicating that he or she has received the funds for which he or she is eligible, and that he or she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination other than The United Methodist Church will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the formula set forth in the first paragraph of this Article XVII.

XVIII. Reinstatement - A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he or she were a new member.

A minister shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund more than two (2) times during his or her ministerial career.

XIX. Hearing Committee

- A. The Committee - A Hearing Committee consisting of the Board of Pensions Executive Committee, Conference Treasurer, Director of Ministerial Relations, Conference Controller, and the Conference Insurance Group Administrator shall have authority to act on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, this constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund. The Plan Administrator for the Fund for other plan administrative matters and matters delegated by the Hearing Committee shall be the Conference Insurance Group Administrator. Determinations by the Hearing Committee, the Board of Pensions or the Plan Administrator shall be conclusive and binding on all persons and shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

- B. Claims Procedure - If a claim is wholly or partially denied, the Hearing Committee shall furnish the member or beneficiary with written notice of the denial within sixty (60) days of the date the original claim was filed. This notice of denial shall provide:
- (1) The specific reason or reasons for denial;
 - (2) Provide specific reference to pertinent plan provisions on which denial is based;
 - (3) A description of any additional information needed to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such information is necessary; and
 - (4) An explanation of the plans claim procedure.

The member or beneficiary shall have sixty (60) days from receipt of denial notice in which to make written application for review by the Hearing Committee. The Hearing Committee shall issue a decision on such review within sixty (60) days after receipt of an application for review as provided in the preceding sentence. Such decision on review shall be made in writing and shall include specific reasons for the decision written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant. All decisions and denials of claims by the Hearing Committee shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

- XX. New Rules and Constitutional Provisions - The rules and guidelines of this constitution supersede all previous Conference legislation regulating this Fund. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of this constitution without the consent of individual members of the Fund. No amendment shall have the effect of modifying any benefit election of any member in effect at the time of such amendment or modifying the benefit or any member who retired prior to the date of such amendment, unless the amendment expressly so provides.

The Annual Conference established this Fund with the intent that it will be maintained for an indefinite period of time. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the Fund, in whole or in part, at any time. No amendment, modification or termination of the Fund shall adversely affect the members benefits accrued for his or her retirement at the time of termination of the Fund.

XXI. Miscellaneous Provisions

- A. Prohibition Against Diversion - Subject to Code section 414(p), there shall be no diversion of any portion of the assets of the plan other than for the exclusive benefit of members and their beneficiaries.
- B. Delegation of Authority - The Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and the Hearing Committee may authorize any agent or agents to carry out their duties, and may employ such counsel, auditors, and other specialists and such clerical, actuarial and other services as it may require in carrying out the provisions of the Fund.
- C. Notification of Mailing Address - Each member and other person entitled to benefits hereunder shall from time to time file with the Conference, in writing, such persons post office address and change of post office address. Any check representing any payment due hereunder, and any communication forwarded to a member or beneficiary at the last known address as indicated by the records of the Conference shall constitute adequate payment to such person and be binding on such person for all purposes of the plan. The Conference, Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and Hearing Committee shall not be under any obligation to search for or ascertain the whereabouts of any such person.

- D. Unclaimed Benefits - If any benefits payable to, or on behalf of, a member are not claimed within a reasonable period of time from the date of entitlement, as determined by the Hearing Committee, and if the member cannot be located at his or her last provided mailing address, such member shall be presumed dead and the post-death benefits, if any, under this plan shall be paid to his or her beneficiary if he or she is then living and can be located. If the members beneficiary is not then living or cannot be located, or if no beneficiary was effectively named, the member's account shall be forfeited and treated as dividends pursuant to Article VII.
- E. Facility of Payment - Whenever, in the Hearing Committees opinion, a person entitled to receive any payment of a benefit under the plan is under a legal disability or is incapacitated in any way so as to be unable to manage such person's financial affairs, the Hearing Committee may, to the extent permitted by law, make payments directly to the person, to the person's legal representative, or to a relative or friend of the person to be used exclusively for such person's benefit, or apply any such payment for the benefit of the person in such manner as the Hearing Committee deems advisable. Any benefit payment (or installment thereof) made in accordance with the provisions of this shall completely discharge the obligation for making such payment under the plan.
- F. Commingling of Assets - The assets of the Fund may be commingled in a common fund made up of such accounts or in a common fund with other amounts exclusively devoted to church purposes, provided that the part of such fund which equitably belongs to the plan shall be separately accounted for and cannot be used for or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of employees and their beneficiaries. The reasonable costs of administering an account may be charged against the account. Such costs may include the reasonable costs of administering a retirement income program of which the account is a part, including costs associated with informing employees and employers of the availability of the program.
- G. Governing Law - This plan shall be administered, and its validity, construction, and all rights hereunder shall be governed by the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and by the laws of the State of North Carolina to the extent not in conflict with such Book of Discipline. If any provisions of the plan shall be held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions hereof shall continue to be fully effective.
- H. Limitations on Liability - The Conference, Conference Treasurer, Board of Pensions and members of the Hearing Committee shall not be liable to any person or entity for any of their acts carried out hereunder in good faith and based upon the information available at the time.

The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. is an independent, non-profit corporation, related by faith to the North Carolina Conference through the Board of Institutions. Strengthened by its faith connection and a rich tradition of excellence in Stewardship Ministry, the Foundation is chartered to serve only the churches, missions, agencies and institutions of the North Carolina Annual Conference. INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES

All funds entrusted with the Foundation are invested according to the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church as guided by the Statement of Investment Guidelines (Revised Edition 11/99) of the Investment Committee of the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church. The Consulting Group of Salomon Smith Barney provides the Foundation with investment consultation and management services. Seven professional investment fund managers, employed by the Foundation's Board of Directors and reporting to the Investment Consultant, successfully accomplish the day-to-day management of the Foundation's total assets.

EDUCATION AND ENDOWMENT BUILDING SERVICES

While the Foundation's Investment Management Service provides valuable support for Ministry throughout the Church and the North Carolina Conference, the heart of the Foundation's mission is its Planned Giving and Endowment Building Services. These "donor-focused / Church-building" services provide specialized planning and "technical" assistance helping individuals and their legal, tax and financial advisors accomplishing their charitable goals.

Additionally, the Foundation serves as trustee for many individual Family Endowments and life-income Gift Plans producing charitable remainder benefits for a variety of ministries within the Church. As Trustee of these special funds, the Foundation is responsible to assure that all charitable remainder amounts and Endowment Fund earnings support the ministries selected by the donor.

While the past two years have presented significant investment management challenges for United Methodist Foundation – an investment market volatility and loss not seen in over 75 years of market history - the future continues to hold bright promise. Long term, permanently endowed church funds will continue to grow in value and active Church Endowment Programs will provide the vehicle for this growth. Beginning in 2003, the Foundation will offer a new investment fund accounting and reporting system that will provide its Investment Partners with a more comprehensive quarterly reports. Also beginning in 2003 a new Income Fund investment option, complementing the Foundation's diversified Balanced Fund, will be offered to provide more consistent income in support of mission and ministry. Perhaps most important, however are the education and planned giving services helping church leaders and lay members build future financial resources for ministry within their local United Methodist Church and beyond.

The Board expresses grateful appreciation to four of its members: To Lloyd M. Whaley who, as President for the past eight years, has guided the Foundation through significant and important management changes. He steps down from the position of President but will continue serving on the Board with a fifth term. To Rev. Reginald W. Ponder who retires after 10 consecutive years of Board leadership – this time. He has served other terms on the Foundation Board as a member and representative in various capacities of leadership over his 43 years as a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference. To Marvin L. Barnes, who retires after providing eight years business expertise and leadership on the Foundation Board. Marvin is President and CEO of M. M. Fowler, Inc. of Durham, is a member of Epworth United Methodist Church and is also on the Board on United Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. And to Mr. Frank Bullock who retires after serving on the Foundation Board since 1997. Frank is a business entrepreneur living in Henderson North Carolina and a member of Trinity UMC in Durham.

United Methodist Foundation welcomes opportunities to assist individuals and their families wishing to create special gift plans that benefit their local church, Conference Institution or other additional ministry of the Church. The Foundation encourages local churches to strengthen their stewardship programs by including planned giving and endowment programs as a part of their overall stewardship program.

The Board of Directors and staff of United Methodist Foundation wish to express sincere appreciation to all Investment Partners for their ongoing support of the stewardship ministry of United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Of special importance is the support from Conference, District and Church clergy whose leadership and initiative provide significantly to the success of the Foundation's overall stewardship ministry.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Candler School of Theology is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition of evangelical piety, ecumenical openness, and social concerns. Its mission is to educate—through scholarship, teaching, and service—faithful and creative leaders for the church’s ministries in the world.

These purposes define Candler’s role as a school of the university and of the church. I begin by mentioning this because Candler faces the challenge and opportunity of leading a national research university in rediscovering what it might mean to relate to a major denomination. And I am happy to report to you that we are making very real progress in this complex and precious relationship.

Most dramatically, Emory and Candler received from the Lilly Endowment Inc. a grant for $10,000,000 for a doctoral venture in religious practices and practical theology. The United Methodist News Service release (<http://www.umns.umc.org/02/sep/427.htm>) only hints at the importance of this grant. No fields in theological education are more vital to ministerial training and formation than those that work at the connection of school and church, vocation and leadership, theory and practice. Yet schools find faculty for these fields—preaching, worship, pastoral care, religious education, evangelism, administration—with great difficulty or cover these areas with adjunct faculty or content themselves with persons whose credentials and scholarship do not equal those in the more classical areas. This grant will make it possible for Candler through the Graduate Division of Religion to recruit superb persons into the practical theological fields and to provide them the training that will make them the future leaders of theological education.

Candler has continued to make extraordinary faculty appointments. Dr. Robert Franklin, previously president of the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta and commentator on National Public Radio, will re-join us next fall as Emory's Presidential Distinguished Professor of Social Ethics. Dr. Alice Rogers, a leading pastor in the North Georgia Conference, came last summer to direct our Teaching Parish (student pastor) program. We welcomed as well Dr. David Petersen, a highly distinguished member of the Old Testament guild, long-time faculty member at Iliff and the newly chosen President-Elect of the Society of Biblical Literature. And Dr. Faith Hawkins, an Emory Ph.D., has returned to Candler and is providing remarkable leadership in our Youth Theological Initiative (YTI).

YTI celebrated its tenth anniversary this past fall with a conference for practitioners. The three day event reflected on ten year's experience of gathering young people from across the country every summer for a four week experience in thinking and acting in an environment that encourages serious theological and ethical reflection on God's place in all of life. The conference generated great excitement about the future of youth ministry. Candler also received refunding for YTI in the amount of $2,182,200. This grant from the Lilly Endowment will cover the next four years of the program. Lilly has told us that this will be their last grant to us for this program, so we are searching now for endowment and annual fund support to ensure its continuation.

Candler was very pleased that Bishop Lindsey Davis appointed Dr. Wesley Wachob to Glenn Memorial Church on the Emory campus with a commitment to continue the effort to better connect that congregation with the University. Wachob served previously as senior minister in Mobile and as chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry of the Alabama-West Florida Conference. Wachob and the church have agreed that he might teach on occasion and Candler has appointed him as an adjunct faculty member. To read more about Dr. Wachob and his Candler appointment, please visit the following web site at Emory: http://www.emory.edu/EMORY_REPORT/erarchive/2002/October/erOct.7/

We continue to enhance our continuing and church education efforts under the able leadership of the Rev. Beth Luton Cook. January 6-8 we offered a conference Celebrating and Revisioning the Wesleyan Movements featuring Dr. William B. McClain as Whiteside preacher and lecturer, plus Drs. Richard Heitzenrater, Rebekah Miles, Randy Maddox, Mary Elizabeth Moore, Stephen Gunter, Carlton "Sam" Young, and Mercy A. Oduyoye. Continuing education has also offered the church a new Mini Theology School, through the Bill Mallard Lay Theology Institute; summer and year-long Courses of Study; conferences on Spiritual Guides and the Great Commission; and Covenant Colleagues, an experiment in sustained continuing education. Note especially the next continuing education and alumni/ae event, a preaching festival scheduled for September 16-19, 2003, featuring our Bandy professors, Fred Craddock, Robert Kysar and Thomas Long.

Candler continues to be a pacesetter in addressing student indebtedness and in aid to ministerial candidates. Over the 2001-02 academic year we awarded $4,191,298 in scholarships, of which only $978,010 derived from the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF). In addition we administered $978,842 of externally conferred scholarships, a total of over five million in grants, and roughly nine million in aid total. With such resources we are now able to provide full tuition awards to many United Methodist students who have demonstrated financial need. The MEF remains key to that commitment, as does the generosity of the Cannons, Shermans, Pitts, Hardins, Franks, McDonalds, Garretts, Quenelles and so many others whose benefactions have made such support possible. Even with these resources our students borrowed $3,566,398 last year, so our quest for additional support continues.

Another strong class matriculated this fall bringing student enrollment to 562. Of these 422 are M.Div., 87% of whom are full time and 46% of whom are under 30. The

M.Div. population is half male, half female, 28% American ethnic, and 5% international. Forty-seven conferences are represented by our United Methodist students, 77% of whom are from the Southeastern Jurisdiction. The diversity and the talent of these folk make Candler an exciting place for ministerial formation.

We are very proud that Barbara Day Miller, assistant dean of worship and lecturer in liturgical practices, has been named music director for the 2004 General Conference. We are also proud of our faculty, who week-in-week-out speak, preach, conduct workshops, teach Sunday school throughout the church.

For more information about Candler, our extraordinary faculty and dedicated students preparing for ministerial leadership, I hope that you will bookmark: <http://candler.emory.edu/ABOUT/news.html>

I thank you for the church's partnership with us. Candler appreciates your support, your gifts and your prayers for the work we are about.

DISCIPLE BIBLE OUTREACH MINISTRIES

Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of North Carolina, Inc., continues its history of exciting ministry. Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries currently manages the following four ministries:

Local Church DISCIPLE Ministry develops strong DISCIPLE Bible Study ministries in the local churches of North Carolina and provides financial assistance to small membership, rural and ethnic minority congregations.

DISCIPLE Prison Ministry is active in 55 prisons in North Carolina including men, women and youth prisons. Presently almost 300 volunteers from 80 churches are certified Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries volunteers.

Faithful Friends offers friendship, encouragement and spiritual support to ex-offenders involved in DISCIPLE while in prison, during the first year of release.

Rings of Fellowship is a new program developed by Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries in partnership with the North Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. Rings of Fellowship offer at-risk youth the opportunity to learn the Bible and provide community support for incarcerated youth returning home.

As a ministry related in faith to the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences, Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries is dependent on the generous support of churches and individuals throughout the state. Our ministry is not possible without these gifts. Through these gifts, however, Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries will continue to change lives both the prisons and pews with the transforming power of scripture. It is our prayer that more and more individuals and churches will become partners with Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries and join its mission to offer the Good News of the Gospel to a world in need.

DIVINITY SCHOOL OF DUKE UNIVERSITY

Duke University trustees gave final approval to a major addition to the Divinity School in late December and construction began in early 2003. The addition will include the 315-seat Goodson Chapel; offices for the Duke Institute on Care at the End of Life, admissions and student services, Duke Chapel music staff and the Divinity School chaplain; classrooms, seminar rooms and a lecture hall seating 177; a Cokesbury book store; a preaching and worship lab, a prayer room and a sacristy. The 2nd Mile Campaign was organized to complete funding for the new building.

Enrollment for 2002-03 was 488 full-time students from 30 states and 8 foreign countries. Some 54 percent were men and 46 percent were women with an ethnic minority enrollment of 18 percent and a median age of 26, among the youngest in the nation for theological schools. Fifty-six percent of the students (62 percent of M.Div. candidates) were United Methodist. The median undergraduate grade point average for the fall 2002 class was 3.5 and inquiries for enrollment in fall 2003 were running at an all-time high, including more than 1,000 through the Web site alone in the first five months after the new site launched in October.

The school introduced the full-color, Divinity magazine for alumni and friends in spring 2002.

The expanding Learning for Life program provided 2 million contact hours in 24 programs for 2,752 continuing education participants. Convocation & Pastors' School attendance has climbed to record numbers during the past five years, including 515 in 2002. The first College Weekend brought 43 undergraduate students from 17 colleges and universities to campus for discussions on vocation.

The Duke Institute on Care at the End of Life took its acclaimed "Crossing Over Jordan" symposium on African-American end-of-life care to Chicago, Detroit and Philadelphia. Caring Communities was formed to support the development and sustenance of health ministry programs in the Carolinas with support from The Duke Endowment.

Professor Richard Hays delivered the Gray Lectures and in early 2003 delivered his inaugural lecture as the George Washington Ivey Professor of New Testament. Professor Grant Wacker's book, "Heaven Below: Early Pentecostals and American Culture," won national honors from the American Academy of Religion.

Pulpit & Pew: Research on Pastoral Leadership published research reports titled "Women's Path into Ministry" and "How Much Should We Pay the Pastor." The project also released findings from the National Clergy Survey, the most comprehensive survey of clergy undertaken in several decades.

The Campaign for Duke continues to engage graduates and friends in support of ministerial leadership, and we are deeply grateful for the generous commitments that enable and enhance our work. We recently initiated Associates for Transforming Ministry, a program that provides direct financial aid for students and works with local churches to help with discernment of the call to Christian service.

GOLDEN CROSS

"Golden Cross" is a ministry that reaches out in love to the laity in our Annual Conference who are experiencing financial difficulty due to excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross, United Methodists care for members of our local churches in time of emotional stress and financial need. During 2002 we assisted 39 families from 10 of our 12 districts. Each one represented someone active in their local church. People just like each of us, who in a moment of struggle found means of grace and love coming from "their" church.

Golden Cross is a special ministry of love and care that reaches out across our Conference. Please remember that sometimes the needs that cross my desk challenge the funds we have available. In 2003 the Golden Cross budget is $19,125.00. However, in 2002 we spent $42,981.00. We were able to do that because we had a carry over surplus from the last several years. But now the surplus is gone. Obviously Golden Cross cannot continue to do this and this year I will more than likely have to deny some heartbreaking claims because of the lack of funding. This is where you can help. If you can, take a special offering one Sunday and send that offering to Golden Cross c/o Caroline Thornton, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605. Some of our churches have done that, and I would like to publicly thank those who have in the past year.

Now if I can just get the rest of our churches to do the same we will be able to meet the needs of some very special lay people in our United Methodist Churches. Thank you and God Bless.

HAND IN HAND

The Hand in Hand Project promotes and initiates partnerships between schools and communities of faith in local communities across the state of North Carolina. The project is a collaborative effort of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences of the United Methodist Church, the Methodist Home for Children and the Children's Home, and Communities in Schools of NC and is funded by a grant from The Duke Endowment. This initiative was developed in response to the Bishop's Initiative on Children and Poverty.

The goal of the project for the North Carolina Conference, during the first three years, was to develop a solid training program, to initiate pilot sites and as many church-school partnerships as possible. In the first year, pilot sites were initiated in Whiteville and in Jones County. The following year we initiated two additional model sites in Louisburg and Lee County. Two of the pilot/model sites have developed into community-wide ministries and have given birth to local Communities in Schools programs. Throughout the project, now in its fourth year, churches in all districts have been trained. Three such sites received The Lay Ministry of the Year for their districts in 2002. These were St. Luke, Jonesboro, and McQueen's Chapel in the Sanford District, Morehead City First UMC in the New Bern District and Winstead UMC in the Rocky Mount District.

This report reflects numbers from the Charge Conference reports that have been received to date. Therefore, the numbers reflected in this report will be conservative. Our hope is to reflect a glimpse of the success of the project as it continues to exceed our expectations. 120 churches report that they are in partnership this year. (This report includes only those who have responded electronically to The Charge Conference reports.) Our last full year report was made to The Duke Endowment in June of 2002. At this time there were 80 churches in ministry, we served 6116 students, with 1168 being served one on one, and we supported 1,980 staff members through prayer and celebration.

We have seen the positive results from within those churches that begin a ministry and certainly from the schools receiving support and most importantly our prayers. The Hand in Hand Project has truly made a positive statement about the faith and the beliefs of The United Methodist Church in the communities and in the schools in which it has been initiated. Our enthusiasm for this work continues as we see the differences that are being made in the lives of our children, in our congregations, in our communities, and in our schools, and in ourselves.

NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

For more than sixty-five years, the North Carolina Council of Churches has given witness to our oneness in Christ and enabled us to work together on issues of justice, compassion, and peace. Our members are the North Carolina judicatories of fifteen Christian denominations, along with six congregations whose judicatory is not a Council member.

Recent and current activities include:

- Voicing the support of people of faith for peace.

- Planning “The Prophetic Voice of the African-American Church: Growing the Next Generation of Activists.” Keynoter will be Dr. Bill Turner from the Duke Divinity School.
- Conducting the 2003 Legislative Seminar. The theme was “Promoting the Common Good: People Come First.”
- Publishing Raleigh Report to guide the efforts of faith-based legislative activists. Last year we worked together for the first-ever defeat of the lottery in the state House of Representatives.
- Promoting the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.
- Working with Bishop Edwards for an ecumenical dialogue which was held at Duke Divinity School and featured Professor Geoffrey Wainwright.
- Organizing FaithWorks, the NC Council/Habitat for Humanity partnership to build 100 houses in rural North Carolina during the next three years.
- Sponsoring a speaking tour by Rev. Sally Bingham, of Episcopal Power & Light, and assisting in the development of a “green power” program to be offered by electric utilities.
- Developing new work in the area of economic justice.
- Refurbishing the Council’s website. Visit us at <www.nccouncilofchurches.org>.

We are extremely grateful for the North Carolina Conference’s decision to restore funding to the Council and for the $16,000 which we have received. And we are grateful for those who serve on the Council’s committees and boards. Current leaders of the Council include Hope Morgan Ward, First Vice-President; Charles Smith, Personnel Committee chair; Steve Hickle, at-large Executive Board member; and Joe Mann, Rural Life Committee chair.

George Reed, Executive Director

OUTDOOR AND CAMPING MINISTRIES

Outdoor and Camping Ministries is “a form of Christian education”, “a means of evangelism”, “a source of Christian spiritual formation”, “an extension of the local church”, “a setting for Christian environmental education”, and more. Each of those definitions are explanations for our ministry which we and the North Carolina Annual Conference have used for over 50 years to define our historic and innovative work. Each label is an attempt to sum up the life-changing experiences that children, youth, and adults have enjoyed—and continue to experience—through the ministries of Outdoor and Camping Ministries. The Board of Directors for this ministry characterizes our work as a calling. Whether one of the 20 members of the Board, one of the 15 fulltime professional staff, one of the 90 members of our local camp advisory committees, or one of the more than 200 seasonal staff who serve in one of the many ministries we sponsor through the course of a year, each person involved in outdoor and camping ministries has responded to a call to Christian service through the camps related to our conference. Our calling in that service is to make disciples for Jesus Christ.

Our ministry takes many forms: traditional summer camping, retreats, conferences, special events and schools, day camping, and other ministries. Innovation is essential for us to continue to renew and to sustain our ministry in a time of increasing competition for the attention, time, and money of camp-goers. We are truly grateful for all the support the annual conference gives our ministries. Local church people who direct campers, retreat groups, counselors, staff, funding, and leaders to our camps are crucial in our continued success. Thank you for your help.

Our Board of Directors is taking the strong steps necessary to insure that our camps are organized, managed, and funded in such a manner that we will continue successful ministry for years to come. These steps include the formation of two new standing committees, one group for board development and one for fund development. We are in the process of engaging a nationally recognized camping and retreat ministries consultant to assist us in an assessment of the current condition of our camps and to help us ready plans for our future.

Remember our ministries in your prayers and thank our God that we share together in ministries for people of all ages to celebrate and to savor the wonders of God's creation.

RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTION 1: AMENDING THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINES'S PARAGRAPH ON ABORTION (161 J)

WHEREAS, the Church through the ages has consistently witnessed and ministered to protect the unborn child and mother from abortion;

WHEREAS, in continuity with past Christian teaching, The United Methodist Church declares belief in "the sanctity of unborn human life" and "the sacredness of the life and well-being of the mother" (The Book of Discipline, Paragraph 161J);

WHEREAS, Paragraph 161J, as presently written, has allowed the General Board of Church and Society and the General Board of Global Ministries/Women's Division to promote and support pro-choice law and politics, which clearly contradict the teaching and practice of historic Christianity, as well as "the sanctity of unborn human life" (The Book of Discipline, Paragraph 161J);

WHEREAS, The Book of Discipline's Paragraph 161J, if amended as below, can clearly lead The United Methodist Church — including bishops, clergy, and laity — to rejoice in historic Christianity on life and abortion in aspiring to protect the unborn child and mother;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 2003 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church hereby charges its Conference Secretary, using the entire rationale stated above, to petition, in a timely and appropriate manner, the 2004 General Conference to amend Paragraph 161 of The Book of Discipline to read: "J) Abortion—The beginning of life and the ending of life are the God-given boundaries of human existence. While individuals have always had some degree of control over when they would die, they now have the awesome power to determine when and even whether new individuals will be born. Our belief in the sanctity of unborn human life makes us reluctant to approve abortion. We are equally bound to respect the sacredness of the life and well-being of the mother, for whom devastating damage may result from abortion. While acknowledging, in continuity with past Christian teaching, that all human life is a gift from God, we recognize tragic conflicts of life with life that may seem to justify abortion. But we cannot affirm abortion, especially as an acceptable means of birth control, and we unconditionally reject it as a means of gender selection. We oppose the use of late-term abortion known as dilation and extraction (partial-birth abortion) and call for the end of this practice except when the physical life of the mother is in danger. We call all Christians to a searching and prayerful inquiry into whether there are conditions that may warrant abortion. We commit our Church to continue to provide nurturing ministries to those who terminate a pregnancy, to those in the midst of a crisis pregnancy, and to those who give birth. Governmental laws and regulations do not provide all the guidance required by the informed Christian conscience. Therefore, a decision concerning abortion should be made only after thoughtful and prayerful consideration by the parties involved, with medical, pastoral, and other appropriate counsel.”

RESOLUTION 2: WITHDRAWING THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH FROM THE RELIGIOUS COALITION FOR REPRODUCTIVE CHOICE

WHEREAS, the General Board of Church and Society and the General Board of Global Ministries/Women's Division are presently members of the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice (RCRC);

WHEREAS, the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice advances:

(1) an absolute sexual and reproductive freedom (including abortion): “Your sexuality is a blessing, not a curse, and your need to express it is to be honored, not despised... You, and no one else, are ‘called’ to figure out what this unwanted pregnancy is about. And you are to do it without guilt or shame...” (RCRC’s Considering Abortion? Clarifying What You Believe, p. 3)

(2) the idea of the person as a sovereign moral agent isolated from others, from Christian community, and from tradition: “...place both hands over your heart and imagine or remember a time when you were feeling full of love, relaxed, and happy. Notice how your body responds. Where in your body do you experience sensations of warmth, relaxation, softening, and expansiveness? This is where your Truth resides. Listen to this place as you seek to discover what is right for you...” (RCRC’s Abortion: Finding Your Own Truth)

(3) the trivialization of the moral status of unborn human life: “The biblical portrait of person, therefore, is that of a complex, many-sided creature with godlike abilities and the moral responsibility to make choices. The fetus hardly meets those characteristics... The abortion question focuses on the personhood of the women, who in turn considers the potential personhood of the fetus in terms of the multiple dimensions of her own history and future.” (Paul Simmons in RCRC’s Prayerfully Pro-Choice: Resources for Worship, p. 117)

(4) the legitimacy of abortion as a means of birth control: “The bottom line is that if someone does not want to have a child they should not be forced into it.” (Whoopi Goldberg quoted approvingly in RCRC’s Prayerfully Pro-Choice: Resources for Worship, p. 35)

(5) the holiness of abortion: “...a woman has made a good and holy decision to have an abortion.” (Diann L. Neu’s “Affirming a Choice” liturgy in RCRC’s Prayerfully Pro-Choice: Resources for Worship, p. 82)

(6) a pro-choice God who blesses all human decisions: “You are to claim your godlike, God-given role in creation by saying yes or no, secure in the knowledge that whatever you decide, after having honestly sought what is right, God will bless.” (RCRC’s Considering Abortion? Clarifying What You Believe, p. 7)

(The above agenda points and representative quotations are from Holy Abortion? A Theological Critique of the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice, by Michael J. Gorman and Ann Loar Brooks, Wipf and Stock Publishers, Eugene OR, 2003)

WHEREAS, the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice’s moral and theological agenda contradicts The United Methodist Church’s teaching on sexuality, life, and abortion at each of the aforementioned points:

Resolutions

- (1) on an absolute sexual and reproductive freedom: “Although all persons are sexual beings whether or not they are married, sexual relations are only clearly affirmed in the marriage bond.” (The Book of Discipline, Social Principles, Paragraph 161G) “We cannot affirm abortion as an acceptable means of birth control, and we unconditionally reject it as a means of gender selection.” (The Book of Discipline, Social Principles, Paragraph 161J)
- (2) on the idea of the person as a sovereign moral agent in isolation: “...a decision concerning abortion should be made only after thoughtful and prayerful consideration by the parties involved, with medical, pastoral, and other appropriate counsel.” (The Book of Discipline, Social Principles, Paragraph 161J)
- (3) on the trivialization of the moral status of unborn human life: “Our belief in the sanctity of unborn human life makes us reluctant to approve abortion.” (The Book of Discipline, Social Principles, Paragraph 161J)
- (4) on the legitimacy of abortion as a means of birth control: “We cannot affirm abortion as an acceptable means of birth control...” (The Book of Discipline, Social Principles, Paragraph 161J)
- (5) on the holiness of abortion: “Our belief in the sanctity of unborn human life makes us reluctant to approve abortion.” (emphasis added, The Book of Discipline, Social Principles, Paragraph 161J)
- (6) on a pro-choice God who blesses all decisions: “...no Christian whatsoever is free from the obedience of the commandments which are called moral.” (The Book of Discipline, Article VI of The Articles of Religion, Paragraph 103)

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 2003 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church hereby charges its Conference Secretary, using the entire rationale stated above, to petition, in a timely and appropriate manner, the 2004 General Conference to withdraw immediately the General Board of Church and Society and the General Board of Global Ministries/Women’s Division from the membership of the Religious Coalition of Reproductive Rights, and to prohibit any United Methodist agency, board, commission, or entity from supporting and/or joining the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice (or any other organization dedicated to pro-choice education, research, and/or advocacy).

ACTION: ADOPTED

RESOLUTION 3: REQUESTING THAT GENERAL CONFERENCE CLARIFY AND STRENGTHEN OUR OPPOSITION TO LATE TERM ABORTIONS.

WHEREAS, The United Methodist Church declares belief in “the sanctity of unborn human life” and “the sacredness of the life and well-being of the mother” (2000 Book of Discipline, Paragraph 161J);

WHEREAS, Paragraph 161J, as presently written, opposes “the use of late term abortion known as dilation and extraction (partial birth abortion)”;

WHEREAS, abortions between 21 and 25 weeks are considered late second-trimester, while those at 26 weeks and older are considered third-trimester. All babies at or beyond 21 weeks gestation are entering the realm of viability, with their chances of survival outside the womb increasing between 10 and 20 percent with each passing week. By 27 weeks, viability is “presumed,” according to the American Medical Association;

WHEREAS, dilation and extraction (D&X) is only one type of abortion that kills viable babies. Even if this procedure is totally done away with, another type of late-term abortion—one so violent that many abortionists actually prefer the partial-birth procedure to it—will remain legal. While we remain opposed to partial-birth abortion, we should add to the Discipline opposition to the “dilation and evacuation” (D&E) method, in which preborn infants are violently torn apart piece by piece until “evacuated” from the womb. Partial birth abortion (D&X) is utilized in between one third and a little over one half of all late term abortions, depending on the source of information. The dilation and extraction method is used for the rest.

WHEREAS, in our concern for the health of the mothers we note that late second- and third-trimester abortions carry with them an increased risk of infection, bleeding abnormality and blood loss, and post-delivery retention of the placenta requiring later surgical removal, and where the risk of death is 2.5 times the risk of maternal death from childbirth; (Statistics provided by analysis of data from the AMA and the CDC by WORLD, "Piece-by-Piece Abortion", Feb. 1, 2003 issue.)

WHEREAS, in including in our position a clause for exceptions, we have allowed space for boards and agencies within the connection to thwart the central thought of our present position by opposing any legislative restrictions on abortions, including bans on partial birth abortions (& therefore standing against what is otherwise stated in this paragraph);

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 2003 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church hereby charges its Conference Secretary, using the entire rationale stated above, to petition in a timely and appropriate manner, the 2004 General Conference to amend Paragraph 161 section J of The Book of Discipline to revise the following section of said paragraph to read as follows:

"In recognition of the viability and near viability of the child in the late second trimester and the third trimester, and out of concern for the increased health risks to a mother of such a child should she have an abortion, Wwe categorically oppose the use of late-term abortions known , including but not limited to procedures such as dilation and extraction (partial birth abortion) and "dilation and evacuation" (D&E), and call for the end of this practice any such procedure performed on what is otherwise a viable or near viable person except when the physical life of the mother is in danger and no other medical procedure is available, or in the case of severe anomalies incompatible with life ."

ACTION: COMBINED WITH RESOLUTION 1 AND 16

RESOLUTION 4: PASTORAL SAFETY NET FOUNDATION

Whereas clergy persons predictably experience times of crisis which require assistance in the form of spiritual direction, treatment, and/or therapy whose costs are not covered by our Conference insurance program, or our Clergy Counseling services, and

Whereas sufficient emergency funds are currently not available for clergy or congregations to meet these exceptional needs, and

Whereas it is the Christian responsibility of congregations and the Connection to properly care for our shepherds when they undergo times of great need,

Therefore, be it resolved that a Pastoral Safety Net Foundation be established to develop and oversee funds from which the income will be dispersed to pastors with special needs as specified by guidelines in the charter of said Foundation, and

Be it further resolved that Bishop Marion Edwards appoint a special task force to develop guidelines and an action plan by the 2004 session of Annual Conference.

ACTION: ADOPTED

RESOLUTION 5: A MORE ACCESSIBLE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Whereas a Monday through Thursday Annual Conference is favorable for the self-employed, retired or otherwise upper management laity. And

Whereas such a schedule shuts out younger members of congregations and those who are not easily able to leave employment for most of a whole week. And

Whereas our beginning as a church was among the working people from both city and country from coal pits to hinterlands,

Therefore be it resolved that the North Carolina come up with a schedule that is weighted towards average working people and easier for young people to attend by including weekend days in each session.

ACTION: TAKEN UNDER CONSIDERATION BY THE BISHOP

RESOLUTION 6: DIALOGUE ABOUT THE MIDDLE EAST

Whereas our nation is currently involved both militarily and diplomatically in conflicts in the Middle East. And

Whereas debates about the our policy in the Middle East has often shed more heat than light. And

Whereas that region is the home of the three great monotheistic faiths-Judaism, Christianity and Islam. And

Whereas we live in an increasingly interconnected world that puts us in closer touch with our brothers and sisters of other faiths.

Therefore be it resolved for a better understanding of the Middle East we the North Carolina Annual Conference call on the Commission on Church and Society or any other appropriate body to form a task force to develop a comprehensive dialogue for a better understanding of the Middle East including its history, cultures and the religions

And it further be resolved that all necessary resources be made available including contact with local universities, natives from that region and faith organizations.

And it finally be resolved that the dialogue material be passed on to the districts and local churches.

ACTION: DEFEATED

RESOLUTION 7: BETTER TREATMENT FOR WORKERS

Whereas John Wesley started his ministry in coal pits of England. And

Whereas The United Methodist Church has historically stood behind the rights of workers including the right to collective bargaining (see first "social principles," 1908). And

Whereas there has been a steady erosion in employees wages while the compensation of upper management has risen steadily. And

Whereas employers such as Wal Mart have been openly active in preventing any attempt for employees to organize. And

Whereas only 38 percent of Wal Mart employees can afford their health insurance . And

Whereas Wal Mart has often illegally forced employees to work overtime and lost a class action lawsuit because of such practices.

Therefore be it resolved we the North Carolina Annual Conference ask the General Board Of Church and Society to investigated the labor practices of Wal Mart. And

Be it further resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference Commission on Church and Society ask Wal Mart and other large retailers about their labor practices, and report findings to Annual Conference in 2004.

ACTION: DEFEATED

RESOLUTION 8: HEALTH CARE REFORM

Whereas 41 million people in the United States continue to be without any health insurance. And

Whereas according to the National Children's Defense Fund most of those without health insurance continue to be children.

And

Whereas the United States continues to be one of the few modern industrialized nations without a system of national health insurance. And

Whereas in paragraph 162T the United Methodist Church recognizes the right to health care.

Therefore be it resolved we the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church call on the state of North Carolina and the government of the United States to develop a system of health care insurance that is universally accessible, affordable and covers physical, mental and dental health.

ACTION: ADOPTED

RESOLUTION 9: SUPPORTING THE UNITED NATIONS

Whereas we face many evils in this world-war, hunger, and poverty. And

Whereas historically only when nations have banded together have these threats to peace and justice have been defeated or made less threatening. And

Whereas we as a church has stood by the idea of collective security and peace making. And

Whereas paragraph 165D of the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church supports the work of the United Nations.

Therefore be it resolved that North Carolina Annual Conference supports encourages the government of the United States participation in the United Nations. And Be it further resolved we encourage our government to include significant support for the United Nations. And

Be it finally resolved that our government make a more strenuous effort to exhaust diplomatic efforts through the United Nations in future conflicts.

ACTION: ADOPTED

RESOLUTION 10: SUPPORTING THE MISSION AND MINISTRY OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Christian Advocate will celebrate its 150th anniversary in 2005, as an independent publication of the Board of Publications, Inc, a joint ministry of the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference, and

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference are seeking ways to support the newspaper and undergird this tool for ministry across North Carolina,

THE Board of Publications, Inc. proposes

1) That churches throughout the North Carolina Conference designate November as a special month for promotion of the North Carolina Christian Advocate in their local churches, and

2) That each local church select, as part of its charge conference report, a representative for the North Carolina Christian Advocate, to promote the newspaper among its membership and be responsible for forwarding subscriptions and news to the North Carolina Christian Advocate office, and enter this name into the Conference On-Line Data Collection system, and

Resolutions

3) That local church members in the North Carolina Conference be encouraged to support the North Carolina Christian Advocate by subscribing to it, and

4) That all clergy and lay members across the North Carolina Conference support the North Carolina Christian Advocate by lifting its ministries up in prayer, by encouraging its work, by supporting it financially, and by celebrating its service to the church connection.

ACTION: ADOPTED

RESOLUTION 11: CALLING THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE TO SUPPORT THE CONTINUANCE AND EXPANSION OF IGNITING MINISTRY

WHEREAS, the mission and ministry of The United Methodist Church is to proclaim the gospel and to make disciples; and

WHEREAS, the role of the church's General Commission on Communication is to promote the beliefs, mission and unique qualities of The United Methodist Church, and to share the experiences of its members by telling their stories of faith; and

WHEREAS, the initial phase of Igniting Ministry has caused United Methodists to join hands in evangelism and welcoming ministries, resulting in unchurched individuals and families visiting United Methodist congregations; and

WHEREAS, we serve a global church in which the media, including television, radio and the World Wide Web, unite its citizens and heighten their interdependence in an unprecedented fashion; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the potential of United Methodist youth to ensure the future of the church by actively inviting other youth into involvement in their ministries; and

WHEREAS, United Methodist Communications proposes sustaining the three established annual flights of Igniting Ministry television commercials and expanding it by 22 weeks of spots on broadcast and cable news; developing resources to invite youth (ages 14-18) into discipleship; and extending the church's impact to its Central Conferences; and

WHEREAS, these 2005-08 extensions, when funded, will enable Igniting Ministry to reach greater numbers of unchurched people; to ensure high and steady year round awareness of United Methodism and interest in visiting a congregation; to offer marketing and advertising materials to expand ministry to youth; and to extend culture appropriate messages of hope, redemption and outreach to United Methodists in Africa, Europe, Asia, and the South Pacific; and

WHEREAS, two years of independent market research by the Barna Research Group, Inc., indicates an awareness level among adults 25-54 of 16 percent (three fourths of the four-year 20 percent goal in just half the time); willingness to attend a United Methodist church expressed by 46 percent of non-members who saw the ads; and first time attendance at 56 percent and total attendance at 12 percent over 2000 figures;

THEREFORE Be It Resolved, that the 2003 North Carolina Annual Conference requests that the 2004 General Conference support the funding of the continuation and expansion of the Igniting Ministry campaign.

ACTION: ADOPTED

RESOLUTION 12: A MEMORIAL TO GENERAL CONFERENCE DEMOCRATIZING THE NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE

Whereas most committee chairpersons of the local church are elected by the charge conference. And

Whereas the nominations committee is the only one where the pastor is the chair. And

Whereas there are few instances where the chief executive officer gets to perform such a function. And

Whereas lay people do have the capacity to lead and discern their brothers and sisters gifts for ministry.

Therefore be it resolved that the chairperson of the nominations committee of the local be elected by the charge conference and the pastor serves in an ex officio capacity.

ACTION: DEFEATED

RESOLUTION 13: TIMING OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Whereas the North Carolina Annual Conference is designed to be a time of celebration, reporting, and deliberation among both clergy and laity, and

Whereas lay members attend Annual Conference as non-compensated volunteers, and

Whereas many lay members must take time away from work—either as non-paid leave or as part of their limited vacation days, thus requiring additional sacrifice for their families, and

Whereas in previous years a balance has been struck between the needs of laity and the needs of clergy by having Annual Conference encompass part of a work-week and part of a weekend,

Therefore, be it resolved that Annual Conference convene no earlier than Thursday of Conference week beginning in 2004.

ACTION: TAKE UNDER CONSIDERATION BY THE BISHOP

RESOLUTION 14: A CALL TO END SEXUAL HARASSMENT OF LESBIAN AND GAY INDIVIDUALS BY THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

WHEREAS, Jesus Christ commanded us to judge not that we may not be judged; told us to love our neighbors as ourselves; said that whatever we do to others, we do to Him; promised that to him who knocks, the door will be opened; and provided a clear message that He considered all as His who accepted Him as their Savior; and

WHEREAS, included in the definition of sexual harassment in the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church are the concepts that negative, intrusive, unwanted comments pertaining to another person's sexuality are improper, coercive, and abusive; that sexual harassment includes the creation of a hostile environment resulting in discrimination and as such undermines the Church's social goal of equal opportunity and mutual respect; and that such unwanted attention is wrong and interferes with the moral mission of the Church; and

WHEREAS, the Book Of Discipline recognizes that sexual harassment perpetrates spiritual and emotional violence on individuals, their families and friends, and other like individuals; and that it perpetuates and reinforces violence against like individuals by other members of society; and

WHEREAS, the Social Principles recognize homosexuals as individuals of sacred worth, state that certain basic human rights and civil liberties are due to all persons, assert that we are committed to supporting those rights and liberties for homosexual persons as a clear issue of social justice, and affirm that we support efforts to stop violence and other forms of injustice against gay and lesbian individuals; and

WHEREAS, the people of The United Methodist Church pledged to be welcoming to all with "Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors", using the words "I believe that when you truly embrace diversity, you embrace God" in our Igniting Ministries Campaign to the nation and beyond;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the N.C. Annual Conference petition the General Conference of 2004 to remove all prejudicial, rejecting, judging, unloving, disrespectful, labeling, door- mind- and heart-closing portions referring to sexual orientation from the Book of Discipline, citing the above statements, as such language (1) above all, expressly defies the reiterated commands of Jesus Christ, (2) represents sexual harassment by our own definition toward lesbian and gay individuals, (3) violates the United Methodist Church's resolution to support basic human rights and civil liberties for all and to stop violence and coercion against all, and (4) denies the loving words of the Igniting Ministries Campaign professed by the United Methodist Church.

ACTION: DEFEATED

RESOLUTION 15: AMEND THE PREAMBLE TO THE SOCIAL PRINCIPLES IN THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

WHEREAS The North Carolina Conference Commission on Church and Society adopted, at its 1997 planning retreat, the following goal and vision statements:

"Our present goal is to teach the body of The United Methodist Church the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church, with the desire that the Social Principles be implemented by the people, with special emphasis on 'Children and Poverty: An Episcopal Initiative';" and

"Our guiding vision is to confront and inform The United Methodist Church, especially the North Carolina Conference, its districts and local churches, so that we might be a church inclusive of all people, offering all people equal opportunity for quality and vitality of life in Jesus' Name;" and

WHEREAS one problem in teaching and practicing our Social Principles is that most of our own church members, if they are aware of them at all, perceive them to be a massive but scattered smattering of social statements. This often confuses and overwhelms our members, leading either to relative social inaction, mere re-action to whatever social issue society and/or the church is emphasizing, or conflicting actions on related issues even within our own United Methodist connection; and

WHEREAS there is one principle that potentially and ideally unites all of our present Social Principles, as well as any further ones we could adopt with integrity and wholeness. This is the principle of the sacredness of all human life in the image of God, Who created and desires to re-create us all in that image. If people can see and learn the Social Principles in light of the God-given sanctity of each and every human life, these Principles can better be practiced with consistency because the critical connection between them all, the vital theology behind them all, is clear; and

WHEREAS our present Social Principles are now inconsistent with one another, particularly in relation to this key ideal of the sacredness of human life, and there is no clear statement binding the Principles together based on this ideal; and

WHEREAS such a statement and such a uniting principle seems basic to any attempt to add to, subtract from, or otherwise change our Social Principles without doing so in mere reactive response to our ever-changing contemporary social currents; and

WHEREAS we as Christians live in a world preoccupied with death: viewing more and more increasingly "realistic" deaths in our media; inventing a multitude of new methods and means by which to die and to kill; obsessed with gaining increasing rights to die and to kill; more and more immersed in deaths by violent crime, capital punishment, abortion, euthanasia, and so-called assisted suicide; and

WHEREAS the Gospel of Christ is a Gospel of resurrection from present and eternal death into abundant and everlasting life with God. We as Christians are people born again, raised out of death and into new life by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. We as members of the Church and Body of Jesus Christ are called to live in a world culture of death as a counterculture of life, to witness to the Gospel of Life and witness against death; and counterculture of life, since we as a body emphasize the value of human life communally and in all its diversity. What we lack primarily is a primary principle that unites and empowers us to be a counterculture of life that respects the God-given sacredness of each and every human being, and to live consistently as citizens of that counterculture of life over death through all of our Social Principles and all of our Christian living.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that The Preamble to the Social Principles of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, as their opening and binding statement, be amended as follows:

We, the people called United Methodists, affirm our faith in God our Creator and Father, In Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior, and in the Holy Spirit, our Guide and Guard. We acknowledge our complete dependence upon God in birth, in life, in death, and in life eternal. Secure in God's love, we affirm the goodness of life, and the sacredness of all human life as created by God in God's own image.

We confess our many sins against God's will of abundant life for us as we find it in Jesus Christ. We have not always been faithful stewards of all that has been committed to us by God the Creator. We have been reluctant followers of Jesus Christ in His mission to bring all persons into a community of love, to value the sanctity of all humankind and of each human being. Though called by the Holy Spirit to become new creatures in the risen Christ, recreated in the image of God our Father, we have resisted the further call to become the people of God in our dealings with each other and the earth on which we live.

Grateful for God's forgiving love, in which we live and by which we are judged, and affirming we affirm our belief in the inestimable worth of each individual as one who is made and can be uniquely remade by God in the very image of God., We we renew our commitment to become faithful witnesses to the gospel of life in the risen Christ, not alone to the ends of the earth, but also to the depths of our common life and work, that our lives and our living may reveal God's image in all persons to the glory of God.

RESOLUTION 16: AMEND PARAGRAHPH 65J, ON ABORTION, IN THE SOCIAL PRINCIPLES OF THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE

WHEREAS the Gospel of Christ is a Gospel of resurrection from death, and Christians are born again into new life, being called to live in this world culture of death and despair as a church counterculture of life and hope, to which abortion is clearly contrary; and

WHEREAS of the "more than twenty Christian documents from the second to the fifth centuries AD [that] discuss abortion... every one without exception condemns the practice"; and "before 1960 few Christians supported abortion. It is virtually impossible to find any Christian theologian of note who endorsed abortion except when the life of the mother was in immediate danger.' (The Sanctity of Human Life, a pamphlet by United Friends for Life); and

WHEREAS counseling or aiding abortion is a breaking of our baptismal vows to welcome all into Christ's Church, and a refusal to accept and nurture a child whom God has created and whom Jesus receives as He does all children. This can only become a millstone of God's judgment around our necks, drowning us in the sea of our sins in causing little ones to stumble, as implied in Matthew 18.5 & 6 (Not My Own, Terry Schlossberg and Elizabeth Achtemeier, p 37);" and opportunity for confession and thus closes the door to forgiveness,” (Schlossberg, p 98). This leaves those getting, giving or even encouraging abortions with ongoing guilt and traumas that are well documented (i.e., Lime 5, Mark Crutcher; especially Chapter 5); and

WHEREAS the Church shares the guilt of abortion because of a condemning attitude against women who are pregnant out of wedlock, which shames these women into having abortions (The Jericho Plan, David Reardon, p 4); and

WHEREAS paragraph 65J needlessly sets the life and well-being of the mother and of the child against each other, and speaks of the “devastating damage [that] may result from an unacceptable pregnancy.” Yet 65J ignores vast evidence and experience demonstrating the devastating damage to the mother that does result from abortions. For “God has created a connection between a mother and her children that is so deeply personal and intimate that the welfare of each is dependent on the other [and] the best interests of the child and the mother are always joined.” (Reardon, PP 2 & 3); and WHEREAS of all abortions obtained, less than 2% are due to rape and incest or an immediate threat to the physical life of the mother (Schlossberg, p 75). Statistics and stories indicate that a majority of people favor banning or placing strong limitations on all abortions except these; and

WHEREAS paragraph 65J opens the door to the slaughter of the most innocent and helpless of human beings, unborn children, for almost any reason, due to its lack of clarity. Yet paragraph 68F closes the door (if rightly) on the execution of any criminals in any circumstances. Thus The United Methodist Church is inconsistent in its statements concerning the sanctity of all human life as created by God in God’s image; and WHEREAS Children and Poverty: An Episcopal Initiative charges us that “Nothing less than the reshaping of The United Methodist Church in response to the God Who is among “the least of these” is required. The evaluation of everything the Church is and does in the light of the impact on children and the impoverished is the goal.” Thus our policy and practice of abortion must also be reshaped for the sake of the very least of these—the totally dependent and defenseless unborn! The Bishop’s charge continues: “Communities of faith shaped by God’s presence with the most vulnerable represent alternatives to [not compromises with] the values and visions of the prevailing culture” [of death] of might makes right, which favors the powerful over the powerless [the born over the unborn];” and

WHEREAS The Preamble to our Social Principles declares that “We acknowledge our complete dependence upon God in birth, in life, in death, and in life eternal. Secure in God’s love, we affirm the goodness of life...” Abortion in most cases does not acknowledge complete dependence upon God, particularly in birth, or for life and death. Abortions afford no security in God’s love for the unborn. Most abortions affirm our world culture of death, rather than a Christian Church counterculture of eternal life and the goodness of all human life as made by God in God’s image.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that Paragraph 65J in The Social Principles of The Book of Discipline be amended as follows:

“The beginning of life and the ending of life are the God-given boundaries of human existence in this present world. While individuals have always had some degree of control over when they would die, and they now more than ever have the awesome power to determine when and even whether new individuals will be born. However, it is not the right of human beings to make arbitrary judgments as to when human life begins or is of suitable quality or viability, and then to act upon those judgments by terminating unborn human lives.”

“Our belief in the sanctity of unborn human life makes us reluctant to approve abortion. But we are equally bound to respect the sacredness of the life and well-being of the mother. For whom devastating damage may result from an unacceptable pregnancy. In continuity with past Christian teaching, we recognize tragic conflicts of life with life that may justify abortion, and in such cases we support the legal option of abortion under proper medical procedures when the physical life of the mother will be clearly and imminently endangered in continuing the pregnancy or in giving birth to the child.

We cannot affirm abortion as an acceptable means of birth control, and we unconditionally reject it as a means of gender selection.

We oppose the use of late-term abortion known as dilation and extraction (partial-birth abortion) and call for the end of this practice except when the physical life of the mother is in danger and no other medical procedure is available, or in the case of severe fetal anomalies incompatible with life.

In the rare though certainly tragic and unwanted cases of pregnancy by incest and rape, abortion may be carefully and prayerfully considered, in light of the intense and ongoing physical, emotional, social and spiritual consequences the birth of a child born out of such trauma may have upon the mother and the family, including the child. However, abortion is not to be encouraged as the only or even the best option in such instances.

We call all Christians to a searching and prayerful inquiry into the sorts of conditions that may warrant abortion. We commit our Church to continue to provide nurturing ministries to those who terminate a pregnancy, to those in the midst of a crisis pregnancy, and to those who give birth. that offer counseling about and options to abortion, such as caring for the child with an additional support system or adoption.

Churches should offer as much support of every kind as is needed by those who keep, give up for adoption, or abort their children.

Governmental laws and regulations and organizations do not provide all the guidance required by the informed Christian conscience. Therefore, a decision concerning abortion should be made only after thoughtful and prayerful consideration by the parties involved, with medical, pastoral and other appropriate counseling.

All possible alternatives to abortion are encouraged in all circumstances, in keeping with our belief in the sanctity of unborn and all human life as created by and in the image of God the Creator, and in keeping with our calling in the Risen Christ to witness not to death but to new life.

ACTION: COMBINED WITH RESOLUTIONS 1 AND 3

THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN

Permanency is always cause for celebration, and this year we cheered for the adoption decrees of 20 children through MHC's fostering to adopt program.

MHC's Jordan Child & Family Enrichment Center continued to expand and develop to serve a true cross-section of the community's children and families. In April, the Jordan Center was chosen as one of the first sites to serve at-risk four-year-olds through North Carolina's More At Four program. An exciting new pilot program to serve children with autism is up and running. Thriving partnerships are underway with the Frank Porter Graham Center, the Lucy Daniels Center for Early Childhood, Project Enlightenment, Learning Together, and other child-serving agencies.

Due to community issues, we were unable to open a residential facility to serve juvenile offenders in Randolph County. However, as part of our commitment to serving these youth, our staff created a partnership with the juvenile courts and created a thriving outreach program which served 13 young people and their families this fiscal year. The Department of Juvenile Justice is considering using this model in other areas of the state.

We established the Methodist Home for Children Foundation to support MHC's goals and programs.

FOX 50 of Durham, NC, produced a video to help us tell our story to the wider community. The video premiered at MHC's gala in January.

In April, the national United Methodist Association recognized Methodist Home for Children as the Organization of the Year. The UMA selection committee found Methodist Home for Children's 102 years of dedication to troubled children, youth, and families "most impressive ... and its promotion of honesty, respect, responsibility, empowerment, compassion, and spirituality commendable."

MHC's summer camp brought together 45 of our kids for a week of swimming, confidence-building, laughter, nature, and fun at Chestnut Ridge in Efland, NC.

We used specially earmarked MHC scholarship funds to support nine former MHC youth as they pursued their goals of higher education. One student graduated with a degree in engineering.

The national economy and the state's budget woes have significantly impacted our ability to serve young people in several locations. Shrinking investments and reductions in government funding for children's services hampered our capacity to serve children and families. Because of these and other issues, we made the difficult decision to close or suspend operations in five group homes.

We developed and strengthened partnerships with numerous supporters, including Progress Energy/CP&L, Sunny 93.9, IBM, FOX 50, Wendy's, the Carolina Hurricanes, the Junior League of Raleigh, North Carolina Theatre, the Carolina Cobras, the Association Executives of North Carolina, and Coastal Federal Credit Union.

Our Methodist church connections were strengthened, notably, with the United Methodist Women, the Wilmington District of the United Methodist Church, Pine Valley UMC in Wilmington, St. James UMC in Greenville, and the Edenton United Methodist Men. Thanks in large part to the hard work of the United Methodist Women, contributions on Sharing Sunday totaled a record $131,551.

Methodist Home for Children provided direct care to 1,418 children and families from 56 North Carolina counties through residential, in-home, childcare, and adoption services.

THE UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

The year 2002 for The United Methodist Retirement Homes was one filled with many challenges as well as many significant accomplishments.

Croasdaile Village is currently averaging 96% occupancy in independent living and now has 160 persons on a waiting list. The health care beds are averaging 95% occupancy. We hope to begin construction on a chapel addition in the Spring. The Board of Trustees of UMRH continues to analyze the possibility of an 80 apartment and cottage expansion at Croasdaile Village in order to take advantage of the wait list and improve the financial performance of the community.

Cypress Glen Retirement Community in Greenville, is now fully occupied at 98% with a growing waitlist. The health care beds are also at 98% occupancy. The Board of Trustees has approved moving forward with a 50 independent living unit and 12 dementia unit expansion on the campus. We are currently in the process of testing the market demand and a determination to proceed or not to proceed will have been made by May, 2003.

Wesley Pines Retirement Community in Lumberton, is running at 98% occupancy in the health center, but independent living and assisted living occupancy has dropped below 80%. A market penetration study has indicated a declining number of age and income qualified persons in Robeson County for market rate units. In 2002 the North Carolina Housing Finance Administration approved tax credit financing for a low-income, rent subsidized, 24-unit senior housing project called "Wesley Ridge". The U. S. Department of Agriculture approved rent subsidies for the development through its Rural Development Section 515 program. A grant from the Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment has funded certain risk capital costs for the project to date. Final site approvals were received from the USDA in February 2003, and construction began on the project during the last week of February. A 10 month construction timeframe is expected.

Quail Haven Village, a UMRH managed facility in Pinehurst, completed its renovation of the 60 bed assisted living facility into a 60 bed skilled nursing facility. This was a significant accomplishment for the residents of this community. Residents needing skilled nursing care will no longer need to be discharged to another facility.

The Heritage Campaign is addressing benevolent and capital needs, that cannot be met from operating revenues, at Cypress Glen, Croasdaile Village and Wesley Pines by requesting $6,000,000 in donations from the private sector. As of March 2003, businesses, foundations, religious groups, board members, individual supporters, residents, and others have made pledges and gifts of $3.6 million. Three benevolence projects have goals totaling $3.4 million: Benevolent Care Endowment for future residents in need, goal of $2 million and $1.8 million raised; Benevolent Care Annual Fund for current residents in need, goal of $1 million and $182,000 committed; and Retired Pastors' Fund for those who need help with entrance fees, $400,000 goal with $20,000 donated. Several capital projects are planned or under way. Construction of the Wesley Ridge project began in February. Made possible by $311,000 in startup funds from the Heritage Campaign, Wesley Ridge has twenty-four units of affordable housing for senior citizens on the campus of Wesley Pines. Donations of $350,000 are being sought for much-needed renovations of the twenty-five year old facilities at Wesley Pines. At Croasdaile Village, a new interfaith chapel is under way, funded completely by generous donors to the Heritage Campaign. At Cypress Glen, an exciting project in the final planning stages is an Alzheimer's care residence that will embrace the very latest in design and use of space and in treatment methods. Start-up costs of $400,000 for the residence and associated gardens are being funded by the Heritage Campaign. Total cost is estimated to be $1.5 to $2 million.

UMRH and Cypress Glen continue to grow stronger financially as we maintain full occupancy, but maintaining our operating margins is becoming more difficult due to various economic factors impacting the health care industry. As a result resident fees are increasing at a higher rate than the growth of their incomes. Our strategy to add independent living units at Croasdaile Village and Cypress Glen is being explored in order to counteract the negative outlook for operating health center beds.

Despite continued reductions in federal and state reimbursement for nursing and health care costs, The United Methodist Retirement Homes provided a combined $1.8 million in charity care for independent, assisted-living, and Medicaid skilled nursing residents during year 2002.

Thank you to the Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church for all you do to support The United Methodist Retirement Homes.

The Litany For the Faithful Departed Rev. Cole

Let us pray

Holy God, we pray for Your human family everywhere;

That we may be one.

For the gift of all the lives, which have touched us and helped to make us who we are, who have finished their course of faith, and now rest from their labor;

We give You thanks, O God.

For our departed brothers and sisters who have faithfully served as ministers of the gospel in the North Carolina Annual Conference; who have taught us with their words, led us with their lives, and helped to knit us together in one fellowship of Christ.

We lift our hearts in gratitude and praise.

For those faithful companions - mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, daughters, sons, husbands, wives - who have shared our love and our lives, who worship You before the throne of Heaven;

We give thanks and praise

O Holy God, have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

That they may be delivered from their distress.

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise You for all Your saints who have entered into joy;

May we, encouraged by their example and strengthened by their fellowship, be partakers with them of the inheritance of the saints in Your Heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

By the tender mercies of Jesus Christ, on September 23, 2002, The Reverend N.B. Hill, Jr. conquered death. His life and ministry were celebrated September 29, 2002, at Campground United Methodist, Fayetteville, under the leadership of The Reverends David Wade, Dr. Gil Beeson, and Dr. Tryon Lancaster. Born December 23, 1922, to Noah B. and Josephine Hill, N.B., answered the call to preach at age 27 and was ordained elder in 1957.

Perhaps my most vivid memory of N.B. was his rendition of the chorus of "Pentecostal Power": "Lord, send the old time power, the Pentecostal power! That sinners be converted and thy name glorified." N.B. placed a fermata on the word, "Lord". The organist would frown in frustration while the choir gasped in desperation. "How long is he going to hold that note?" asked the congregation as they dropped out of the competition one by one. Finally, he would crash down the scale like a roller coaster and ride out the remainder of the refrain.

That image is symbolic of the man. "Pentecostal Power" is a revival hymn, and N.B. was a revival preacher. In ordinary services or special ones, N.B.'s goals were the same: "That sinners be converted and thy name glorified." N.B. was an energetic sort, could not stand still, always in a work, in part because he had a divine compulsion. As Paul declared in I Corinthians 9:16, "Necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I preach not the gospel!" and preach it N.B. did. It was under his leadership that my father and I were awarded our local preacher's licenses on the same Sunday. N.B.'s commitment and dedication to the preaching of the gospel inspired and challenged persons to Christian discipleship for half a century as he served the following churches: North Main Street (Salisbury), Grimesland Charge, Grantham Charge, Robersonville-Hamilton Charge, Grace (Burlington), Wesley Heights (Fayetteville), Salem (Eastover), White Plains (Cary), Zebulon, Trinity (Fairmont), Calvary (Snow Hill), Wesley Heights (Fayetteville) Linden and Campground (Fayetteville).

N.B. is survived by his devoted wife of 56 years, Charlotte Garris Hill; sons Noah B. Hill, III and Russell F. Hill, both of Fayetteville; daughters, Trudy Hill Hammond of Greensboro and Connie Hill Martin of Raleigh, 8 grandchildren: Brian Hill of St. Pauls, Julie Durham of Hickory, Kristin Hill of Charlotte, Adam Martin of Raleigh, Clay Martin of Raleigh, Jamie Hammond of Tempe, AZ, Mary Migala of Fayetteville and Kathryn Hill of Fayetteville; 2 great grandchildren, Paige and Justin Hill of St. Pauls.

"Well done, good and faithful servant." (Matthew 25:21)

Woodrow W. Wells, Jr.

DONALD F. GUM

Don, a native of Alamance County who graduated from Greensboro College in Greensboro and Duke University Divinity School in Durham, set up the Department of Pastoral Care at Alamance Regional Medical Center in 1986 and served as its director until September, 2001.

Donald went into the Army in 1966 and was stationed in Korea. When he got out of the service a few years later, he applied for some benefits. He didn't know it but the Army had spelled his name with only one M and in order to get benefits he would have to have his name legally changed to Gum. In addition to serving in the Army, Donald was the dean of students at Greensboro College before becoming a chaplain at Wesley Long Hospital in Greensboro.

Donald was formerly an associate pastor of Davis Street in Burlington and the pastor of Bethel UMC in Snow Camp.

He was hired by Alamance Regional Medical Center in 1986 to set up the hospital's pastoral care program on the recommendation of the N.C. Chaplains Association. The program included chaplain education programs and employee assistance and counseling programs.

Survivors other than his wife of the home include a daughter, Tyra Aiken and husband Johnny of Graham; a son Mark Gum and wife, Jenny and a grandson, Jordon Aiken; of Mebane; a sister and three brothers.

1925 - 2002

Robert N. Knight, 77 died at his home in Raleigh, NC on October 29, 2002. A graveside service was held in Columbia, NC, on October 31 with the Rev. Frank Alexander officiating. A Memorial Service was held at Edenton Street UMC on November 1 with the Reverends Kermit Braswell and David Beck officiating.

Norman is survived by his wife, Ruby R. Knight of the home; a daughter, Kathryn Knight of Richmond, VA; a son, Rob Knight of Chicago, IL; and sister Lynda Knight of Combs of Columbia, NC.

He was the eldest son of Robert S. Knight, Jr. and Ruth N. Knight. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps in World War II and was wounded in the battle of Iwo Jima. Norman felt the call to the ministry after his experience at Iwo Jima and on return to civilian life began to prepare himself to fulfill that calling. He was educated at Wake Forest University, Duke Divinity School, and N.C. State University.

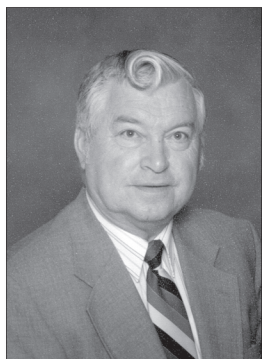

Norman began his ministry at Moyock in the Elizabeth City District in 1952, and retired on disability in 1983. He served churches in the Elizabeth City, New Bern, Goldsboro, Wilmington, and Raleigh districts. He led congregations in much-needed building programs at Trinity, New Bern; Zion on Gatesville Charge, and Maysville.

In the 1990's, Norman's health began to decline in the wake of three major surgeries, including one for prostate cancer. When it became obvious that Norman's cancer was spreading rapidly, he opted for quality of time left and refused extraordinary measures.

Even though he was not strong and felt tired much of the time, he always had a smile for everyone and was loved and respected by all who knew him.

James W. Hicks, Jr. (Jim) 67, of Goldsboro died on November 7, 2002 after a long battle with heart disease. His funeral was held at Mount Carmel United Methodist Church in Pikeville with the Reverends Wayne Hicks and Gerald R. Massey officiating. Burial was at Pikeville Cemetery.

Jim was survived by his wife of 48 years, Ruby Lancaster Hicks, his daughters Vickie Pate and husband Glenn of Pikeville, Janice Sasser and husband Glenn, and Norma Braswell and husband Scott, all of Goldsboro and son James Wesley Hicks, III and wife Pamela of Hookerton, his mother Juanita Hicks, a sister Joan Kearney and husband Ronnie and a brother, Donald Hicks, all of Goldsboro. He is also survived by his grandchildren, David Pate and wife Tabitha, Jennifer Lane and husband Jonathan, Christie Kelley, Michelle Boyette and husband Daniel, Joseph Braswell, Welsey Hicks, Michael Hicks, Glenn Sasser, Jr., Angela Sasser, Wendy Ellis and husband Chad and Crystal Murphy; and great-grandchildren Makayla Kelley and Hailey Boyette. He was preceded in death by his father, James Wesley Hicks, Sr. and a grandson Robin Kelley.

Jim was born on May 26, 1935 to James Wesley Hicks, Sr. and Juanita W. Hicks who were lifetime residents of Goldsboro and Wayne County. He attended Pikeville High School and joined the U.S. Army on his 18th birthday where he served in South Carolina, Alabama, and Fort Myer, Virginia. After leaving the Army, he returned to Goldsboro where he worked as a sewing machine mechanic until God called him into His service.

His first assignment with the NC Methodist Conference came in February of 1968 as a part time pastor at Elizabeth UMC in Smithfield. He served there until June of that same year when he was sent to his first full time appointment with the Rones Chapel-Bethel charge in Mt. Olive. During his time there, he attended Mt. Olive College, Duke University, and Louisburg College from which he graduated in 1972.

Other churches he served were: Pine Forest in Goldsboro; Newland-Grace charge in Elizabeth City; Hookerton; and Stantonsburg. While at Stantonsburg, Jim had heart bypass surgery. Because of complications from this surgery, he was forced to go on disability and leave the work that he loved so much. He was able to preach occasionally after he recovered but declining health prevented him filling a pulpit in later years. However, he never stopped proclaiming the love of God to all he met.

Jim officially retired in June of 2000. In addition to his 32 years in the ministry, he was active in the communities in which he lived. He was a member of his area's volunteer Fire Department, was active in the Boy Scouts, and was a member of the Ruritan Club and the Kiwanis Club.

James W. Hicks, Jr., was a faithful and loving husband and father who loved serving his Lord. He never met a stranger and he never let a Christian witness opportunity pass him by.

TOMMY TYSON

Tommy Tyson was born in rural Pitt County near Farmville, N. C. on July 23, 1922. He was one of ten children of Rev. Marvin Earl "Jack" Tyson and Stella Irene Hart Tyson. His siblings, Thelma, Velma and Eugene, died as young children. His other brothers, Marvin Dewey, George Hart, Earl Summeral, Vernon Cephas, and Bobby Powell also answered the call to be United Methodist ministers. His other sister is Edith Merle Tyson Hackney.

Following graduation from high school in 1940, Tommy spent three semesters at Campbell University in Buies Creek. Because of an inner restlessness related to our approaching involvement in World War II, Tommy dropped out of college and went to Norfolk, Virginia and took a job as a worker in the shipyard there. In October of 1942, he enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard. Following his discharge in 1945, he returned to North Carolina to marry Frances, who was teaching school in Greene County. They made their home in Snow Hill. Tommy left the business world to attend Guilford College that fall with the idea of going into rural sociology. Although he majored in philosophy and English literature, he was greatly influenced by the Quaker devotional classics, especially with the concept of prayer as inner listening. Through the development of listening prayer as a daily discipline, the idea began to form in Tommy's mind and heart that God had purposed the preaching ministry for him, rather than social work.

While leading a retreat on spiritual healing in California in 1963, Tommy was introduced to Oral Roberts. A mutual, lasting friendship developed out of this meeting. During the next two years, Oral Roberts invited Tommy to join him in various areas of the United States as well as many other countries to share in the evangelistic ministry. It was at this time that Rev. Roberts began to share his dream for Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Subsequently, Tommy was invited to become a part of the University in 1965 as its first Director of the Department of Spiritual Life. Bishop Paul Garber appointed Tommy to this position in which he served for three years and where he received his honorary Doctor of Divinity degree.

In the summer of 1968, Tommy and his family came back to North Carolina and reentered a full-time ministry of evangelism through the North Carolina Annual Conference. They moved from Goldsboro to Chapel Hill, N. C. in March, 1974 to establish a small-group, Christian Growth Conference Center, Aqueduct, which opened in March, 1978.

In 1982, Tommy received the distinguished Phillips Award for Evangelism. He was heard and loved all across the world. Bishop William Cannon said, "Tommy was better known in Rome than in Raleigh." He was a pioneer in relating Church Renewal to the person and work of the Holy Spirit. He helped The Church rediscover and develop its prayer life and ministry of spiritual healing. He led spiritual healing conferences with medical doctors, Roman Catholic clergy, and many different Protestant groups. Tommy had a unique ability to take the deep things of God and make them simple and practical. With a brilliant mind, a quick wit and hearty belly laugh, he was anointed by God and filled with the Holy Spirit to share the love and joy of Jesus.

In the words of Bishop Marion Edwards, it's as if God said, "Tommy, it's closer to my house than it is to yours. Come on over to my house." And so it was at 5:55 that snowy Thursday morning, December 5, 2002. With the world around him wrapped in a white blanket, after being in a deep, peaceful sleep for twenty-four hours snug in his bed, Tommy Tyson went to Heaven whispering, "Hallelujah to Jesus!" His funeral was conducted at Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church in Greenville on December 10. Burial took place at Hollywood Cemetery in Farmville. He and Mama were Home for Christmas.

Robert Mooney was born September 3, 1915, in Wilsonville, Alabama, the son of Robert C. Mooney, Sr. and Ollie Ray Mooney. During his senior year in high school, he felt the call to the ministry. He graduated from Birmingham-Southern College and Duke University Divinity School.

While working as a summer intern, he met his devoted wife of 57 years, Nellie Graves, in Burlington, NC. Their ministry together began in 1945 in Alabama, serving the Oak Grove and Alexandria Charges. They moved to North Carolina in 1947 and served the following churches: Salem and Culbreth Memorial in Fayetteville, Duke's Chapel and Asbury in Durham, Chestnut Street in Lumberton, First Church in Graham, First Church in Cary, Southern Pines, Raeford and Williamston. He served on the Committee for Enlistment for four years and the NC Conference Board of Ministry for thirteen years.

He was known during his ministry for his administrative ability and his carefully crafted sermons, which were often filled with words of poetry. His faithfulness in visiting sick and homebound members was remarkable. He was a tireless worker, yet he had a ready smile and laugh for everyone.

After forty years of active ministry, Robert and Nell retired to their dream home in Burlington in 1980. He enjoyed his church, home and yard for over twenty years. During the last two years of his life, he was homebound and physically weakened, but he never lost hope that he would once again be able to work in his yard.

He went home to be with the Lord on December 18, 2002. A memorial service was held on December 22, conducted by Rev. Ken Hall, Rev. Dermont Reid, and Rev. Rodney Hamm, at First UMC, Graham, of which Robert was Pastor Emeritus. Burial was in Alamance Memorial Park.

At the memorial service, Robert was likened to Barnabas. "Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and many people were brought to the Lord." Acts 11:24

He will be remembered as a good man. He lived a life of commitment to God and once wrote, "My God is not dead, but very much alive. In Him is my life, my strength, my hope. I believe in Him with all my being. I trust Him for the life that now is and the life that is yet to be."

Robert is survived by his wife, Nell, of Burlington, son and daughter-in-law, Bob and Ruth of Harrisburg, and daughter, Jandy of Durham.

Rev. A.P. Hill, Jr., 78, of Greenville died January 23, 2003.

A.P., a native of Lenoir County, was the son of Alton Parker and Mildred E. Hill, both deceased. He was a graduate of Atlantic Christian College and Duke University and was ordained in November of 1950. A.P. was a member of the North Carolina United Methodist Conference for 40 years, serving serving churches in Vanceboro, New Bern, Wilmington, Mebane, Morehead City, Roanoke Rapids and Rockingham. During his ministry he also served on the Conference Council on Ministries Staff and was district superintendent of the Elizabeth City and Greenville districts. In 1968, he was honored as the Alamance County Clergy of the Year. He retired from the N.C. Conference in 1990.

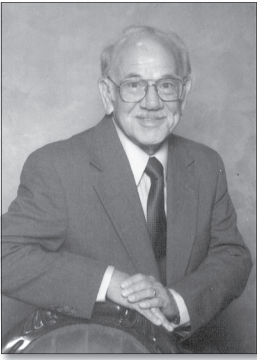

A.P. is survived by his beloved wife, LaRue, and three sons and their wives, A.P. and Debbie of Burlington, Charles and Martha of Farmville and Jerome and Kathy of Carthage. He also had eight grandchildren and one great grandson. In addition to his wife, children and grandchildren, A.P. had four brothers and two sisters. A.P. enjoyed nothing more than having his family around him, as he shared life's experiences and lessons.

During World War II, A.P. served in the United States Marine Corps in the South Pacific with the Second Marine Division. He was awarded the Silver Star, Purple Heart, Oak Leaf Cluster, and a Presidential Citation of Recovery, A.P., a 32nd Degree Mason, was a member of the Crown Point Masonic Lodge #708 A.F. and A.M. and the Scottish Rite Bodies and Sudan Temple in New Bern.

A.P. was highly regarded by his brothers and sisters in Christ, often called upon for advice and counsel. He touched lives of countless youth during his ministry, both through the churches he served, and through special outreach ministry for troubled teenagers. He was unwavering to all those who suffered, regardless of their church affiliation, and demonstrated his faithfulness by frequent visits to hospitals and nursing facilities. A.P. is greatly missed by family and friends on earth, but they are comforted by the realization that he has been called home to be with his Lord and Savior. Praise God who gives the victory!

James Columbus Loy, 74, of Burlington died February 7, 2003. His funeral was held at Friendship UMC with Rev. Al Horne officiating. Burial was at the Friendship Cemetery.

J.C. is survived by his wife, Agnes Greeson Loy of the home; two sons, James William Loy and his wife Tammy of Raleigh and Samuel Greeson Loy of the home; two granddaughters, Catherine Elizabeth Loy and Stephanie Carol Loy; two sisters, Mrs. Hubert (Hildred) Isley and Mrs. Emil (Virginia) Fausel both of Burlington.

J.C. was born to Rev. W.M. Loy and Oneida Clapp Loy in Mebane, N.C. on January 9, 1929 and grew up south of Burlington in the Alamance area. He graduated from E.M. Holt High School in 1947 and in 1949 married his high school sweetheart Agnes Greeson beginning their 53-year marriage. He graduated from Elon College in 1951.

As a young teenager J.C. felt the call to the ministry and began preaching shortly after high school. During the 1950's, J.C. served the Fountain Place/Glenco charge in Burlington, a four church circuit in Pittsboro, and the New Hope and Beulah Christian churches in Franklin County, while attending Duke University part time. In 1960 he received a bachelors degree from Duke Divinity School.

He served as pastor of the Kipling/Cokesbury charge in Harnett County (1960), New Hope in Goldsboro (1966), Calvary Memorial in Snow Hill (1969), Macedonia in Raleigh (1973), Pleasant Grove in Raleigh (1983) and Wesley Memorial in Warrenton (1987). He retired from the active ministry in 1994 and returned to his boyhood home of Burlington.

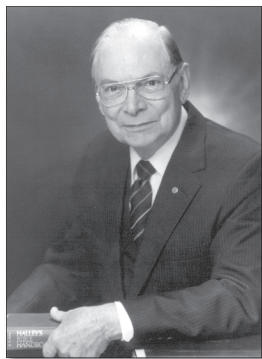

J.C. was devoted in his service to the church and went out of his way to perform the many tasks required of a minister, but was always there to attend to the needs of his personal family as well. His love and caring for his wife Agnes, his son Jamie and particularly his son Sammy were obvious displays of the simple Christian virtues that he lived by.

He was proud of his rural upbringing and it served him well throughout his ministry. He was a man of many talents, an artist specializing in pen and ink drawings and a musician entertaining his granddaughters on his pump organ. He was a talented carpenter, electrician and auto mechanic; an ability that surprised many of his church members when they saw the preacher covered in grease leaning over the hood of a car.

His wonderful sense of humor could light up a room or church service. His writing talents and flair for poetry, faith, humor and self-effacing manner are all evident in a portion of a poem he presented at conference upon his retirement.

I've seen God in the sunrise fair,
 Sprinkling morning dew,
 But I've seen Him most on the Sabbath day
 Sitting in the pew.
 If God shall will to stretch a point
 In parting this world of sin;
 On hearing these words I'll know I'm safe,
 "Howdy Preacher, Come on in!"

Jamie Loy

SIDNEY G. BOONE, SR.

When young Sidney was twelve-years-old, a neighbor to the Boone family's Gates County farm snatched his straw hat from his head, stared into his big, brown eyes, and declared, "You're going to be a preacher." She was right. Rev. Boone earned his B.A. Degree from Duke University in 1934 and answered the call to the ministry in 1941 when the Methodist Church appointed him to his first charge.

While preaching, he attended Duke Divinity School and received his B.D. Degree in 1945. During his forty-four year career, Rev. Boone was honored to serve at the following churches in the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church: Sandy Cross (1941-45); Robersonville (1945-48); Rocky Mount, Clark Street (1948-51); Norlina (1951-55); Wendell (1955-59); Williamston (1959-64); Durham, Asbury (1964-68); Dunn, Divine Street (1968-73); Wilmington, Trinity (1973-77); and Mt. Pleasant, Middlesex (1977-85).

Rev. Boone, faithful child of God, believed that the strongest aspect of his ministry was his ability to minister the individual needs of all the people in his charge. On more than one occasion he answered his Bishop's call to accept an appointment to a church requiring a man of considerable wisdom and faith and infinite love and patience to still the troubled waters he would find in his new charge. "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God."

Rev. Boone is survived by his wife of fifty-seven years, Katherine Abernethy Boone, and their three sons, Sidney Grant Boone, Jr., Samuel J. Boone, and John A. Boone, and by seven grandchildren. He is also survived by brothers Roger and Sam Boone and his sister Mary Elizabeth Richardson. Rev. Boone is reunited in God's care with his parents Minnie Belle and William Jordan Boone and his brother William Boone.

A service of death and resurrection was conducted by the Reverend Jacob Milton Hadley, Jr. and Reverend William Allen Bingham on February 24, 2003 at the Nashville United Methodist Church. Interment followed at the Nashville Cemetery.

To all of you who knew and loved Rev. Boone, let not your hearts be troubled, for this is not an end but a beginning.

Rev. Susan Moore was born April 17, 1946 in Alamance County and died at home on March 23, 2003. She was the daughter of George H. and Lois F. Moore.

Susan was raised on a farm where hard work was the norm during the week, and attendance at Sunday School and Worship Service at Camp Springs Church was expected. This upbringing had a profound effect on her life.

She was about thirty-five when the decision was made to become a preacher. After her first year at Duke Divinity School, she was assigned to fill in for a sick pastor in the Gatesville Charge. During an interview with the local newspaper, Susan explained the late start this way: "I went through a long process finding out who and what I was before finding I was happiest serving God!" While taking Christian Education courses at Elon, God revealed his plan for her life which was to preach the Gospel. This was not an easy task for a female in a male dominated environment. With God's help, she was able to receive her Master of Divinity degree from Duke University in 1985.

Susan's first assignment was to the Clinton Circuit. In her first worship bulletin at the Epworth-Magee churches she wrote, "I asked to be sent to a rural parish because I know about the stress and hardships which face American farm families today. I know the weariness of suckering tobacco. I know the sweet smell of fresh turned earth during a shower." She went on to say, "As we love each other and commit ourselves and our land into the Almighty's care, we can grow into the true likeness of our Lord Jesus Christ!"

After Clinton, Susan served at Sharon, New Hope-Purley, Johnston Circuit, and Wilmington; Oleander-Devon Park. She went on disability leave in 1994 and because of cancer and diabetes was never able to return to the ministry.

In addition to loving the Lord, Susan loved black Cocker Spaniel, Murphy. He was named after Father Murphy, one of her professors at Duke. Susan also loved flowers. Even after disease had taken over her body she still kept her car trunk full of beautiful silk flowers to put on her father's and grandparent's graves.

Susan is survived by her mother, Lois Moore and a sister, Deborah Murray, as well as aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

The funeral was at Camp Springs UMC on March 25, 2003. The service was conducted by Rev. Renee Burnette and assisted by Susan's cousin, Tim Ross. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Chuck Ross

DOUGLAS R. WOODWORTH

Originally from Tannersville, NY, Doug spent his early years in Bloomingdale, NJ. After serving in the US Army Air Corps during World War II, he went to work for DuPont in Seaford, Delaware. In 1952 he was transferring to the Kinston plant and made his home in Ayden, NC, where he retired in 1960 after 38 years of service. For a number of years he taught oral communication and mechanical drafting at Pitt Community College. Doug was well known for his interest in local Indian history and artifacts and served as president of the NC Archaeological Society. In the 1960's he became an ordained minister and served six different churches during his 38 years of ministry. They consisted of Nobles Chapel, Lebanon-Tabernacle Charge, and Grimesland Charge.

He died at the age of 80 and is survived by his wife, 2 children, 2 grandchildren, and 3 great-grandchildren.

Submitted in loving memory by his family

NELLIE L. WILLIAMS

Nellie (Nell) Lowe Williams was born on October 17, 1923 in Spartanburg, S.C., the daughter of Howard J. Lowe and Nora S. Lowe, and died on May 10, 2002 in Louisburg, N.C.

Nell was the wife of Rev. James "Jimmy" A. Williams, a retired member of the North Carolina Conference. Their marriage on May 16, 1942, lasted 60 years and was one of deep and abiding friendship and devotion, a lifelong commitment of love to each other, family and their Lord.

Nell's life was one of love for her husband and family and of service to God and to others. She was always active in all the churches her husband served by being a Sunday School teacher, pianist, organist and serving as a member of the United Methodist Women. One can truthfully say her life was one of love and service to others. The chorus of the hymn "Others" was her daily life: "Others, Lord, yes others, Let this my motto be, Help me to live for others, That I may live like thee."

Her funeral was held at Plank Chapel United Methodist Church in Kittrell, NC. The service was conducted by the Rev. W.M. "Bud" Budzinski, Rev. Harold M. Chrismon and Rev. Dr. Belton Joyner, and she was laid to rest in Plank Chapel Church Cemetery. Her gentle spirit and always positive attitude will be missed by all with whom she came in contact.

Until we meet again, with all our love forever,

Jimmy, Kay, James, Pam, Edward, Aaron and Zachary

FRANCES B. TYSON

Zella Frances Brewer Tyson was born in Greenville, NC on October 26, 1924. She was the youngest daughter of George Cleveland Brewer and Zella Lloyd Parker Brewer. She was sister to Jessie Roland Brewer Elks, Alma Louise Brewer Elks, Henry Parker Brewer, and Robert Graham Brewer.

Her parents died when she was a small child. At age three, she and her brother, Robert, moved to the Free Will Baptist Children's Home in Middlesex, NC where she graduated from high school. Frances was a consummate musician. Even at three-years-old, she was picking out tunes on the piano. She played the piano beautifully by ear and loved singing alto. A former school teacher, she was a graduate of East Carolina University. She and her childhood sweetheart, Tommy Tyson, were married at Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church in Greenville on March 24, 1945. They served the Lord in ministry together for 55 years. She loved music and she loved to laugh. She was generous in spirit, loved her family, and enjoyed doing kind and thoughtful things for her grandchildren, children and husband. She died peacefully in their home in Chapel Hill, NC on Father's Day, June 16, 2002 following a brief illness (acute myelogenous leukemia). Because it was her favorite season, hers was a "Christmas funeral" on June 19, 2002 at Farmville United Methodist Church. Graveside services followed at Hollywood Cemetery in Farmville, NC.

JETTA G. TYSON

1937 - 2002

Jetta Godfrey burst on our small group in the summer of nineteen fifty-five. She was pretty, a little frightened, and very much in love. Having grown up in Louisburg, NC she was a little intimidated at coming to meet new people.

The love of her life was the son of the minister at Carrboro Methodist Church. As a surprise to all of us this young woman was now Mrs. Bobby P. Tyson. So, the same as others in the same situation, Bobby and Jetta began their life together.

Jetta, whether she knew it or not, had married into a family who held their religious values to be one of supreme importance. Eventually Jetta caught this faith and made it her own. She was able to trust in Jesus even in uncertain times. Jetta was not perfect, as none of us are, but she did possess that living, vital faith that one can depend on in troubled times. And it did not fail her when she needed it most.

Jetta graduated from the University of North Carolina at Pembroke with honors when she was thirty-eight years of age. From then on she taught English in the public schools. Teaching English was the love of her life and a means of helping young people to grow and mature.

Bobby and Jetta had four children, Gail, Alice, Sharon and Bobby, Jr. When she spoke to any one of them she made them feel that he or she was the only person in her life. She lived a life of love.

Lung cancer attacked Jetta in 1995. From that date until the day she died she fought a good fight and trusted in the Lord she had learned to love and trust. She died October 6, 2002. Funeral services were held on October 9, 2002 at Spring Hill UMC in Lillington, NC. The victory was won! Praise God!

Tommy Smith

Christine L. Ham Smith was born January 30, 1923 in Greene County, the daughter of Roland and Minnie Letchworth. She passed. Away peacefully on November 25, 2002. Services were held on November 27 with burial following at Raleigh Memorial Park. Reverend Jerry Smith, her stepson, officiated which would have pleased her very much.

Mrs. Smith was married to Rev. John T. Smith, retired member of the N.C. Conference, in July 1990 by Rev.

Caswell Shaw. Their love and devotion for each other was inspirational and a joy to watch. The families of both John and Christine shared with them that love. Their happiness was radiated to all they came in contact with. Mrs. Smith enjoyed her role as a minister's wife as John continued his ministry to his community of Halifax. She was mother to daughter and son-in-law, Phyllis and Jerry Stephenson, and to son Z. Vance Ham. She was a precious grandmother to Joe Stephenson and to the late Christa Stephenson, who was named in honor of her grandmother. Also surviving her are seven brothers and sisters, Melvin Letchworth, Gladys Walston, Joseph Letchworth, William Letchworth, Jimmy Letchworth, Shelby Eason, and Ann Letchworth.

Christine was very talented. She particularly enjoyed sewing for herself and others. She often designed special outfits for her children and grandchildren. She ventured into the field of decorating and found pleasure in constructing detailed pieces of upholstery and window treatments. Her very special talent was her gentle, sweet spirit. She blessed many people over the years by her example. She was a great listener and her advice was based on her faith and love for others. One of her legacies will be that she found pleasure in giving to others.

Immediate survivors are her husband, the Rev. John T. Smith of Cary; daughter and son-in-law Phyllis and Jerry Stephenson of Roswell, GA; son, Z. Vance Ham of Cape Coral, FL; and grandson and his wife, Joe and Tiffany Stephenson of Roswell, GA.

Rebecca M. Thomas-Young

PEGGY B. TYSON

1919 - 2003

Peggy Tyson was born April 22, 1930 in Fayetteville, North Carolina, the daughter of Virginia D. Carrowon and Nathan B. Bullard. She died December 5, 2002 in Burlington, North Carolina. Her funeral was held at Hebron United Methodist Church on December 7, 2002.

Peggy was the wife of Rev. Carson S. Tyson, a retired member of the NC Conference.

She was a retired nurse. After retirement, Peggy and Carson were active members of Pamlico Emmaus.

Surviving are two daughters, Karan Patton of Maxton, NC and Susan English of Laurinburg, NC; two stepsons, Stanley Tyson and Dewey Tyson of Dallas, NC and one stepdaughter, Beth Tyson of Cullowhee, NC and four grandsons.

HULDA WISE RIGGS

Hulda Ballance Wise Riggs was born Easter Sunday, April 20, 1919 in Poplar Branch, NC. Currituck County, the daughter of William and Myrtle Ballance. She grew up in Currituck with her three sisters and two brothers, leaving home after high school to attend Capital School of Nursing, Washington, D.C. where she received her RN degree. She met and married Wilford Denny Wise of Manteo, NC, April 14, 1941. The couple had two children, Denny C. Wise (Minister, Oxford UMC) and Wanda Wise Sanseri, Portland, OR.

As a butcher in his father's supermarket, Wilford heard the call of the ministry in the early 1950's and in 1952, the family moved from Manteo to their first appointment in Bath, NC. Hulda was a partner in ministry with her husband serving numerous churches in Eastern North Carolina and at the same time, following her career as a nurse, working in various hospitals, as well as for the Headstart Program, as a Public Health Nurse, and some private duty. After serving 5 successful years at Apex UMC, the couple moved to Newport UMC. Soon afterward, because of declining health, the couple went on disability and moved to Swansboro, where Hulda found herself nursing her husband full time. Wilford died December 26, 1986.

On December 15, 1989, Hulda married William H. Riggs, a devout Methodist from Hubert, NC. They were happily married, enjoying the same hobbies and pastimes-traveling, fishing, crabbing and gardening, until his death in 1996. Hulda remained in her home in Swansboro until her death, January 18, 2003. Hulda was an animated storyteller, easily catching the attention of her audiences. She was gregarious and never met a stranger.

Hulda is survived by her two children, Denny and Wanda, four grandsons, Patrick Wise, Samuel, Daniel and Michael Sanseri and three great-grandchildren, Cameron and Connor Wise and Abigail Sanseri.

A service of Resurrection and Remembrance was held January 21, 2003 at Swansboro UMC with Rev. Randy Innes and Rev. Rachel Moser.

GLENMORE M. MOORE

"I'm a better person for having known her," said her many friends who came to celebrate her life. This many-talented, multi-faceted, interesting person was our mother. Born to Levie and Lettie Mallard on January 8, 1923, she spent her childhood farming and graduated valedictorian of her high school class.

She met Samuel S. Moore and on Christmas day in 1940 they began a life of 57 years together. They had four children: Janet M. Corbett, Samuel S. Moore, Jr., and twins Mary M. Lownes and Martha M. Gore. She was our guide, encourager, and cheerleader as we met life's challenge. She set high standards for us in all that we attempted. She taught by example and we never saw her fail at anything.

If anyone was suited to be the wife of a minister, she was. She was instrumental in leading daddy into the ministry. She persuaded him to teach her adult Sunday School class while she took time out to bring twin girls into the family. It was this experience that led daddy to become a lay leader and then to accept his calling to share his wonderful gift of words from the pulpit. They served together from 1954-1985 at Franklin Memorial in Morehead City; Cokesbury in Raleigh; Erwin; Goshen-Keener in Sampson County; Wendell; and Bailey-Pleasant Grove. She took leadership roles in all these churches, teaching, singing in the choir, holding offices in the UMW, cooking in the fund raisers, and being a listening friend to the members of the church, all the while being the mainstay of the family, the rock we all leaned on.

Mother had a zest for life, an upbeat, high energy, enthusiastic person who had a wide range of interests and abilities. She made our clothing, learned to weave baskets and make teddy bears, read avidly, knew many poems and songs by heart, and was a fabulous cook. Her cornbread, collards, and chocolate cake were the top requests as we continued to gather at her table for holidays together.

She was the family caregiver. She always came to nurse us through childbirth, illnesses, or operations. She would be there to see that our every need was met and to see for herself that we were on the mend. Most of all, when daddy's health failed, she sat by his side in the hospital day and night to comfort him and to see that he received proper care. She was with him to the end.

Mother especially enjoyed two things: her name and her work at Tryon Palace. When she married, she became Glenmore Moore. She spent many hours spelling and explaining her name. When she and daddy retired to the home place in New Bern, she became a guide at Tryon Palace. This satisfied her flair for drama. She loved dressing in costume but mostly enjoyed keeping her keen mind busy learning scripts and histories of Tryon Palace and surrounding homes. She earned the reputation of being one of the best informed and engaging guides and was often requested and complimented by visitors.

Her life was celebrated on February 13, 2003, at Pollock, Wells and Best Funeral Chapel, with Rev. Neal Salter officiating. Interment was in Greenleaf Memorial Park in New Bern beside her husband. She is survived by four children, five grandchildren, one sister and two brothers. We too are better people for having known her.

The Children

GENEVIEVE M. RUDIN 1909-2003

Genevieve M. Rudin, age 94 widow of Rev. Dr. John J. Rudin, II, Professor Emeritus at Duke University Divinity School, died early February 16, 2003, at Croasdaile Pavillion after a brief illness-twelve years to the day after John's death. She joined the Church Triumphant as her daughters Welda and Harriet sang her favorite hymns to her.

Genevieve is survived by her children John J. Rudin of Nashville, Tennessee, Welda R. Hoerz or Munich, Germany, Martin N. Rudin of Durham, and their spouses Harriet Tisdell, Wolfram Hoerz and Gudrun Huper, whom she considered her children; by four grandchildren Miata Rudin and Michael, Susanne, and Annemarie Hoerz; by three great-grandchildren Matthew Kass and Kerrissa and Kristin Black; and by other relatives.

Genevieve was born in Brownsville, Oregon, on January 22, 1909. She was the last surviving child of the twelve born to Barney Springer Martin and Elva Savage Martin, descendants of Oregon pioneers. Her family moved to Salem Oregon, where she was educated and was married to John on October 28, 1934 (a marriage that lasted until his death in 1991). They moved east in 1936 for his graduate studies. She came to Durham in 1945 when John joined the faculty of Duke University Divinity School. She joined Trinity Methodist Church, where she and John were active in its ministry until their deaths.

Genevieve will be best remembered for her work with and advocacy for children, her energetic personality that endeared her to many, and her love of people. She helped establish the United Methodist Retirement Home and served with Operation Breakthrough, Women in Action, Contact, Meals on Wheels, and many other organizations. In 1950 she and Erika Richey organized the Divinity Dames, a social support group for the wives of Duke Divinity students. In 1956 she founded and was the first director of the West Durham Community Center Playschool, the first community playschool in Durham, where she taught until 1970. She also taught at St. Luke's Kindergarten and Nursery School from 1970 until she retired in 1976. She continued her ministry with children until her death.

A memorial service celebrating her life was held on Saturday, February 22, 2003, at Trinity United Methodist Church in Durham, North Carolina, with the Reverend Susan Pate Greenwood, Rev. Gray Southern and Rev. Denise Connor Waters officiating. The service, featuring glorious vocal and handbell music and her family's and friend's fond memories of Genevieve, was also twelve years after John's service. Interment was next to John at Belcrest Memorial Park in Salem, Oregon, on July 9, 2003 with Rev. Randy Butler officiating.

FRANCES BRADSHAW BENSON

Frances Bradshaw Benson was married to Robert W. Bradshaw, a long time minister in our conference, who died in 1967. She later married J.W. Benson who, several years ago preceded her in death. She and Robert were together in churches in Raleigh, Tarboro, Greenville, Wilson, Durham, and again in Wilson. And while she was married to a minister, she was her own person, and that is what I will remember the most. She was Nan to her close friends, of which there were many, but she was mom to me. As mom, she was independent, assertive, head of the household I knew. She raised three boys in parsonages, the most memorable one being seven feet from the church in Wilson. It was a daunting task which she fulfilled well, with more grace than we deserved, and less severe discipline than we deserved.

She was a very special person who has received God's promise of eternal life. I hope God was ready. She is an interesting as well as wonderful addition to the Kingdom.

LOUISE ANNE C. PETERSON

Louise Anne Clark Peterson (Lou Anne) was born October 15, 1933 in Boston, Massachusetts, daughter of Edward F. and Margaret Clark. She died on May 4, 2003. Her funeral service was held May 6, at Southern Pines United Methodists Church The Pastor, Rev. Dr. Mark Wethington, and her husband Rev. Dr. Gerald Peterson conducted the service. Lou Anne's daughter, Brenda played the music.

Lou Anne and Gerald were married on September 11, 1955 in Everett Massachusetts. As they conducted marriage seminars and retreats together, their marriage of 47 plus years was seen by many couples as a good model to follow. As the wife of Dr. Peterson, Lou Anne was a supportive partner and very involved in a wide variety of ministry with her husband for 41 years. They shared in pastoral ministry at Palmer's Grove UMC in Hillsborough, Woodington and Webb's Chapel near Kinston, Trinity in Belhaven, St. James Associate in Greenville, Millbrook Associate in Raleigh, Queen Street Associate in Kinston, Pittsboro UMC in Pittsboro. In addition, Lou Anne supported Gerald as he was appointed by the Bishop as The NC Conference Coordinator of Camping and Children's Ministries, and later as a Family Therapist and Director of In Home Family Therapy services for the Methodist Home for Children. In the latter appointment, Lou Anne was a co-leader of Marriage Enrichment and Parenting seminars. In many of the churches she was an active choir member and teacher of several levels of Sunday school classes.

Lou Anne was a graduate of East Carolina University with a degree in Early Childhood Education. She received the award of Outstanding Senior from the Department of Child Development and Family Relations. For several years she was a pre-school teacher at St. James UMC in Greenville. After their retirement, Lou Anne moved her membership to Southern Pines UMC where she was a member of the United Methodist Women. She was also an active participant in the area Community Bible Study.

All of the family members would agree that Lou Anne's greatest commitment was her love and devotion to family, children and grandchildren. She taught them well and guided them in developing their Christian faith. This continues to be evidenced by the degree of involvement they all have in the life and ministries of their local churches. The rapid onset of her brain tumor and the short three-week duration of her hospitalization ended in her death. This was a tremendous shock to all of us. We miss her greatly. Yet we are confident and assured that through her faith and commitment to Christ and His church, she waits for us in God's Heavenly kingdom.

The Family of Lou Anne

ELLA FRANCES EDENS

Frances M. Edens, daughter of Roy Johnson and Ida Woodell Moose and beloved wife of Dr. Allen C. Edens, Jr. was born November 9, 1919, in Farmville, Virginia, was called by her Lord to eternal resting home on May 6, 2003.

A funeral honoring and celebrating her life was held on Thursday, May 8, 2003, at Spring Lake United Methodist Church, where Dr. Edens, resides as Pastor and where Frances played the organ for over 25 years until her passing.

Frances was the dearly loved wife of Dr. Allen C. Edens, Jr., a retired minister of the North Carolina Conference. They were united in holy matrimony on December 11, 1941, and enjoyed a marriage filled with love and happiness for 61 years.

She was a devoted wife and companion to her husband. She provided him with support during his career in Germany and Japan where he served as Chaplain in the army. They were blessed with four children, Sandra Gail, Linda Frances, Allen Cleveland III and David Roy, which she lovingly cared for. On November 15, 2002, Frances was deeply saddened by the passing of their oldest daughter Sandra Gail, who entered life eternal. Frances was a loving grandmother and great-grandmother and was blessed with six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

She was not only devoted to her family, but was talented, serving in the capacity as choir director and organist for their church, after their retirement from the army. Frances took an active roll in the local and district auxiliaries. She was a companion to her many friends.

Mrs. Edens is survived by her husband, Dr. Rev. Allen C. Edens, Jr. of Fayetteville, North Carolina, daughter, Linda Raplee, of Fayetteville, North Carolina, two sons, Allen C. Edens, III, of Cape Coral, Florida and David Roy Edens of Sterling, Virginia, six grandchildren, Dr. Thomas R. Lake, LTJG Jeffrey A. Lake, Christopher M. Edens, Callista S. Edens, Sean A. Edens and Lucas G. Edens, and two great-grandchildren, Lauren R. Lake, and Joshua A. Lake.

Frances will be missed by all of her family, but pleasant memories, her bright smile, laugh, and three kisses meaning "I Love You" will linger on.

2003 - 2004 ASSOCIATE MEMBERS, ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORDS

NOTE: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference associate members, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.
